Assurances, Affirmations, and Declarations

Alliance Morgan McKinzie High School (also referred to herein as “McKinzie” and “Charter School”) shall:

- Be nonsectarian in its programs, admission policies, employment practices, and all other operations. (California Education Code (hereinafter “Ed. Code”) § 47605(e)(1).)
- Not charge tuition. (Ed. Code § 47605(e)(1).)
- Not discriminate against any pupil on the basis of disability, gender, gender identity, gender expression, nationality, race or ethnicity, religion, sexual orientation, or any other characteristic that is contained in the definition of hate crimes set forth in section 422.55 of the Penal Code, including immigration status. (Ed. Code § 47605(e)(1); Ed. Code § 220.)
- Except as provided in Education Code section 47605(e)(2), admission to a charter school shall not be determined according to the place of residence of the pupil, or of his or her parent or legal guardian, within this state, except that an existing public school converting partially or entirely to a charter school under this part shall adopt and maintain a policy giving admission preference to pupils who reside within the former attendance area of that school. (Ed. Code § 47605(e)(1).)
- Admit all pupils who wish to attend Charter School. (Ed. Code § 47605(e)(2)(A).)
- Except for existing pupils of Charter School, determine attendance by a public random drawing if the number of pupils who wish to attend Charter School exceeds Charter School’s capacity. Preference shall be extended to pupils currently attending Charter School and pupils who reside in the Los Angeles Unified School District (also referred to herein as “LAUSD” and “District”). Preferences shall not result in limiting enrollment access for pupils with disabilities, academically low-achieving pupils, English learners, neglected or delinquent pupils, homeless pupils, or pupils who are economically disadvantaged, as determined by eligibility for any free or reduced-price meal program, foster youth, or pupils based on nationality, race, ethnicity, or sexual orientation, and shall not require mandatory parental volunteer hours as a criterion for admission or continued enrollment. (Ed. Code § 47605(e)(2)(B).)
- Charter school shall not encourage a pupil currently attending the Charter School to disenroll from the Charter School or transfer to another school for any reason, including, but not limited to, academic performance of the pupil or because the pupil exhibits any of the characteristics described in Education Code section 47605(e)(2)(B)(iii). (Ed. Code § 47605(e)(4).)
- If a pupil is expelled or leaves Charter School without graduating or completing the school year for any reason, Charter School shall notify the superintendent of the school district of the pupil’s last known address within 30 days, and shall, upon request, provide that school district with a copy of the cumulative record of the pupil, including a transcript of grades or report card, and health information. (Ed. Code § 47605(e)(3).)

- Meet all statewide standards and conduct the pupil assessments required pursuant to Education Code sections 60605 and 60851 and any other statewide standards authorized in statute or pupil assessments applicable to pupils in non-charter public schools. (Ed. Code § 47605(d)(1).)
- Consult, on a regular basis, with Charter School’s parents, legal guardians, and teachers regarding the school’s educational programs. (Ed. Code § 47605(d)(2).)

Charter School hereby declares that Charter School, operated as or by its nonprofit public benefit corporation, is and shall be the exclusive public school employer of Charter School’s employees for the purposes of the Educational Employment Relations Act (EERA), Chapter 10.7 (commencing with Section 3540) of Division 4 of Title I of the Government Code. Charter School shall comply with all provisions of the EERA and shall act independently from LAUSD for collective bargaining purposes. In accordance with the EERA, employees may join and be represented by an organization of their choice for collective bargaining purposes.

NOTE: This Charter contains specific “Federal, State and District Required Language” (FSDRL), including the Assurances, Affirmations, and Declarations section above. The FSDRL should be highlighted in gray within each Charter element or section. The final section of the Charter provides a consolidated addendum of the FSDRL. This intentional redundancy facilitates efficient charter petition review while ensuring ready access to the FSDRL for any given section of the Charter. To the extent that any inconsistency may exist between any provision contained within the body of the Charter and the FSDRL contained in the addendum, the provisions of the FSDRL addendum shall control.

Element 1 - The Educational Program

“The educational program of the charter school, designed, among other things, to identify those whom the charter school is attempting to educate, what it means to be an “educated person” in the 21st century, and how learning best occurs. The goals identified in that program shall include the objective of enabling pupils to become self-motivated, competent, and lifelong learners.” (Ed. Code § 47605(c)(5)(A)(i).)

“The annual goals for the charter school for all pupils and for each subgroup of pupils identified pursuant to Section 52052, to be achieved in the state priorities, as described in subdivision (d) of Section 52060, that apply for the grade levels served, and specific annual actions to achieve those goals. A charter petition may identify additional school priorities, the goals for the school priorities, and the specific annual actions to achieve those goals.” (Ed. Code § 47605(c)(5)(A)(ii).)

“If the proposed charter school will serve high school pupils, a description of the manner in which the charter school will inform parents about the transferability of courses to other public high schools and the eligibility of courses to meet college entrance requirements. Courses offered by the charter school that are accredited by the Western Association of Schools and Colleges may be considered transferable and courses approved by the University of California or the California State University as creditable under the “A” to “G” admissions criteria may be considered to meet college entrance requirements.” (Ed. Code § 47605(c)(5)(A)(iii).)

LOCAL CONTROL FUNDING FORMULA (LCFF) AND LOCAL CONTROL AND ACCOUNTABILITY PLAN (LCAP)

Charter School acknowledges and agrees that it must comply with all applicable laws and regulations related to AB 97 (2013) (Local Control Funding Formula), as they may be amended from time to time, which include the requirement that Charter School shall annually submit a Local Control and Accountability Plan (LCAP)/annual update to the Los Angeles County Superintendent of Schools and the Charter Schools Division (CSD) on or before July 1. In accordance with Education Code sections 47604.33 and 47606.5, Charter School shall annually update its goals and annual actions to achieve those goals identified in the charter pursuant to Education Code section 47605(c)(5)(A)(ii), using the Local Control and Accountability Plan template adopted by the State Board of Education, as it may be changed from time to time. Charter School shall comply with all requirements of Education Code section 47606.5, including but not limited to the requirement that Charter School “shall consult with teachers, principals, administrators, other school personnel, parents, and pupils in developing the local control and accountability plan and annual update to the local control and accountability plan.” (Ed. Code § 47606.5(d).)

ACADEMIC CALENDAR AND SCHEDULES

Charter School shall offer, at a minimum, the number of minutes of instruction set forth in Education Code section 47612.5, and the number of school days required by California Code of Regulations, title 5, section 11960.

MATHEMATICS PLACEMENT

Charter School shall comply with all applicable requirements of the California Mathematics Placement Act of 2015.

TRANSITIONAL KINDERGARTEN

Charter School shall comply with all applicable requirements regarding transitional kindergarten. For purposes of admission to Charter School, transitional kindergarten shall be considered a part of kindergarten, and therefore students enrolled in transitional kindergarten at Charter School shall be considered existing students of Charter School for purposes of Charter School's admissions, enrollment, and lottery.

WASC ACCREDITATION

If Charter School serves students in grades 9-12, before Charter School graduates its first class of students, Charter School shall obtain, and thereafter maintain, Western Association of Schools and Colleges (WASC) accreditation.

ENGLISH LEARNERS

Charter School shall identify potential English Learners in a timely manner in accordance with all applicable legal requirements. Charter School must provide all English Learners with an effective English language acquisition program that also affords meaningful and equitable access to Charter School's core academic curriculum. Instructional plans for English Learners must be (1) based on sound educational theory; (2) adequately supported with trained teachers and appropriate materials and resources; and (3) periodically evaluated to make sure the program is successful and modified when the program is not successful.

On an annual basis, upon request, Charter School shall submit a certification to the LAUSD Charter Schools Division (CSD) that certifies that Charter School has adopted and is implementing either the LAUSD Master Plan for English Learners and Standard English Learners or Charter School's own English Learner (EL) Master Plan. If Charter School chooses to implement its own EL Master Plan, the plan shall provide a detailed description of Charter School's EL program, and shall address the following:

- How Charter School's EL Master Plan provides all of its English Learners, including but not limited to Long Term English Learners (LTELs) with an effective English language acquisition program as well as meaningful and equitable access to Charter School's core academic curriculum
- How English Learners' specific needs will be identified
- What services will be offered

- How, where, and by whom the services will be provided
- How Charter School will evaluate its EL program each year, and how the results of this evaluation will be used to improve the program, including the provision of EL services

Each year, Charter School shall provide to the CSD a report on its annual evaluation of the effectiveness of its EL program. Upon request, Charter School shall provide a copy of its current EL Master Plan to the CSD.

Charter School shall administer the CELDT/ELPAC annually in accordance with federal and state requirements.

Charter School shall reclassify English Learners in accordance with federal and state requirements.

Charter School shall provide parent outreach services and meaningfully inform parents with limited English proficiency of important information regarding Charter School matters to the same extent as other parents.

STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES

Federal Law Compliance

Charter School shall adhere to all provisions of federal law related to students with disabilities including, but not limited to, section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, Title II of the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, and the Individuals with Disabilities Education Improvement Act of 2004.

Special Education Program

Charter School shall ensure that no student otherwise eligible to enroll in Charter School shall be denied, directly or indirectly, admission due to a disability or to Charter School's inability to provide necessary services. Charter School acknowledges that policies and procedures are in place to ensure the recruitment, enrollment, service, and retention of students with disabilities at LAUSD-authorized charter schools, including Charter School.

Prior to LAUSD Board of Education approval of an initial Charter petition, and if a renewing Charter School intends to operate as a "school of the district" for special education services, Charter School shall execute a Memorandum of Understanding ("MOU") by and between LAUSD and Charter School regarding the provision and funding of special education services consistent with applicable state law and the LAUSD Special Education Local Plan Area ("SELPA") Local Plan for Special Education and shall be considered a "public school of the District" for purposes of Special Education pursuant to Education Code section 47641(b). However, Charter School reserves the right to make written verifiable assurances that it may become an independent local educational agency (LEA) and join a SELPA pursuant to Education Code section 47641(a) either on its own or with a grouping of charter school LEAs as a consortium following the requirements of Education Code section 56195.3(b). In this instance, Charter School will execute a MOU with LAUSD on provisions of special education as a member of a non-LAUSD SELPA.

SELPA Reorganization

The Los Angeles Unified School District is approved to operate as a single-District SELPA under the provisions of Education Code section 56195.1(a). As a single-District SELPA, the District has created two charter school sections (District-operated Programs and Charter-operated Programs) under the administration of one single Administrative Unit pursuant to a reorganization plan approved by the Board of Education on January 4, 2011 (149/10-11). Full implementation of the reorganized LAUSD SELPA commenced in the 2013-2014 school year requiring all District-authorized charter schools to elect one of the three options available under the LAUSD SELPA. Prior to an option election, all District-authorized charter schools were required to participate as a school of the District under the District-Operated Programs Unit. Prior to the beginning of the 2013-2014 school year, all District-authorized charter schools, other than those that had previously executed an Option 3 Memorandum of Understanding (“MOU”), were required to execute a new MOU setting forth the LAUSD SELPA option election for the remainder of the charter petition term. The Charter-operated Program schools do not have LEA status for the purposes of special education but will function in a similar role in that each charter school will be responsible for all special education requirements, including but not limited to services, placement, due process, related services, special education classes, and special education supports. Charter schools that have elected to participate in a District-operated programs option may apply for membership in the Charter-operated Program section of the SELPA. Charter schools accepted for participation in the Charter-operated Programs section receive support from a Special Education Director for the Charter-operated Programs.

Use of District’s Special Education Policies and Procedures and Data Systems

All charter schools approved by the LAUSD Board of Education are bound by and must adhere to the terms, conditions and requirements of orders imposed upon the District pertaining to special education. All charter schools are required to use the District’s Special Education Policies and Procedures Manual and Welligent, the District-wide web-based software system used for online Individualized Education Programs (“IEPs”) and tracking of related services provided to students during the course of their education.

All charter schools are required to interface with My Integrated Student Information System (MiSiS) via a web based Application Programming Interface (API). MiSiS is a suite of applications which is designed to capture all student data.

