Summer Journal Prompts

W.2.5

I made these so students could cut them out and glue them inside their journals on Monday, then work on their writing as time permits. You may prefer to cut them apart and give them out each day. I will have the kids highlight the prompt they chose.

Day 1- Write about going on vacation with your family. Include details about where you went and what you did. Illustrate and color.

Or write 10 or more adjectives describing summer. Draw a summer scene and write about what might be happening.

Day 2- Write about a trip to the ocean. Tell about the animals and habitat you will see. Illustrate and color.

Or imagine you are a fish. Write a story from his or her point of view. Illustrate and color.

Day 3- Write about a day swimming with your friends. Be sure to include a beginning, middle and end. Illustrate and color.

Or write about your favorite summer memory. Illustrate and color.

Day 4- Design a new skateboard. Write about how you will use it in a big competition. Illustrate and color.

Or write about how to build and live in a treehouse. Use first, next, then, last. Illustrate and color.

Day 5- Write about a fun snow day when school was canceled. Illustrate and color.

Or make a poster advertising a winter day of fun. Color.

Summer Bingo.... Calling Cards

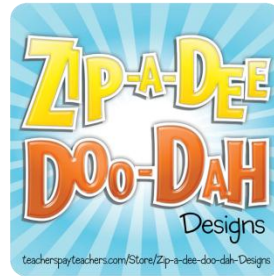

Copy on cardstock and laminate then cut apart. *Hint, I usually have the kids place their finished bingo cards in a plastic sleeve, and use counters or dry erase markers to cover words that have been called. This eliminates the temptation my sweet kiddos have of erasing and changing words during the game. ☺