Community Need for Charter School

School's Academic Performance

Since its founding, McKinzie has had a student-centered focus on providing high-quality education and opportunities to historically underserved communities. Evidence of our school's strong performance in that mission can be seen in a wide variety of verified data provided by the state, including the SBAC Distance From Standard (DFS) metric, and multiple metrics from the California School Dashboard. As per the LAUSD Policy and Procedures for Charter Schools document, we have provided a "comparison to Resident Schools' performance on the measures of academic performance" (p. 37) where possible. This analysis was created by using LAUSD's Resident School Identifier tool. Because we currently do not have access to the Resident Schools Median data from LAUSD, despite multiple requests to CSD and the Office of Data and Accountability that these data be provided, we have provided data for this "Local Schools Median" below to provide longitudinal local school data. This "Local Schools Median" is calculated as the median of the six LAUSD home schools for Leichtman-Levine's physical address.

Beyond the growth evident in these data, McKinzie is contributing to hundreds of scholars finding postsecondary success after they leave our walls. Despite the well-documented and systemic challenges faced by communities like the one we serve, our school provides high-quality supports that lead our scholars to attend, persist, and graduate from college at a significantly higher rate than their peers across the nation. Year after year, National Student Clearinghouse data clearly shows that graduates of McKinzie surpass their national averages, in all the above metrics, as students who are predominantly English Learners, Socioeconomically Disadvantaged, Students With Disabilities, Black and African-American, or Latine. Indeed, many of our students navigate the intersection of multiple backgrounds, facing complex challenges that require the support of a dedicated community of learners to overcome and thrive. McKinzie commits to continuing to improve our program in support of these scholars and our community, rigorously and holistically preparing them to gain acceptance to and graduate from college, and to ultimately become valuable contributors to their communities and families. As demonstrated by the evidence below of McKinzie's strong student growth performance and the unique needs of our community, our school meets the renewal criteria under Section 47607.2(b), and must be granted a renewal term of five years.

Demographics Comparison

Higher Percentage of Socioeconomically Disadvantaged Scholars

Since its founding, our school's mission has been to make the College-Ready Promise with the historically underserved communities in the greater Los Angeles area. Because of this, the community we serve has significantly higher rates of students with barriers to success, including Socioeconomically Disadvantaged backgrounds. Our school also serves English Learners and Students with Disabilities at rates comparable to the state and LAUSD. It is well-documented that scholars from these backgrounds face additional challenges to success at all levels of education. In fact, recent data from the National Student Clearinghouse reveals that graduates from high-poverty high schools enroll in college at only two-thirds the rate of their peers from low-poverty schools, and graduate from college at less than half the rate.

Subgroup Percentage - 2024
Subgroup	McKinzie	LAUSD	State
Socioeconomically Disadvantaged	95.7%	81.6%	65.1%
English Learners	16.8%	21.6%	19.7%
Students with Disabilities	18.9%	16.0%	15.0%

Scholars Arrive at Our School Significantly Behind in ELA and Math

The above demographic realities lead to significantly lower academic performance by scholars in the years before they attend McKinzie. The data below shows the average DFS for scholars in the year preceding their attendance at our school, in both ELA and Math, and compares these scores to the State and LAUSD averages for the same grade level and years. In Spring 2024, scholars who would go on to attend McKinzie as 9th graders in the 2024-25 school year scored 26.8 DFS points lower in their 8th grade ELA SBAC assessments than 8th grade scholars in LAUSD as a whole, and 41.1 DFS points lower than other 8th graders across the State. In math, our incoming 9th graders also scored 30.3 DFS points lower on their 8th grade Math SBAC than LAUSD 8th graders and 49.3 DFS points lower than 8th graders across the State. This means that our scholars enter our schools in 9th grade already demonstrating performance much lower in ELA and Math when compared to their peers entering 9th grade in LAUSD or schools across the State. Despite entering our schools much further behind, our data below demonstrates that, overall, our scholars show significant academic growth every year they attend our school.

Pre-Attendance Scholar Performance Comparison Grade 8 - All Students
LEA	Grade	ELA		Math
		2023	2024	2023	2024
McKinzie	8	-45.8	-59.4	-105.2	-111
LAUSD	8	-36.7	-32.6	-92.5	-80.7
State	8	-18.2	-18.3	-67.9	-61.7

ELA DFS Performance

ELA Performance Above Local Schools, LAUSD, and the State

Scholars at McKinzie have demonstrated years of DFS performance that exceed local schools, LAUSD, and the state.

ELA DFS - All Students

ELA Subgroup Performance Exceeds Local Schools, LAUSD, and the State

This strong performance continues when subgroups from 2024 are analyzed. As seen in the table below, all numerically significant subgroups at McKinzie outperformed their peers in local schools, LAUSD, and the State.

ELA - DFS Score by Subgroup - 2024

School	All Students	EL	SWD	Latinx	SocEcon Disadv	LTEL
McKinzie	23.5	-38	-58.1	24.3	26.1	-76.9
Local Schools Median	-8.55	-105.6	-83.8	-9.45	-7.7	-133.7
LAUSD	-28.2	-78.7	-106.9	-38.9	-40.2	-129.4
State	-13.2	-67.6	-95.6	-39.3	-40.9	-109.6

Preliminary 2025 DFS Data Indicates DFS Maintained Previous Gains

Preliminary data from testing in Spring 2025 indicate that our school-wide DFS remains largely unchanged since experiencing strong growth in 2024. This is a strong indication that the changes to our educational program are having a significant impact, and previous gains have not regressed.

ELA Verified Data

Strong CORE Growth Results in ELA

CORE Growth Reports are generated through data analysis of hundreds of schools across the state. CORE member districts include Los Angeles Unified, Fresno Unified, Garden Grove Unified, Long Beach Unified, Oakland Unified, Sacramento City Unified, San Francisco Unified, San Jose Unified, and Santa Ana Unified. Taken together, these districts include more than 1 million students. Post-Covid growth data is available starting in the 2022-23 school year.

The CORE growth model reports a growth percentile, which is a 0 to 100 scale that compares a school to other schools serving similar students. Each percentile represents where a school stands in a group of 100 other schools like it. For example, a school at the 75th percentile grows its scholars better than 74 out of 100 schools. According to CORE, 50th percentile growth represents a typical year of growth for students in the school in question. A score of above 50th percentile indicates that scholars at this school show more growth than at most other schools like it.

In ELA, the 2023-24 CORE Growth Reports place our schools in the top tier of schools across the state, demonstrating the positive impacts of our educational program in ELA and the outstanding impact of our program on scholars' ELA growth.

Practices Supporting Growth and Achievement

At Morgan McKinzie High School we have worked to refine practices in weekly observation feedback of teachers, weekly data analysis including all subgroups, and have adopted a strong, research backed curriculum to ensure that all students are best supported and that we are adjusting instruction and practices regularly in order to support all learners and push ourselves to continuously improve. We have been proud of the progress we have made and see the impact of our work, in fact the dip in our data is indicative of a semester we spent without an assistant principal in that department to lead that work demonstrating the impact that the practices have and the impact on student learning as soon as the new assistant principal arrived and picked up the same practices. We have found that the consistency in those practices has also led to strong teacher retention and teacher satisfaction due to their feelings of being developed and supported by the team.

Before each week, teachers engage in what we call intellectual preparation, during which they intentionally prepare for the week's lessons by reading the text, annotating any questions they may want to ask, completing all student tasks to ensure they are clear on how students will engage with the text, and tasks and planning how they will use questioning to deepen students' thinking. This prepares teachers to use every minute of class time intentionally. Once in the class, teachers use a variety of school-wide strategies to ensure students are learning and we are monitoring their progress. One of these strategies is intentional monitoring. This daily strategy consists of teachers planning out circulation routes of their classrooms (which students need to be checked in with first and which can wait a bit longer), clearly stating what they are monitoring for, and circulating the class, looking at each student's work and providing them feedback on what they named. Using these planning and monitoring strategies consistently has ensured student outcomes not only remain consistent but also increase year after year.

Math DFS Performance

Math Performance Above Local Schools, LAUSD, and the State

After three consecutive years of growth, scholars at McKinzie now achieve higher than their peers at local schools, LAUSD, and the state.

Math DFS - All Students

Latine and Socioeconomically Disadvantaged Subgroup Performance Higher than Local Schools, LAUSD, and the State

Latine and Socio-economically Disadvantaged students, who comprise the largest subgroups at our school, outperformed local schools, LAUSD, and the state as a whole by a wide margin in 2024. Our Latine scholars outperformed local schools by 83.8 DFS points, LAUSD by 37.1 DFS points, and the state by 43.7 DFS points. Our Socioeconomically Disadvantaged scholars outperformed local schools by 81.35 DFS points, LAUSD by 37 DFS points, and the state by 42.6 DFS points.

Preliminary 2025 DFS Data Indicates Strong Growth

Preliminary data from testing in Spring 2025 indicate that our school-wide DFS average grew to -25 in 2025. This represents a growth of 12.3 DFS points since 2024 and marks the second straight year of strong growth, as seen in the graph below.

Exemplary CORE Growth Results in Math

CORE Growth Reports are generated through data analysis of hundreds of schools across the state. CORE member districts include Los Angeles Unified, Fresno Unified, Garden Grove Unified, Long Beach Unified, Oakland Unified, Sacramento City Unified, San Francisco Unified, San Jose Unified, and Santa Ana Unified. Taken together, these districts include more than 1 million students. Post-Covid growth data is available starting in the 2022-23 school year.

The CORE growth model reports a growth percentile, which is a 0 to 100 scale that compares a school to other schools serving similar students. Each percentile represents where a school stands in a group of 100 other schools like it. For example, a school at the 75th percentile grows its scholars better than 74 out of 100 schools. According to CORE, 50th percentile growth represents a typical year of growth for students in the school in question. A score of above 50th percentile indicates that scholars at this school show more growth than at most other schools like it.

In Math, the last two years of CORE Growth Reports place our schools in the top tier of schools across the state, demonstrating the positive impacts of our educational program in Math and the outstanding impact of our program on scholars' math growth.

Practices Supporting Growth and Achievement

Math is a subject that has historically been neglected in our underserved community. We sought to disrupt that and work to improve outcomes for our students in order to open opportunities for them in STEM fields. The data you see above represents the work we have done to improve our practices and the results on student outcomes. We are proud to lead in math in our community.

Math is an area in which we made very strategic choices to make incremental change, which is sustainable and results in steady growth over time, and ensures that our students continue to grow in deep mathematical understanding. We adopted a research-based curriculum, invested in teachers attending several PD series by the curriculum publisher, engaged in weekly observation feedback, weekly lesson plan feedback, weekly data analysis, and weekly department meetings to work toward a deeper understanding of the demands of the math content as a team. We have found that putting all of these practices together, while time and energy-consuming, has resulted in consistent data gains, greater teacher confidence and joy in their success, and student enjoyment of the math content.

Before each lesson, teachers engage in intellectual preparation, completing all student work to ensure they understand the demands of the task, plan for misconceptions, and pre-plan questions they can ask when students get stuck. In classrooms, dynamic instructional practices result in students enjoying engaging in math and feeling successful in the courses, leading to them pushing themselves to try more challenging problems. Teachers circulate throughout the class and push students' thinking using hinge questions. They write more questions on students' desks with markers versus answering questions when students have them, resulting in students becoming better problem solvers. Students engage in a variety of modalities to solve problems, including working in groups in table settings, working in groups on non-permanent surfaces on walls, and a variety of group relay assessments. All of the variety and low-stakes engagement result in students finding joy in mathematics and shifting their mindsets to a growth mindset about math.

In addition, we partner with Air Tutors to support forty-five of our most struggling students in math by providing two additional hours a week of high-dosage math tutoring. Air Tutors is a company that provides us with tutors online. We structured the program in a way that we are able to create pre-assessments to determine the skills the students most need to work on, and we design lessons and materials the students can work on with their Air Tutors. The students work in groups of three with their tutors and take weekly assessments with us to gauge their learning. We then use that data to plan the lessons for the tutors for the next week. We have a great relationship with the company and are able to watch videos of the tutors working with our students and send feedback directly to the tutors to continue refining the work they do and improving student outcomes. We have had great success with the program, and students love it. In December, we gave an Air Tutors satisfaction survey to the students, and 93% said they are enjoying the program and would recommend it to a friend.

The above data show a clear picture of the strong outcomes of our educational program and the dedication of all the educational partners at our school.

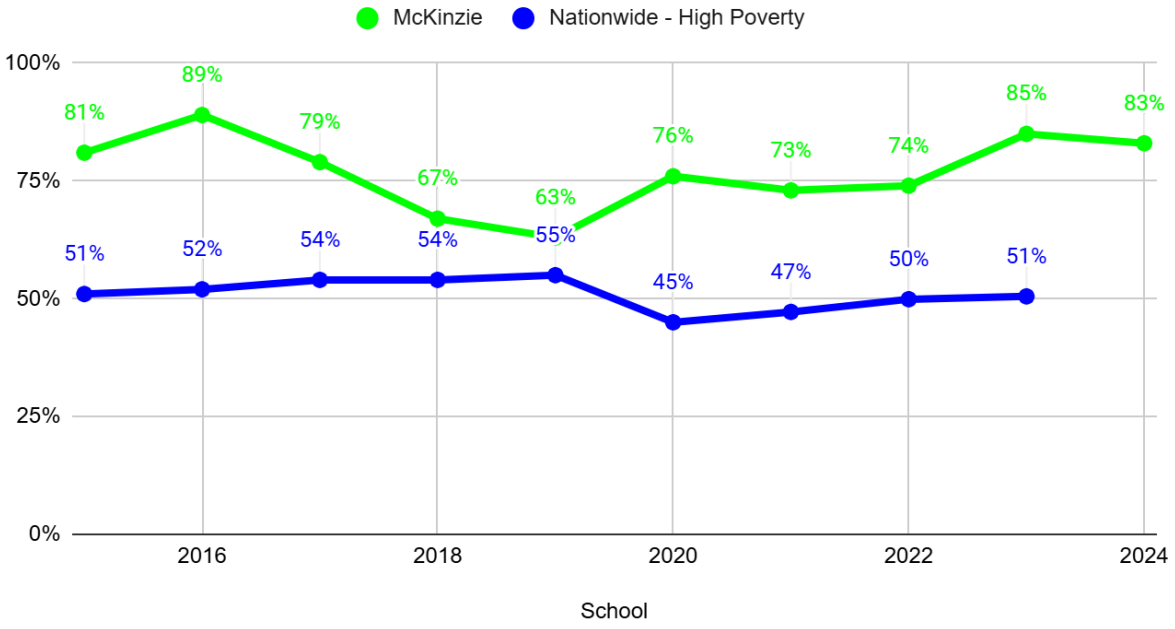

College Matriculation, Persistence, and Completion - Verified Data

Matriculation: National Student Clearinghouse Enrollment Rate Higher Than Peers Across the Nation

This is a metric produced by the National Student Clearinghouse (NSC). The data below are produced from school-specific reports for Morgan McKinzie, as well as from Annual Reports. Although the best comparison for our school would be with a High-Minority and High-Poverty subgroup, the NSC does not provide data aggregated for that combination of characteristics. Because of this, we must compare our school with High-Poverty-only schools, a subgroup that almost certainly has higher matriculation rates than a more appropriate subgroup. However, despite this, McKinzie shows better matriculation rates than these schools for every year in the past decade.

College Matriculation Rates by Graduating Classes
School	2015	2016	2017	2018	2019	2020	2021	2022	2023	2024
McKinzie	81%	89%	79%	67%	63%	76%	73%	74%	85%	83%
Nationwide - High Poverty	51%	52%	54%	54%	55%	45%	47%	50%	51%

Although the best comparison for our school would be with a High-Minority and High-Poverty subgroup, the NSC does not provide data aggregated for that combination of characteristics. Because of this, we must compare our school with High-Poverty-only schools, a subgroup that almost certainly has higher graduation rates than a data point that also factors in race/ethnicity.*

Persistence: College-Going Rate for HS Completers Exceeds Local Schools, LAUSD, and the State

This is a metric produced by the California Department of Education. It uses National Student Clearinghouse data to assess the percentage of a graduating class that is still attending college after 16 months. Due to the 2-year longitudinal nature of this metric, data for the graduating class of 2022 is the most recent data available from the CDE. This metric demonstrates years of graduating classes who attend college at a greater rate, and with greater persistence, than local schools, LAUSD as a whole, and across the State for every graduating class except 2022. In addition, we have seen growth in this metric post-Covid, demonstrating the resilience of our scholars and school community as a whole.

CDE College-Going Rate for HS Completers (16-Month) - All Students
School	2020	2021	2022
McKinzie	60.3%	68.4%	63.2%
LAUSD	57.8%	57.5%	57.0%
State	62.7%	62.2%	62.0%
Local Schools Median	38.6%	45.5%	40.9%

Completion: National Student Clearinghouse 6-Year Completion Rate Competitive With Nationwide High-Poverty Schools

When our school is compared with Nationwide High-Poverty schools, our school remains competitive with that group (even though a better comparator for our schools would be Nationwide High-Poverty and High-Minority schools, if it were available). Given the positive trends in persistence noted above, we strongly believe that this data will improve in the future. We also believe that if there were a metric comparing High-Poverty and High-Minority scholars, our rates would be comparable or better. Due to the 6-year longitudinal nature of this metric, data for the graduating class of 2018 is the most recent data available for our school, which we gather from the National Student Clearinghouse StudentTracker Aggregate Report available each Spring. The national data set for the class of 2018 will not be available until the National Student Clearinghouse releases the High School Benchmarks report in Fall 2025.

6-Year College Completion Rates by HS Graduating Class

Our college-going rate is transformative to our community and impactful on so many levels. Many of our staff are graduates of our high school, a four-year university, and have returned to serve the students in their neighborhood because they strongly believe in the impact of the school on their ability to get to and through college.

Across all classes and contents, our school uses strong academic practices to ensure that students have the foundational skills to succeed in college. We expose students to labs, discussions, and offer dual enrollment so that they can experience college-like experiences throughout their time with us.

We ensure that courses match the rigor that students will experience in college. All courses on our campus require college-level reading and writing and include Socratic seminars. Courses include independent work and homework, which prepares students for the independent learning they will do in college. We work as a team on vertical articulation of study skills and independent work skills to ensure that students are developing the skills and study muscles they will need to be able to succeed in college and beyond, and we are seeing the results of that work in our college matriculation rates.

We have three full-time college counselors who support students throughout high school, starting in summer bridge to transition into high school, understanding A-G requirements and how credits work, and supporting them with regular check-ins to ensure their grades stay up and they stay on track to graduate on time. Throughout high school, they provide college exploration through Naviance and a variety of field trips and tours. We partner with organizations like College Match and a variety of internships to expose students to many post-secondary options, keeping them excited about life after high school and supporting them in making the decision that is best for them.

California School Dashboard

Many metrics on the California School Dashboard also demonstrate the success our students are experiencing at our school.

English Learner Progress - % Met Target Growth
School	EL	LTEL
McKinzie	61.8%	59.7%
Local Schools Median	40.9%	42.9%
LAUSD	47.5%	50.4%
State	45.7%	45.8%

English Learner Growth Surpasses LAUSD, the State, and Local Schools

On the English Learner Progress metric, our school demonstrates stronger growth than comparable subgroups in the Local Schools Median, LAUSD, and throughout the State as a whole. The strength of this growth clearly demonstrates the success of our program to support the growth of English Learners, a very valuable strength given the importance of language acquisition in supporting all other aspects of our educational program and our scholars' opportunities in the future.

Working in the community of East Los Angeles with a high population of English Learners, we take pride in ensuring that all students have the language skills they need to succeed in high school and beyond.

We support language acquisition in a variety of ways, including drop-in vocabulary in all content areas, strategic groupings, and ensuring that student talk and student-to-student talk are present during the majority of class time. Our students get lots of practice using language, and our strong student culture results in a very safe environment for all students to feel secure in making mistakes and trying new things. Vibrant, discussion-filled classrooms, grade-level text, and strategic groupings ensure that all students have the people and materials around them they need to succeed.

Through their designated ELD classes, students get explicit practice in all four language domains (reading, writing, listening, and speaking), and students are able to practice with others at their same level of language acquisition, gaining confidence and building skills. Our ELD teacher builds engaging activities that push students to read text that is just beyond their current independent level, write with details, and engage in discussions, speaking and listening to each other. Students also read novels at their independent level to ensure they are gaining fluency and preview skills, and texts for their core classes to gain confidence in those subjects, to support their success.

Graduation Rate Exceeds LAUSD and the State

When comparing Graduation Rates at McKinzie to peers, a subgroup analysis reveals that all numerically significant subgroups outperform LAUSD and the State as a whole. These data further demonstrate the effectiveness of our scholar supports and interventions, enabling them to succeed in our school's rigorous academic program.

Graduation Rate - by Subgroup (HS Only)
School	All Students	EL	SWD	Latinx	SocEcon Disadv
McKinzie	88.8%	82.4%	83.3%	88.7%	88.7%
LAUSD	86.7%	71.5%	71.4%	86.6%	86.7%
State	86.7%	77.9%	74.4%	85.3%	84.4%

This number represents students who graduate in four years, but our numbers last year were impacted by a disproportionately large number of students with learning differences (about 10% higher than neighboring schools), resulting in a small group of students who needed one additional quarter to graduate. Those students had taken a few classes more than once and needed the class presented in a different way, which we were able to do during the summer. They were able to graduate, but did so after the cutoff to count for the above graduation rate. In the end, all but one student received their diploma by the end of the summer.

Overall, our 5-year cohort graduation rate is 93.7% as tracked by the CDE, which is above the district and state averages.

Some strategies that have supported our strong graduation rate throughout the years are our weekly grade level meetings during which the grade level content teachers, special education teacher, and grade level counselor meet to review student grades and any student concerns and strategize on how to support each student. The following week, the team meets again to follow up on how things are going and action plan further from there. Counselors also do regular grade checks with students and families to share progress toward graduation in terms of credits to ensure that everyone is clear on what the student's grad plan is and whether or not they need to plan time for summer school, etc. The collaborative effort of the team has a great benefit for all students.

Counselors also check in with students in advisory on a regular basis to work through activities in Naviance, including interest surveys, career exploration, and college searches, which keep students excited about life after graduation and focused on their goals. These opportunities to see the larger picture of why they need to complete high school keep students focused and motivated to finish school.

Suspension Rate Lower Than the State

These school supports are further demonstrated by suspension rates at McKinzie, as our school supports all students with counseling, social-emotional learning, and a well-implemented system of Positive Behavioral Interventions and Supports. In a subgroup analysis, the suspension rate at McKinzie is lower than the state as a whole for all numerically significant subgroups.

Suspension Rate - Metric by Subgroup
School	All Students	EL	SWD	Latinx	SocEcon

					Disadv
McKinzie	1.4%	1.2%	3.3%	1.4%	1.5%
State	3.2%	3.4%	5.4%	3.4%	4.0%

By keeping students in school and finding alternatives to suspension, we have developed a strong school culture where students feel safe to make and repair mistakes and know that they will be held accountable for their actions, versus suspension, where it feels like they could run from their mistakes or be removed from them.

Some of the practices that have contributed to this low suspension rate are creating systems for student ownership of behavior redirection. Students now run pivotal events like summer bridge and teach students what our behavioral norms are, and spend the week redirecting student behavior and explaining to our new students why we behave/don't behave in certain ways. We also established No Place for Hate, which is a student group that addresses hate speech, but more than that, encourages kindness on campus. We have monthly campus-wide awards for students who exemplify our behavior norms, and we have daily culture walkthroughs with the school leadership team to ensure we are supporting teachers in addressing small behaviors like wearing hats in classrooms before they become larger distractions. Our dean supports campus-wide behavior by preventing behavior challenges through coaching teachers on behavior management strategies and forming strong relationships with students, which he can leverage when needed.

Social Emotional Learning

After COVID, it was clear that we were going to need to take a much more proactive approach to social-emotional learning, so we added a second school psychologist. We made this decision based on a calendar audit of our first school psychologist, determining that most of her time was spent providing DIS counseling to our students with IEPs. We knew that students returning to campus were going to need additional support, and we wanted to ensure that we were able to provide that. Having that second psychologist on campus has provided us the opportunity to support students after COVID through the trauma and difficulties it resulted in by creating:

- Readily available supports for all kids, counseling, check-ins, threat assessments, etc
- Grief support groups for students who have lost loved ones
- Health relationship groups for students who spent a lot of time witnessing unhealthy relationships while at home
- Family workshops on many topics, including mental health, stress, and substance abuse
- Partnerships to provide students with therapy in person and online on campus
- Art therapy for students and families on campus
- The creation of a robust, grade-level appropriate advisory curriculum
- And many other resources as needed

High Quality Instructional Materials Audit

Alliance conducts regular audits of its instructional materials to ensure they are rigorous, standards-aligned, and culturally responsive. This process includes collaboration with external experts, such as The New Teacher Project (TNTP), to provide independent reviews and specialized insight. Recent curriculum reviews in Math, Science, and English Language Development (ELD) have evaluated materials for alignment to grade-level standards, incorporation of appropriate language supports, and responsiveness to students' cultural contexts. Based on these findings, the network takes intentional action to ensure that all adopted core curricula across grade levels meet high standards for academic rigor, inclusivity, and relevance.

Our School Meets Criteria for Renewal Under Assembly Bill No. 1505

As the above data demonstrate, McKinzie has achieved the statutory criteria for renewal under AB 1505. First, our school has “achieved measurable increases in academic achievement, as defined by at least one year’s progress for each year in school” as stated in 47607.2 (b)(3)(A). This has been shown through DFS performance exceeding the Resident Schools Median, LAUSD, and the State as a whole, in both ELA and Math, but also the CORE reports that show our scholars outpaced growth in ELA and Math for 2022-23 and the 2023-24 school year compared to similar scholars across the State of California. Given our school’s performance described above, it is evident that our school continues to be an important and outstanding school of choice within its neighborhood. However, we as a school community will continue our efforts to improve every year to ensure our scholars receive the education they deserve. We will continue to work strategically to continue to close the achievement gap that so many of our scholars come to us with, to ensure they leave ready to get to and through college.

In addition, our school demonstrates “strong postsecondary outcomes, as defined by college enrollment, persistence, and completion rates equal to similar peers” as stated in 47607.2 (b)(3)(B). This is shown in matriculation and graduation rates that exceed nationwide averages for High-Poverty schools, and persistence rates that exceed LAUSD and the State as measured by the National Student Clearinghouse.

Under the above-verified data and language from AB 1505, as well as the requirement written in 47607.2 (b)(2) that, “the chartering authority shall provide greater weight to performance on measurements of academic performance in determining whether to grant a charter renewal,” McKinzie has met all criteria for renewal and must be granted a renewal term of five years.

Success of Key and/or Innovative Features of the Educational Program

The success of the below features has been analyzed above under School’s Academic Performance.

Key or Innovative features of the Alliance educational program are as follows:

- 1. High Expectations for All Students - All students, including students in historically underachieving communities, can successfully learn at high levels and have a fundamental right to high expectations and quality instruction that prepare them to enter and succeed in college. All students must pass the A-G college entrance course requirements with a grade of C or better to graduate and be at least proficient in core academic standards (reading, writing, math, science, history/social science) to be ready for success in college.
- 2. Small Personalized Schools and Classrooms - Students learn best in small learning communities where their education is personalized so that students know their teachers and are well known as individuals by all adults in the school. Blended-learning classrooms, like those at Bloomfield, offer even more personalized and individualized instruction that targets individual student learning needs, takes them from where they are and accelerates their learning to where they need to be in order to graduate ready for success in college.
- 3. Increased Instructional Time - All students must have sufficient time in school to learn successfully. The school offers a longer school year and ongoing opportunities for extended learning time through intervention or enrichment to meet individual student needs. Daily learning time is structured in longer instructional blocks of time to allow for focused in-depth learning. Students will also have access to online resources, be able to replay online content, and access other features allowed by using technology, creating many out-of-classroom learning opportunities. Research demonstrates how increased learning time can lead to higher achievement.
- 4. Highly Qualified Principals and Teachers – All Alliance schools must have exemplary principals who are capable instructional leaders and entrepreneurs in managing resources, and who are given opportunities for ongoing leadership training. Knowing that students learn best with teachers who know their subject field, are well trained to deliver rigorous instruction, and can attend to the diverse needs of individual students, these skills are at the forefront when selecting and developing teachers. Our teachers work in collaborative teams with common planning time where lessons are studied as a learning community and where accountability for student success is a shared responsibility.
- 5. Working with Parents as Partners - Parents at all Alliance schools are meaningfully and actively engaged in their children’s education. They have a right to choose to send their children to excellent high performing schools. Parents must be responsible and accountable for supporting their children’s learning at school and at home. They must understand what it will take to prepare their children for college, and they are encouraged to support the goals of the school through their voice and through volunteering.

Success of School's Educational Program in Meeting Needs of Student Population

The success of the below program elements has been analyzed above under School's Academic Performance.

The educational program at McKinzie is designed to ensure that all students, including those in numerically significant student groups (low-achieving, socioeconomically disadvantaged, students with disabilities, and students from other subgroups), receive the support necessary to meet or exceed academic standards.

Identification and Support for Low-Achieving Students:

- Early Identification and Monitoring: The school identifies low-achieving students through diagnostic assessments, state testing, and grades, with a focus on students earning below a C or showing academic deficiencies. Teachers and school leadership teams actively monitor this data, and interventions are put in place based on interim assessments and progress reports.
- Tailored Interventions: Low-achieving students are provided with targeted support in core subjects, such as English Language Arts (ELA) and math. Remediation and support classes are offered; and teachers use online digital content providers to supplement one-on-one instruction, alongside high dosage tutoring. This personalized approach allows the school to address the specific academic gaps of each student.
- Outcome Tracking: Success is measured through ongoing assessments, including state exams and formative assessments, with regular data analysis to evaluate the effectiveness of interventions. For example, over the past year, students in remediation and support classes demonstrated a 10% increase in proficiency rates in math and ELA compared to the previous year.

Support for Socioeconomically Disadvantaged and Low-Income Students:

- High Proportion of Low-Income Students: Approximately 95.7% of students at McKinzie qualify for the federal lunch program, reflecting a student population that is predominantly socioeconomically disadvantaged.
- Targeted Academic Support: The school uses standards-based grading, scaffolded and differentiated learning, and after-school tutoring to ensure that low-income students receive the necessary academic support to succeed. Programs are designed to meet the needs of students who enter the school behind grade level, with progress tracked through interim assessments and state exams.
- Academic Performance Monitoring: In addition to academic support programs, students' progress is evaluated through regular interim assessments, college readiness exams, and state exams. These measures help track student performance and inform necessary adjustments in instruction.
- Student Support Teams: To ensure that all students receive the support they need, the school utilizes a structured support process, led by a designated team or staff member, to identify and address the needs of students requiring additional assistance. This process is guided by multiple forms of data, including formative, summative, and standardized assessments, as well as input from teachers, staff, and administrators. The team regularly monitors student progress, collaborates to implement appropriate interventions and supports, and ensures ongoing communication and partnership with families throughout the process.

Support for Students with Disabilities:

- Child Find Obligation: Under the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA), the school actively identifies, locates, and evaluates children who may have disabilities and require special education services. This process, known as Child Find, includes outreach to families, screening procedures, and collaboration with teachers to ensure early identification. If a student is suspected of having a disability, the school follows district protocols to initiate evaluations and determine eligibility for services.
- Specialized Services: Students with disabilities are provided with accommodations and support based on their Individualized Education Programs (IEPs). The school ensures that these students are supported through differentiated instruction, small group interventions, and specialized services, as outlined in district-required language.
- Inclusion Strategies: Students with disabilities participate in general education classrooms with appropriate accommodations or modifications. Teachers are trained in inclusive practices and differentiated instruction to ensure that students with disabilities can access the general curriculum effectively.
- Data Monitoring and Adjustment: Student progress is monitored regularly through IEP meetings, formative assessments, and teacher observations. This data helps guide the adjustments in instructional methods and support services, ensuring continuous growth for students with disabilities.

Support for Students from Other Subgroups (Foster Youth, Homeless Students, etc.):

- Identification and Coordination of Services: Foster youth, homeless students, and other related subgroups are identified during the enrollment process, and the school works closely with community agencies to provide tailored support. This includes tutoring, counseling, transportation, and coordination of services.
- COST Process for Tailored Support: The Coordination of Services Team (COST) process is used to develop individualized support plans for these students, involving school administrators, counselors, teachers, and relevant staff members. The team ensures that students receive the resources and assistance they need, including emotional and academic support.
- Regular Academic Evaluations: Academic performance for students in these subgroups is reviewed regularly. Adjustments to support services or curriculum are made as necessary, ensuring that students' specific needs are being met.

Support for English Learners:

- Supports for English Learners are outlined in the English Language Learner Network Plan

The educational program at McKinzie successfully meets the needs of its diverse student population through early identification of at-risk students, personalized academic support, and a coordinated approach involving teachers, families, and community resources. With a strong focus on data-driven decision-making, targeted interventions, and continuous professional development, the school has seen measurable improvements in student outcomes across all subgroups. As a result, the charter school's educational program is effectively addressing the specific needs of its student population, including numerically significant groups, ensuring that all students have the opportunity to succeed academically.

Areas of Challenge and Improvement, Plans for Improvement

Continued Growth in Math and ELA

Continued improvement in the area of Math and ELA continues to be one of the primary foci of our school as we move through the post-Covid years. Through the dedication of our educational partners, our students were able to avoid the same levels of learning loss during Covid seen in other schools. However, the growth we've seen has been uneven, as we did see a decline in 2023 in both ELA and Math scores.

Although we showed very significant recovery in 2024, our goal in the future will be to continue this growth in the years to come. As always, our goal is to ensure our scholars experience the same opportunities as those from other, more privileged, communities, and we will continue to develop and evolve our educational program to improve our supports towards that goal.

Our plan for ongoing improvement is to continue the work we have been doing with weekly observation and feedback, weekly data analysis and planning for reteaches, and weekly department meetings to continue to move this data consistently up. In addition to continuing those practices, we are piloting some new programs this year that we hope to expand on in the future. This year, we launched a math peer tutoring program pilot in which one 10th-grade advisory tutors two 9th-grade advisories in math. We have seen an increase in not only math proficiency, but also engagement and confidence. We hope to expand this program school-wide next year. In English this year, we piloted advisory reading challenges across all grade levels. These reading challenges involve students reading non-fiction texts about topics relevant that week in the news and answering high-level questions about the text. The grade level that gets the most responses correct over a one-month period gets a free dress day. Students are very invested in the challenge. We hope to continue finding ways to engage students in learning that not only continues to move our data in the direction that you see it moving in our graphs, but also makes it relevant to them, connects it to the real world, and prepares them for college and beyond.

Reverse Recent Graduation Rate Decline

Although our graduation rate is above the LAUSD and State averages, we did experience a decline in this metric from 2023 to 2024.

Graduation Rate - 2023
School	All Students
McKinzie	93.0%

Local Schools Median	89.6%
LAUSD	83.6%
State	86.4%

Graduation Rate - 2024
School	All Students
McKinzie	88.8%
Local Schools Median	91.6%
LAUSD	86.7%
State	86.7%

Graduation from High School remains one of the most foundational requirements for opportunities in the future, and we will continue to evolve and grow our supports for our scholars to ensure they meet this challenge successfully.

The graduation rate shown represents students who graduated by the July 30, 2024, deadline to be counted toward last year’s graduation percentage. We do serve a large population of students with learning differences, almost 20% of our students, which is significantly higher than our neighboring schools, and many of our students do need additional time as outlined in their IEPs. We are happy to share that in the 23-24 school year, all but one of our students were able to graduate by August 15, 2024. We are in regular contact with the family of the one student who did not graduate to ensure that when they are able, they enroll them into a program to continue their education, as we do want them to finish their diploma path and have an independent future. As mentioned in the above section, we have strong systems toward monitoring and communicating graduation progress and are continuing to further strengthen those systems in a few ways. We made a critical change to our counseling team by adding a very strong team member who has already in her six months with the team elevated the work they do. We assigned a team lead, who leads the work of Key Performance Indicators, including grad checks and tracks those regularly as a data point the team reflects on, creates action plans to progress toward, and monitors regularly. The principal also took over the counseling department as their coach and meets with them weekly to support their work, monitor their KPIs, and remove barriers that may be taking time they need to get to that critical work with students and families.

Reverse Recent College/Career Prepared Rate Decline

In addition to graduation itself, the preparedness of our graduates for college and career is deeply important. Our data showed a decline in this metric from 2023 to 2024 and, although this 9% drop only represents a small number of students due to our small graduating class sizes, and our college going rate is higher than our Local Schools Median, LAUSD, and the State as a whole, we take it seriously.

College/Career Prepared Rate - 2024
School	All Students
McKinzie	41.1%
Local Schools Median	45.0%
LAUSD	45.4%
State	45.3%

The drop in our College / Career Prepared metric last year was due to a clerical error in which our college courses were input incorrectly into PowerSchool resulting in our dual enrollment courses not being calculated into this number. Our practices including:

- Strong SBAC scores
- Offering a variety of AP courses
- Offering a variety of college courses though dual enrollment (we are increasing our course offerings to 6 courses next year)
- Awarding the State Seal of Biliteracy
- Ensuring all students not enrolled in alternative curriculum meet A-G course requirements ensure that students have access to meet the College / Career Prepared metric and we anticipate this number growing greatly next year based on an increase in the number of college courses offered and the number of AP course spots we opened this year.

Student Population to be Served

Target Student Population

McKinzie currently serves 455 students in the 2024-25 school year. The student population is 98.9% Hispanic/Latino. 16.7% of the students are English Language Learners, and 17.2% are Students With Disabilities. On average, the students we serve start their academic careers with us three grade levels behind in academic achievement.

McKinzie is an independent charter high school that serves students in grades 9-12, providing an alternative choice of quality education in the community of East Los Angeles in the Belvedere neighborhood.

McKinzie High School is located in a historic building in what used to be the First Street Store, or as many of us knew it, La Primera. It is known for its historic tile murals and was a cornerstone of the community as an indoor mall that not only housed heavily frequented stores, but also necessary services like a place to pay utilities. We continue to be that cornerstone to the community, housing many community resources and events, and being the site of our neighborhood watch meetings. The Belvedere district is a historically underserved community and was featured in the documentary Waiting for Superman. We are proud to be a part of the change in our neighborhood and, through our work, uplift the whole East Los Angeles community.

McKinzie provides a sound educational program for all students in attendance through its rigorous standards-based curriculum, culture of high expectations, highly effective and qualified teachers, and principal leadership in a small, personalized learning environment where students know their teachers well and are known by adults.

McKinzie offers its students a college-ready education by providing comprehensive A-G course offerings, including Honors and Advanced Placement courses across multiple content areas and grade levels. In addition, McKinzie students have access to support classes in Math and English to ensure they are provided with the appropriate supports to meet their academic needs. Our school also ensures that all students have access to individual computing devices in the classroom and at home, which are utilized to complete coursework and develop 21st-century skills, bridging the digital gap experienced so often by socio-economically disadvantaged communities.

Through our Community Schools program, we provide resources to the community and families to ensure that they also have educational resources, including access to job supports, technical and community college classes, and access to resources as needed.

Goals and Philosophy

Vision Statement

The vision of Morgan McKinzie High School is to impact student learning by thoughtfully designing lessons that effectively engage students with rigorous standards and relevant content every day. Students will do the work and will learn at high levels when they are supported by a learning community committed to meeting their academic, social, and emotional needs.

Mission Statement

Morgan McKinzie HS has been dedicated to meeting the needs of the community since 2009. We are extremely proud of the accomplishments and continued growth of our students, families, faculty, and staff. To best serve our families, our instructional team is working diligently to ensure that we continue to implement highly rigorous instruction that focuses on providing the highest caliber learning experiences for all students using data-driven instruction, collaborative learning, and supportive instructional resources.

In aligning our rigor to successfully prepare our students to enter and succeed in college, we continually look to our data to measure our progress, identify areas of need, and determine how to best provide our students with the tools and resources necessary for success. Knowing that students learn best with teachers who know their content area, are well trained to deliver rigorous instruction, and can attend to the diverse needs of individual students, we search for and develop these skills in selecting teachers. Our teachers work in small collaborative teams with common planning time where lessons are studied as a learning community and where accountability for student success is a shared responsibility.

Characteristics of an Educated Person in the 21st Century

A well-educated person in the 21st Century must be highly proficient in a rigorous set of competencies in language, reasoning/problem solving, reading, writing, computation, interpersonal relationships, social/ economic studies, the use of technology, and personal work habits in order to succeed in a modern college education and in a career within the global economy.

A well-educated person recognizes that the world is constantly changing, and is a self-directed lifelong learner prepared to continually adapt to changes that require new skills and competencies to be successful in their lifetime. An educated person understands that creative thinking leads to opportunity, that talent can be turned into true skill, and that all human beings are equal and important.

The McKinzie curriculum, instructional methodology, and environment are designed to instill and develop these skills in our students so that they can achieve success in college and in their chosen careers, and can continue to be self-directed learners, highly skilled critical thinkers, and effective communicators throughout their lives.

How Learning Best Occurs

At McKinzie, we believe that exceptional teaching is at the heart of student success in high school, college, and beyond. Every day, with every student, we exemplify this belief through the academic commitments below. We believe learning occurs best when classrooms are characterized by the attributes below, as described in our Alliance Core Rubric:

CULTURE OF LEARNING: Our students thrive in classrooms that are joyful, inclusive, and affirming.

- Teachers create a learning environment where every student feels respected and seen, supported by clear expectations, positive routines, and culturally responsive practices.
- Students are engaged from start to finish, taking part in a learning community that values their identities and voices.
- Students feel a sense of belonging and bring their full selves into the classroom, confidently collaborating with peers and actively participating in their learning.

ESSENTIAL CONTENT: Our students grow when challenged with rigorous, relevant content, building strong learning habits and life skills.

- Teachers design instruction aligned to grade-level standards and language objectives, using high-quality materials that reflect the diversity of their students. Through multiple access points and consistent language development, instruction supports all learners in engaging deeply with complex ideas.
- Teachers use data to strategically tailor instruction based on what their students need, keeping the bar for academic rigor high.
- Students build academic vocabulary, make meaning across content areas, and see their cultures and languages reflected in what they learn.

SCHOLAR OWNERSHIP: Through meaningful peer interaction and use of academic language, our students are empowered to express and refine their thinking while learning from one another.

- Teachers structure lessons so that students take on the cognitive lift - reading, writing, problem-solving, discussing, and analyzing with purpose.
- Students engage in rigorous work, productively collaborate, and take responsibility for their learning by grappling with challenges and building on feedback.
- Students employ a variety of tools and strategies, including technology, to accelerate their learning, build knowledge and skills, and obtain feedback on their performance.

DEMONSTRATION OF LEARNING: Our students succeed when they can show what they know and use feedback to grow.

- Teachers design learning experiences that allow students to demonstrate understanding through academic language, writing, and performance tasks.
- Teachers provide ongoing feedback that celebrates progress and clarifies next steps toward mastery.
- Students reflect on their learning, revise their thinking, and use multiple forms of evidence to show their progress toward rigorous content and language goals.

Specific Annual Actions to Achieve Goal

- Mathematical Instructional Strategy - Ensure that, each day, scholars are working toward a clearly identified mathematical concept through 1-2 core tasks for each lesson, all of which are identified in intellectual preparation, and are actively discussing the math with their peers. Moreover, Math teachers will structure and guide the discussion of core tasks so that scholars demonstrate mastery of the mathematical concept by the end of the lesson as well as provide scaffolds and supports that allow English Learners, scholars with Disabilities, and struggling scholars to access the core tasks and participate in academic discussions in a meaningful way.
- English Language Arts Instructional Strategies - Ensure that, each day, scholars read and analyze grade-level complex texts and engage, through discussion and/or writing, with strategically sequenced text-dependent questions (“TDQ”) that lead them to the big ideas and key understandings of the text, topic, and/or author’s craft. Moreover, ELA teachers will provide scaffolds and supports that allow English Learners, scholars with Disabilities, and struggling scholars to access the text and participate in academic discussions in a meaningful way.

3. Instructional Materials and Technology - Ensure that all scholars have access to rigorous, standards-aligned instructional materials and technology to support academic achievement.
4. A-G Course Access - Ensure that all scholars have access to A-G courses and are on track to meet A-G requirements by their senior year of high school. Intervention supports will be provided to students as appropriate
5. Additional Academic Supports - Provide scholars with additional academic support outside of their core classes.
6. Accelerated Courses and Enrichment Opportunities - Ensure all scholars have access to a robust offering of accelerated courses and enrichment opportunities.
7. Academic Rewards and Incentives - Provide scholars with rewards and incentives to promote positive academic performance.

Instructional Design

Curricular and Instructional Design

The educational model for curriculum and instruction at McKinzie is guided by our key program elements, our beliefs about how learning best occurs and by best practices researched in high performing high schools² that consistently produce well-educated students prepared to successfully enter and succeed in college. The philosophical base and the organizational structure for McKinzie’s curriculum are student-centered and are in accordance with accountability for meeting or exceeding grade-level Common Core, Next Generation Science Standards, ELD, and other state college readiness standards.

Each school year, students are enrolled in a variety of core and non-core classes that support their academic growth and success. Each class is purposely designed to provide appropriate academic intervention or foundation or an opportunity to explore interests and skills. Core and non-core classes are developed to support student success beyond McKinzie. As a result, per grade level, all students are enrolled in core classes, such as English, math, science, and history per California Education code. Students also enroll in non-core classes such as math and English support classes that provide appropriate intervention for students who are falling behind in math or English, as well as World Languages, Art, social studies, and other electives.

Specifically, McKinzie employs a standards-aligned curriculum that prepares students to excel academically, with an increased focus on Math and English scores. Research from ACT’s seminal study³ on college readiness found that students’ ability to comprehend complex text is the factor that differentiates college-ready readers from their non-ready peers. The study also highlighted the importance of reading across the curriculum, given that of the students not meeting the ACT Reading Benchmark, only 5% met the ACT Science benchmark. In addition, research consistently shows that building student knowledge via informational text is crucial to developing students’ literacy ability. Finally, in order to access grade-level, complex texts, students must have repeated exposure and practice with complex text through close reading across content areas that requires reading, speaking, and writing grounded in evidence⁴⁵⁶.

Given this strong body of research, McKinzie's educational program positions literacy skills as the gateway skills that provide for student success across all content areas. In every course, students are required to analyze complex text, cite textual evidence through discussion and writing, and justify their thinking. In Science and Social Studies, students engage in informational texts, such as primary source documents (e.g., the US Constitution) or domain-specific texts (e.g. scientific journal articles), which demand careful reading and analysis to make meaning. In Mathematics, students engage in daily tasks that require solving real-world problems and justifying (orally and through writing) their mathematical thinking. Finally, across all subjects, all students are pushed to carry the cognitive and intellectual thinking required by the Common Core State Standards (CCSS) and Next Generation Science Standards (NGSS), as well as the English Language Development (ELD) Standards/Framework⁷.

McKinzie attests that each pupil in the school will have sufficient instructional materials in each subject area.

Each spring, the Principal, in consultation with staff, identifies areas of need and orders materials for the following year. Recent studies published by the Center for American Progress, Brown Center on Educational Policy at Brookings Institute, and RAND Corporation⁸⁹ consistently find that the quality of instructional materials teachers use in the classroom has a measurable impact on student performance. Curriculum materials are selected based on their alignment to the CCSS/NGSS/ELD standards and instructional shifts and materials must prepare students to graduate ready for college.

In alignment to the McKinzie's educational program, curriculum materials across content areas provide students with daily assignments that require careful reading of complex text as well as writing and discussion grounded in evidence. In accordance with the CCSS instructional shifts in English Language Arts, a variety of genres and text types are used, with the majority of texts being informational texts. Additionally, across content areas teachers use a number of instructional strategies like multiple reads, text-dependent questions, and annotation to ensure all students have access to the material. In mathematics, curriculum materials focus deeply on student mastery of California Common Core State Standards through problem-based lessons. Finally, in every course, teachers carefully align daily objectives, activities, and formative assessments to the standards and monitor progress against the standards through our standards-based grading system.

Innovative Components of the Educational Program

Extended School Day/Year: As noted in our school calendar and bell schedule, our scholars experience a longer school year (total minutes) than comparable LAUSD schools.

Advisory Classes: Students have an hour of advisory four times a week. Our advisory curriculum is a teacher and student-designed, year-long scope and sequence that is leveled by grade to ensure a deepening understanding of the content as students grow and develop as critical thinkers. One of the overarching topics is cultural and racial awareness of other people groups. This is especially critical given that 99% of our students are Latine and the lack of diversity of our campus results in our students not being exposed to other cultures. Throughout the year, students also dig into important social-emotional topics relevant to what they are experiencing on campus. This year, students designed a unit on the harm of gossip after some rumors spread and hurt some students. They also take time to do college and career exploration, apply to colleges, work on personal statements, and are visited by a variety of university reps and career professionals. Once a month, we use advisory as a celebration for either awards or a rally to support our student culture goals.

Intellectual Preparation (IP): Teachers select lessons that reflect pivotal knowledge and skills upon which upcoming curricular content is built. The teachers in that department then engage in a rigorous lesson planning protocol, which is then submitted to their content instructional lead and administrator for feedback and observation of a key lesson from their submission. Alignment with college-ready content and skills, as determined by CCSS, NGSS, and aligned to college-readiness assessments, is essential. Lessons are submitted weekly and include five criteria. This year, our focus is on clear exemplars and engagement strategies. Coaches review the IP weekly and provide feedback on those two focus areas to continue to work closely with each teacher to refine their planning work. The IP is also used in the observation cycle to see how it is impacting the execution of each lesson. Coaches review IP before entering an observation to see if the pacing of the week is on track and to see how the plan is being executed. This is then discussed in weekly coaching, and the cycle repeats the next week.

Data Driven Instruction: As a learning community, our school uses a plan-teach-assess-analyze process with data from high-stakes annual assessments, network interim assessments, and classroom-level data to improve instruction and respond to the unique needs of our scholars. We meet weekly in departments and engage in student work analysis during which we dig into a task from the week, review the data for all students and all significant subgroups, find the gap or misconception, and plan a reteach. We reteach the lesson and loop back the next week to see if the data has improved. We have found that this focus on data has increased investment from students and teachers as they work to improve the data. It has almost gamified the work, and they enjoy seeing how they did and pushing themselves to try new things to beat last week's scores.

Regular Observations/Feedback: Instructional leads and supervising administrators observe teachers regularly to provide educators with meaningful feedback in the form of bite-sized action steps. Follow-up observations further develop that bite-sized step or provide a new bite-sized step to sustainably improve instruction to our scholars. Every teacher has a coach who is either the principal, assistant principal, director of instruction, or a content leader who observes them weekly and provides this bite-sized feedback. The observations are not always scheduled so that the coaches can see a variety of class periods and instructional practices, but the coaching conversations are a regularly scheduled meeting and that time is held sacred on everyone's calendar to ensure that they happen consistently regardless of the whirlwind on campus to ensure we are meeting our instructional goals. Coaches and teachers stay together for the duration of their careers on campus, establishing strong, trusting relationships they can leverage to push each other and have tough conversations when necessary for the good of students.

Restorative Practice & Discipline: School staff use restorative practices to build a supportive and welcoming school culture. School staff are trained in these practices to cultivate and maintain relationships and mediate differences among students. The school focuses on relationship building as a tool to prevent behavior incidents, as research shows that when students feel safe and welcomed, they, in turn, are welcoming and kind to others. The school year starts with a short week that focuses on connection activities in all classrooms before teachers jump into content. Teachers then keep that spirit alive by incorporating team-building activities and connection strategies like the 2x10 strategy for connection. Twice a year, we engage in a whole school student sort during which we place every student's name on a post-it note and teachers mark the post-its of students with whom they have a meaningful connection. At the end, we take the post-its that have few or no marks and teachers sign up to champion those students to ensure that all kids have meaningful connections on campus. We also use the Panorama survey with students three times a year and monthly Panorama pulse check surveys to gauge how students are feeling and make school-wide adjustments to support their wellbeing and ensure they are feeling cared for.

Social-Emotional Wellness. To be college and career-ready, our students must have the coping and social skills necessary to navigate challenges and complexities after high school. Over the past years, through training and live-coaching in classrooms, we have equipped teachers with the skills to support students from the community we serve. All of our classrooms are set up in group structures so students get many opportunities during the day to work with a variety of students and practice building positive relationships, collaborative skills, and conflict resolution. Teachers use classroom challenges as opportunities for whole-class discussions and reflections and as opportunities for learning for everyone, not just the affected parties. Small classroom disruptions are handled with one-on-one conversations outside, during which the teacher practices self-management strategies with the student or gives them some options for coping strategies. We have two full-time school psychologists on campus who support when the need is greater than what a teacher can manage in the classroom, especially as many of our students have experienced significant loss this year.

Technology Access. A target ratio of one computing device for every student ensures students adequate access to technology for effective use in student learning, common core and digital classroom instruction, data management, SBAC online state assessments, and communication. Classroom teachers are also provided with computing devices and use consistent data systems for monitoring student performance, managing grades, and internal school and network communication with other schools. Students also receive access to online curricula in many classes, and are provided with internet hot spots and take-home computing devices for the year upon request. We ensure that students have appropriate software for every class they are enrolled in. For example, our multimedia class has Adobe on the class devices so students can practice film editing with Premiere Pro, and all of our AP classrooms have the Blue Book app.

Student Organizations: Scholars have the opportunity to participate in various student organizations on campus to increase their leadership portfolio and learn valuable skills. These organizations include a huge variety, as students are able to request organizations, and we add them as they are requested. Last year, students requested Key Club, and we added it and just received our charter. We have ASB, associated student body, NHS, national honors society, Hermana Unidas, Pride Club, No Place for Hate, class committees for every grade level, and a variety of clubs including fitness, boxing, basketball, volleyball, cheer, soccer, robotics, podcasting, yearbook, crafting, music, dance, and sculpting club.

Summer Bridge: During the summer, incoming 9th graders take one-week introductory courses in English, Mathematics, and Science. This program supports scholars to prepare for the academic school year, learn study skills, and social demands of high school. Throughout the week that our incoming 9th graders are on campus our summer bridge committee, a group of students we train throughout the school year to lead during summer bridge, lead a variety of activities including lessons on classroom expectations and campus norms, team building and get to know you activities (these are especially important as we have several feeder middle schools and many students don't know each other when they come to campus), and they teach them about our policies against hate speech. Incoming 9th graders get multiple opportunities to practice classroom routines, familiarize themselves with the campus, meet teachers and staff, and learn lab procedures in science so that when they arrive on campus when all students are present, they feel like part of the community and fit right in.

Academic Office Hours/Academic Mentoring: Instructional staff members host Academic Office Hours and Mentoring according to a weekly rotating schedule. During this time, scholars are given the opportunity to receive small group instruction, receive tutoring, get to know their teacher on a more personal level, and/or form study groups with other students. These times are offered both before and after school to accommodate our students who work. Schedules and calendars of the Office Hours are shared with students and families and posted on our website and social media at the start of the school year for easy access.

College Courses: Our scholars have access to several community college courses throughout their time with us through our dual enrollment program. We start dual enrollment freshman year with Chicano studies and Intro to Counseling. During Junior and Senior year, the students also take two semesters each year of dual enrollment courses through our partnerships with East Los Angeles College and LA Trade Tech. Those courses often vary based on professor availability. Last year, we were able to offer Culinary Arts 1 and 2 through Trade Tech. Our students received food handler cards and were able to learn some simple recipes, and really enjoyed the courses.

Curriculum and Instruction

Description of Curriculum

In addition to the methods and strategies described in the “Innovative Components of the Educational Program” section, our schools implement the below:

Students learn best when there are rigorous standards-based curricula where students lead the cognitive thinking of challenging content that builds strong learning habits and life skills; when students enthusiastically read, write, analyze, discuss, research, experiment and solve challenging problems; when students participate in robust scholar to scholar academic discussions that deepen their understanding of challenging content; when students employ a variety of tools and strategies, including technology, to accelerate their learning, build skills and obtain feedback on their performance.

Instructional methods and strategies include, but are not limited to, students engaging in close reading of complex texts across a variety of genres, applying mathematical concepts to real-world problems, researching and analyzing primary sources, and conducting laboratory experiments that deepen their understanding of a scientific phenomenon. All academic experiences build the skills and knowledge students need to be successful in college and beyond.

McKinzie has fully implemented Common Core State Standards, using CCSS-aligned curriculum. Next Generation Science Standards are being implemented in Science. The Social Studies/History Common Core literacy standards are integrated into History/Social Science courses. The California History and Social Science standards are also integrated into History/Social Science courses. In addition, the ELD standards are integrated throughout all content area instruction. The instructional methodologies, curriculum, and instructional materials have been chosen as they align with the CCSS and are designed to ensure student mastery of the standards.

McKinzie is focused on deepening teachers’ understanding of the expectations of CCSS and NGSS through ongoing professional support in instructional planning, interim data analysis and feedback on instructional practice. New teachers to the school also receive professional development on the CCSS and NGSS standards and instructional shifts as part of their onboarding.

Advance Placement Courses Finally, McKinzie strives to prepare students to take and pass Advanced Placement courses during their high school careers in preparation for college. All AP teachers have been certified to teach the course and use curricula that meets the needs of their students.

Dual Enrollment McKinzie looks to provide opportunities for scholars to experience college-level courses while still in a familiar and supportive high school environment by providing dual enrollment courses. These courses are offered in partnership with local community colleges and are taught by a college professor using curricula that meets the needs of scholars, allowing the opportunity for Alliance scholars to gain college credit, earn certificates, and/or earn an Associates degree prior to high school graduation

Integral Features and Components of the Educational Program
In addition to the components referenced in the Instructional Design section, our educational program focuses on access to accelerated and intervention classes as appropriate for all scholars at our school. This open access represents a key component of our student-centered and personalized educational program.
Intervention and Enrichment Programs
We offer special education labs for our students with IEPs who qualify for them. These additional minutes allow students to work on executive functioning with their special education teacher in a small group setting.

Independent Study

Independent Study may be offered to students at McKinzie as an optional alternative instructional strategy. The Independent Study program is designed to meet the needs of scholars whose educational objectives may be better achieved through a personalized approach outside of the traditional classroom setting, consistent with the applicable law. Key features include:

1. Participation: Independent study should only be used in very limited circumstances to ensure that scholars receive the benefit of in-person instruction when possible. Independent study is only allowable in limited circumstances such as extended medical leaves, traveling out of the country for emergencies, or other extended absences. A parent/guardian must request independent study for their scholar.
2. IEP Compliance: Scholars with exceptional needs may participate if their IEP allows.
3. Equitable Access: Scholars receive the same resources and support as those in traditional classrooms.

4. Rigorous Standards: Content aligns with grade-level standards and includes A-G courses for high school graduation.
5. Written Agreement: Agreements detail objectives, supports, and expectations, signed by required parties.
6. Progress Evaluation: Regular reviews ensure scholar success or recommend program transitions if needed.

This program offers a flexible, compliant alternative to traditional classroom instruction, under limited circumstances, as applicable under the Alliance Independent Study Policy.

AP ENGLISH LANGUAGE & COMPOSITION A - 230125

AP ENGLISH LANGUAGE & COMPOSITION B - 230126

(Year) Junior & Senior

Network-wide UC Approved (B)

Credential Requirement: Single Subject in English

An AP English Language and Composition course cultivates the reading and writing skills that scholars need for college success and for intellectually responsible civic engagement. The course guides scholars in becoming curious, critical, and responsive readers of diverse texts, and becoming flexible, reflective writers of texts addressed to diverse audiences for diverse purposes. The reading and writing scholars do in the course should deepen and expand their understanding of how written language functions rhetorically: to communicate writers' intentions and elicit readers' responses in particular situations. The course cultivates the rhetorical understanding and use of written language by directing scholars' attention to writer/reader interactions in their reading and writing of various formal and informal genres (e.g., memos, letters, advertisements, political satires, personal narratives, scientific arguments, cultural critiques, research reports).

Reading and writing activities in the course also deepen scholars' knowledge and control of formal conventions of written language (e.g., vocabulary, diction, syntax, spelling, punctuation, paragraphing, genre). The course helps scholars understand that formal conventions of the English language in its many written and spoken dialects are historically, culturally, and socially produced; that the use of these conventions may intentionally or unintentionally contribute to the effectiveness or ineffectiveness of a piece of writing in a particular rhetorical context; and that a particular set of language conventions defines Standard Written English, the preferred dialect for academic discourse.

AP ENGLISH LITERATURE & COMPOSITION A - 230117

AP ENGLISH LITERATURE AND COMPOSITION B - 230118

(Year) Junior & Senior

Network-wide UC Approved (B)

Credential Requirement: Single Subject in English

The AP English Literature and Composition course engages scholars in the careful reading and critical analysis of imaginative literature and is intended to give scholars the experience of a typical introductory college literature course. Through the close reading of selected texts, scholars deepen their understanding of the ways writers use language to create meaning. It includes intensive study of representative works from various genres, periods, and cultures, concentrating on works of recognized literary merit. Scholars will learn to read deliberately and thoroughly, taking time to understand a work's complexity, to absorb its richness of meaning, and to analyze how that meaning is embodied in literary form. Scholars learn to consider a work's structure, style, and themes, as well as smaller-scale elements such as the use of figurative language, imagery, symbolism, and tone. Scholars will also learn to consider the social and historical values a work reflects and embodies. Writing is also an integral part of the AP English Literature and Composition course. Writing assignments in the course will address the critical analysis of literature and will include expository, analytical, and argumentative essays. In addition, creative-writing assignments will help scholars see from the inside how literature is written. The goal of both types of writing assignments is to increase scholars' ability to explain clearly and cogently what they understand about literary works and how they interpret them.

(Year) Freshman, Sophomore

Network-wide UC Approved (D)

Prerequisite: None

Credential Requirement: Single Subject in Science: Biological Sciences; or Single Subject in Life Science

This course replaces Biology A&B. The sequence presented here spirals in scale, starting with ecosystems as a whole (looking at both living and nonliving components), progressing into connections within ecosystems describing the cycling of matter in two important life processes, photosynthesis and respiration, while also emphasizing the nonliving parts of these cycles. Then the course moves into evolution (where evidence is based in both living and non-living systems) and then links evolution to the study of heredity. From there the course zooms in more (progressing to smaller scales) on what defines characteristics of life from the cell to multicellular organisms. The course ends by coming back full circle to ecosystems and the impacts that humans have on them especially in relationship to climate change. A culminating project for this course should present a synthesis of how life on Earth is dependent on both biotic and abiotic factors.

Graduation Requirements (HS Only)

McKinzie's graduation requirements are in alignment with the University of California (UC) and California State University (CSU) "A-G" minimum undergraduate admission requirements (see table below). Our high school program and course schedule is designed to enable all students to meet graduation requirements, “A-G” minimum undergraduate admission requirements, and the CDE’s College/Career Indicator within four years.

Credit Recovery: Credit recovery options include online credit recovery programs, independent study, concurrent enrollment in adult education or community college courses, and summer school. Counselors meet with students and their guardians to discuss credit deficiencies and recovery plans, providing structured guidance to help students get back on track. Schools monitor progress through quarterly reports to identify students at risk and provide timely interventions such as tutoring, office hours, and other academic supports.

Transfer Students: Transfer student transcripts from previous schools are analyzed, and credit deficiencies are addressed through tailored credit recovery plans. Transfer credits are accepted if they meet accreditation standards and align with California’s A-G requirements. Certain subgroups of students who transfer after their second year of high school and cannot reasonably complete local graduation requirements within four years may qualify for the state’s minimum graduation requirements under the California Education Code. Counselors ensure transfer students are enrolled in equivalent courses to complete graduation requirements and support them in maintaining A-G eligibility.

Graduation Exemption: As per the state policy, students in foster care, experiencing homelessness, probation-involved, newcomers, migratory, or from military families may be eligible for graduation exemptions if transferring after their second year of high school. These students may be exempt from local graduation requirements and can graduate by meeting the state’s minimum requirements unless they can reasonably complete additional requirements within the standard timeline. The process includes timely notification of eligibility, providing exemption letters, and ensuring continuity if students transfer again.

College/Career Preparedness: The instructional program aligns with California’s A-G requirements to ensure students meet eligibility criteria for UC/CSU admissions with a focus on career readiness through elective options and advisory courses. Schools consistently engage in monitoring of graduation progress to address issues early and ensure students remain on track and have regular check-ins with students about college/career planning and individualized support to help them meet college/career goals.

A-G Requirements
Subject	Requirements
(A) History-Social Science	1 year of U.S. History 1 year of World History
(B) English Language Arts	4 years of college preparatory English
(C) Mathematics	3 years of college preparatory Mathematics (Integrated Math 1, Integrated Math 2, Integrated Math 3, Pre-Calculus, Calculus or Statistics); 4 years recommended

(D) Science	2 years of Science, one physical and one biological; 3 years strongly recommended
(E) Language other than English	2 years of the same language other than English

(G) College Preparatory Elective	1 year of additional academic electives (e.g., ELA/math intervention, third year of science or foreign language, fourth year of math, social science, advanced visual or civics and performing arts)

Alliance Morgan McKinzie High School Graduation Requirements:

- Course Requirements
- Passage of A-G Course Requirements as stated here and in the chart below.
- Scholars pass all courses, including elective and non-A-G courses, with a grade of C or higher (basic proficiency).
- Scholars must complete 11 out of 15 A-G courses by the end of 11th grade (with a letter grade of C or better) to meet minimum UC admissions requirements.
- In addition to the A-G history/social science courses, it is a California State graduation requirement that all scholars must complete one semester in American Government & Civics and one semester in Economics. Alliance high schools have determined that these courses must also be A-G approved.
- At the discretion of the principal, Alliance high schools may require scholars to complete community service requirements in order to participate in graduation activities.

Our mission is that all high school students will pass all A-G and elective courses with a grade of C or better to graduate in 4 years with a minimum of 230 credits. To best serve students who are not on track to meet these goals, the following supports are provided:

- Online Credit Recovery which is offered after school and in summer session.
- Tutoring After School or Saturdays

These supports are provided for all students in need including all subgroups and students transferring into the school. Students that transfer into the school after the start of freshman year work closely with their counselor to ensure that any needed classes are made up either in their regular schedule, after school, or in summer session. Individual graduation checks are done with each student at least once a semester.

Students who are still unsuccessful in meeting the 230 credit “A-G” high school graduation requirement by the end of the summer following their 4th year, are welcomed to attend a 5th year.

In addition to our instructional program fully meeting the A-G high school graduation requirements, the program provides students with the instructional opportunities necessary to meet the California Department of Education’s College and Career indicator at the Prepared level. English and Mathematics courses in 9th, 10th and 11th grades are tightly aligned to the Common Core State Standards and our interim assessment system is built in alignment to the Smarter Balanced assessment blueprint and item specifications. Our interims provide data throughout the year on students’ mastery of the Common Core State Standards so we can carefully monitor and adjust instruction to ensure students meet the expectations of Smarter

Balanced Assessments in 11th grade.

WASC Accreditation

As of June 18, 2024, Alliance Morgan McKinzie High School is fully accredited by the Western Association of Schools as part of the Alliance College-Ready Public Schools (ACRPS) System Accreditation.

As part of the ACRPS System Accreditation process, the school will work to complete periodic evaluation and improvement of our program and school-wide action plan, in alignment with our LCAP, through the WASC-required self-study, mid-cycle progress reports, as well as WASC on-site visits to ensure accreditation is maintained for subsequent graduating classes with support from the Alliance Home Office.

The first System Self-Study will be held during the 2026-27 school year. During this process, all Alliance schools and the Home Office will collaborate with WASC throughout the accreditation process, including the development of self-study and interim progress reports.

Transferability of Courses

All A-G courses are transferable to other public schools and meet the rigorous requirements for admission to California state university systems. Parents receive notification of course transferability in student recruitment and student enrollment materials, which are available in both English and Spanish. Also, transferability and rigor of courses can be found in the Scholar/Parent Handbook. McKinzie counselors also work closely with students and families to ensure that they are well aware of graduation requirements and where each child stands in relation to those requirements. This is done at least once a semester with students and at least once a semester with students and parents combined if a student is not currently on track to graduate. Additionally, graduation requirements are included in the Scholar-Parent Handbook.

Professional Development

Ongoing Professional Development

During school level professional development, teachers are supported by their Principal and the school's instructional leadership team to develop their practice. Professional development agendas include content-based sessions, site-based sessions, and a variety of instructional workshops designed to address needs evidenced by data.

In addition, Alliance-wide PD events and supplementary trainings provide targeted supports in a variety of ways. Below is a sample of current professional development opportunities available to teachers. These opportunities are subject to change as, in order to be most effective, professional development must be adaptable to address the needs of teachers and students.

Alliance-wide Strong Start. Held prior to the start of the school year, professional learning for staff includes site-based and network-led sessions. Topics may include:

- Data-driven instruction
- Intellectual Preparation
- Workshops focused on Social Emotional Learning and Trauma-Informed, Resilience-Focused Learning and Restorative Practices
- Sharing research, resources and best practices
- Effective strategies to meet individual student needs

Alliance-wide Data & Planning Days. Held immediately following each interim assessment window, these days offer an opportunity for teachers and leaders to deeply analyze interim data and plan for future instruction. Data Days are held network-wide and/or at school-sites.

During Data & Planning Days, teachers and leaders:

- Analyze student performance and student work
- Create an action plan to address student performance data
- Adjust future unit and lesson plans to better meet the needs of students

Supplementary Alliance-wide PD. Held throughout the year, the Alliance Academic Team and schools provide targeted professional development to teachers and other staff that support their ongoing development. PD sessions target specific content-areas or subset of teachers or staff such as:

- Special Education Coordinators and teachers
- ELD teachers
- New teachers
- Teacher leaders
- Leaders of Scholar Culture (Deans)

New Teacher Professional Development. Alliance College Ready Public Schools builds on its investment in leader and teacher development through New Teacher PD. New Teacher PD provides professional development support for early career Alliance teachers. Network level supports focus on supplying early career teachers with resources and tools to strengthen their classroom management and instructional planning skills. Supports include:

- Designing and implementing a week-long New Staff Orientation (NSO)
- Providing Induction program options and/or support to general education and education specialist teachers clearing their preliminary credentials

Ongoing School Site PD Sessions. Regular, targeted and relevant professional development is led by the school principal and site-based leadership team on the designated Professional Development Early Dismissal Day. The draft professional development calendar below serves as a sample of topics to be covered:

Teacher Recruitment

Students learn best with teachers who are knowledgeable of their subject field and are well trained to deliver rigorous instruction and attend to the diverse needs of each student as an individual. McKinzie, led by the Principal, recruits new and experienced highly-qualified and credentialed teachers who demonstrate satisfactory progress toward full certification, fully meet the Every Student Succeeds Act (ESSA) criteria, and are committed to the school's key program elements and beliefs. Recruitment of qualified candidates begins in November and is conducted via partnership with teacher pipeline programs; partnerships with university and non-university teacher pipeline and residency programs; use of relevant online tools such as EdJoin, LinkedIn and social media; and referrals from current staff within the school/Alliance. Applicants are carefully assessed through a rigorous selection process conducted by both the Alliance Staffing Team and school administrators. Once selected, teachers participate in New Teacher Orientation before the opening of school and New Teacher professional development throughout the school year.

Meeting the Needs of All Students

English Learners

McKinzie believes that every student brings assets that enrich our classrooms and our school community, regardless of race, language, learning needs, and culture. To ensure each student's success, the school will provide guidance, resources, training, and support to teachers, staff, and parents to build an equitable, rigorous learning environment for our English Learner Scholars. Our practices are grounded on guidelines established by our Board-approved EL Master Plan. Our English Learner Master Plan focuses on the following key areas:

- Identification and Assessment
- Instructional Program
- Reclassification Criteria and Exiting
- Staffing English Learner Programs and Teams
- Professional Development for All Teachers Who Work With English Learners
- Parent Engagement
- Program Evaluation

By implementing our own English Learner Master Plan, we will create an educational environment where EL students receive the support they need to develop both language skills and academic content knowledge. Our plan is designed to ensure that all EL students, regardless of their language proficiency level, are empowered to achieve their full potential academically.

Process for Identifying English Learners

At McKinzie, we have a systematic and thorough process for identifying English Learners (ELs) to ensure that every student receives the appropriate language support and services. Our process follows state and district guidelines while ensuring that we meet the unique needs of each student.

1. Initial Enrollment and Home Language Survey

At the time of initial enrollment, all families are required to complete a Home Language Survey (HLS). This survey is provided in both English and the primary language spoken in the community (e.g., Spanish). It consists of four questions that inquire about the language spoken at home, by the scholar, and in their family environment. All four questions must be answered, and the survey is included in the enrollment packet. It is essential that all scholars have a completed HLS on file, including those whose families report English as the only language spoken. If any of the responses on the Home Language Survey indicate that a language other than English is spoken in the home, the scholar is flagged for further language proficiency assessment.

2. English Language Proficiency Assessment

Students identified as potentially needing English language support are administered an the Initial ELPAC. This assessment measures the student's proficiency in the four language domains: listening, speaking, reading, and writing. Based on the results of the Initial ELPAC, students are classified as either:

- English Learners (EL), if they demonstrate limited proficiency in English.
- English Only (EO), if their proficiency in English is sufficient.

3. Notification to Parents

Once the student's English language proficiency has been determined, parents are notified in writing of their child's classification as either an English Learner or English Only. For students identified as ELs, parents are informed about the types of language support services available at McKinzie and provided with information about how their child will be supported in developing English language proficiency. Parent notifications are communicated in a language that can be understood by them within the first 30 days of school. If the scholar enrolls after the first 30 days of school, parent notification must be completed within 2 weeks of enrollment.

4. Annual Assessments

Students who are classified as English Learners will be assessed annually using the Summative ELPAC to monitor their progress in acquiring English proficiency. The results of the ELPAC will guide instructional decisions and ensure that EL students are receiving the appropriate level of support. Additionally, teachers monitor EL students' academic performance through ongoing formative assessments in all content areas.

Educational Program(s) for English Language Acquisition

At McKinzie, the English Learner (EL) program components are designed to provide a robust and integrated system that supports English Learners in acquiring academic English while ensuring they meet the English Language Development (ELD) standards. This program is structured to meet the diverse needs of ELs through both Designated ELD and Integrated ELD instruction, which are tailored to students' proficiency levels and provide opportunities to develop language and content mastery across all subjects.

Designated ELD Instruction

Designated ELD instruction is a specialized component of the EL program, providing targeted language development in the four domains of listening, speaking, reading, and writing. This instruction occurs daily, Monday through Friday, as part of the regular school schedule. The courses are designed to address the specific language proficiency levels of ELs, which are classified into Emerging, Expanding, and Bridging. Students are placed in the appropriate level (ELD 1, 2, 3, or 4) based on their English language proficiency, years in the program, and teacher recommendation.

This instruction is delivered by teachers who are highly skilled in ELD strategies, using a variety of methods to support students in developing academic English. These courses are aligned with the California English Language Development Standards. Importantly, Designated ELD instruction does not remove students from core content classes, ensuring that ELs still have access to full grade-level content. The curriculum is designed to be engaging and appropriate to students' language development, providing scaffolds such as graphic organizers, word banks, and language structures to help students access content while acquiring language skills.

Integrated ELD Instruction

In addition to the targeted Designated ELD courses, all English Learners receive Integrated ELD throughout their content classes. This approach ensures that ELs are exposed to academic content while simultaneously working on their English language skills. Teachers across all content areas (including Math, Science, History, and English Language Arts) are trained to incorporate ELD strategies into their instruction, ensuring that ELs can understand and engage with cognitively demanding content.

Integrated ELD involves teaching content standards, such as Common Core, NGSS, and California History Standards, while providing explicit language instruction. Teachers use scaffolds such as visual aids, response frames, and structured group discussions to support language acquisition in the context of the subject matter. The goal of this instruction is to ensure that ELs make progress toward both language proficiency and academic content mastery.

Professional Development and Teacher Support

Teachers of both Designated ELD and Integrated ELD are provided with ongoing professional development focused on best practices for language acquisition and teaching strategies that integrate language development into content instruction. This professional development includes topics such as the ELA/ELD Framework, key features of Integrated ELD, and effective use of ELD Standards. Teachers are also equipped with strategies for differentiating instruction for ELs at various proficiency levels and creating a classroom environment where students feel safe and supported in taking academic risks.

Monitoring and Ensuring Progress

The EL program ensures that students are making adequate progress toward mastery of the ELD standards through ongoing assessment and monitoring. This includes weekly scholar work analysis, which involves reviewing formative assessments to monitor language development and content mastery. Teachers also use frequent checks for understanding and actively monitor students during both independent and group work to ensure that learning objectives are being met.

In addition, advisory classes may be offered to support ELs, but these do not replace the required Designated ELD courses. Through this structured and supportive system, ELs at McKinzie receive a comprehensive education that promotes both language proficiency and academic achievement in line with the California ELD standards.

In summary, the Designated ELD and Integrated ELD components at McKinzie are delivered by qualified teachers and carefully designed to meet the needs of English Learners at all levels of proficiency. By providing targeted instruction, professional development for teachers, and ongoing monitoring of student progress, the school ensures that ELs make consistent and meaningful progress toward mastering the ELD standards and achieving academic success.

English Language Proficiency Assessment for California (ELPAC)

To support and accelerate student progress toward English language proficiency, McKinzie will strategically utilize ELPAC results in several key ways. The Initial ELPAC will be used upon enrollment to identify students as English Learners (ELs) and determine their English language proficiency level, ensuring they are placed in the appropriate English Language Development (ELD) course. Annually, the Summative ELPAC will be administered to measure each student's progress in acquiring English proficiency. The results will assess the effectiveness of current language development programs and help inform decisions about the support each student needs, guiding instructional planning.

Additionally, the overall ELPAC score, along with domain-specific scores in listening, speaking, reading, and writing, will be analyzed to assess individual language development needs. This data will be used to create tailored instructional plans to target areas where students need improvement, ensuring focused support to accelerate their progress. For students showing slower progress, targeted interventions such as additional language support or small-group instruction will be implemented to address specific areas of difficulty.

ELPAC results will also guide appropriate course placement, ensuring students are enrolled in ELD courses that match their proficiency level, and placements will be regularly adjusted as students progress. As students improve, ELPAC results will help determine when they are ready for reclassification or if additional support is necessary. By leveraging ELPAC results in these ways, McKinzie will implement a data-driven approach to support each English Learner's growth, ensuring they receive the necessary instruction, resources, and interventions to achieve full English proficiency in alignment with California's English Language Development (ELD) standards.

Full Curriculum Access

To ensure that English Learners (ELs) at all levels of English language proficiency (ELP) have meaningful access to the full curriculum, [School Name] will implement a comprehensive program that includes both Designated ELD and Integrated ELD, guided by the principles outlined in the California English Language Arts/English Language Development (ELA/ELD) Framework. Our approach is designed to provide rigorous, yet flexible, instruction that supports ELs as they acquire both academic content and English language proficiency.

Program Structure and Instructional Strategies

The school will implement both Designated ELD and Integrated ELD across all subjects, ensuring that ELs have access to grade-level content while simultaneously developing their English language skills.

Designated ELD

All ELs will receive Designated ELD daily as a core instructional component. This structured time will be dedicated to explicit language development, focusing on all four language domains: listening, speaking, reading, and writing. The curriculum will be aligned with the California ELD Standards and the ELA/ELD Framework, ensuring that language instruction supports academic achievement.

Key strategies for Designated ELD will include:

- Integration of Language Domains: Explicit instruction in listening, speaking, reading, and writing across all disciplines.
- Vocabulary Development: Focused instruction on academic vocabulary, word relationships, and word parts.
- Reading Comprehension and Writing Support: Strategies for improving reading comprehension and academic writing.
- Background Knowledge Activation: Connecting new content to students' existing knowledge to make learning more meaningful.
- Content-Based Language Instruction: Language skills will be taught through content and thematic units, providing students with a framework to apply their language skills across disciplines.

Integrated ELD

In addition to Designated ELD, ELs will also receive Integrated ELD instruction in all content areas, ensuring that academic language development occurs within each subject. Content teachers will be trained in strategies that make content comprehensible while promoting language development. These strategies will include:

- Explicit Instruction in Language Structures and Vocabulary: Teaching students how to use academic language specific to each content area.
- Use of Scaffolds: Tools such as response frames, word banks, and graphic organizers will help ELs access content.
- Opportunities for Academic Discourse: Regular, structured discussions and group activities will allow students to practice speaking and listening in an academic context.
- Checks for Understanding: Teachers will use formative assessments to monitor students' progress and provide timely feedback.
- Frequent Language Practice: Students will be encouraged to engage in reading, writing, speaking, and listening throughout the school day.

Teachers of all content areas will participate in professional development focused on the Integrated ELD, and strategies for supporting ELs in developing proficiency in reading, writing, listening, and speaking. Teachers will also have access to ongoing training to ensure that they are equipped to teach ELs effectively.

Tailored Support for Specific EL Groups

The school will also implement specialized approaches for different EL subgroups, ensuring that their unique needs are addressed:

- Newcomers with Formal Education: In their first year, these students may receive a double block of ELD, utilizing curriculum such as Inside the USA or Edge, with supplemental support from resources like Rosetta Stone. They will be enrolled in grade-level ELA and a rigorous native-language course (e.g., Native Speaker Spanish, AP Spanish Language). Additionally, they will take content courses appropriate for their grade level.
- Newcomers with Limited Formal Education: These students may also receive a double block of ELD (Emerging), using similar curriculum (e.g., Inside the USA or Edge) and additional phonics intervention (e.g., Wilson Reading Just Words). They will also take physical education and content courses, with placement in native-language courses determined by their Spanish proficiency level.
- Long-Term English Learners (LTELs): For LTELs, explicit instruction in academic language will focus on improving reading comprehension and vocabulary development. These students will receive the support needed to build their academic language and perform well across all subjects.
- Dually Identified ELs (with IEPs/504 Plans): ELs with special education needs will receive accommodations and specialized support to help them meet both language and academic goals. They will receive differentiated instruction and modifications to assignments as per their individual education plans.

Access to Grade-Level Core Curriculum

To ensure that all ELs can engage with grade-level content, the school will foster an environment where students feel safe to take academic risks. Teachers will use scaffolds, such as response frames, word banks, and graphic organizers, to make complex content accessible to ELs. The classroom environment will emphasize academic language, integrating listening, speaking, reading, and writing in every class. Teachers will frequently check for understanding and provide targeted feedback during independent or group work.

Literature at students' appropriate Lexile levels will be made available in classroom and school libraries to encourage independent reading and further language development.

Continuous Monitoring and Adjustment

The progress of all ELs will be closely monitored through regular assessments and teacher feedback. This data will be used to adjust instruction and support, ensuring that every EL has the opportunity to succeed. Regular communication with families will also be maintained to ensure that they are aware of their child’s progress and the support provided.

By combining Designated ELD, Integrated ELD, and specialized support, [School Name] will ensure that ELs of all proficiency levels have the opportunity to access grade-level content, develop their English language skills, and achieve academic success across all subjects.

Annual Evaluation of EL Program

Process for Annual Evaluation of the Charter School’s English Learner (EL) Program(s)
 The annual evaluation of the English Learner (EL) program at (School Name) follows a systematic and data-driven approach to ensure the effectiveness and success of its practices, services, and procedures. Both formative and summative evaluations are employed to provide a comprehensive analysis of the program’s impact.

1. Ongoing Evaluation and Data Collection: The evaluation process is continuous throughout the school year, with regular data gathering and examination to guide program decisions. This ongoing evaluation ensures that the program remains responsive to the needs of English Learners and can adapt based on real-time feedback.
2. EL Program Needs Assessment: An annual EL Needs Assessment is carried out by the English Learner Parent Committee (ELPC). If the ELPC delegates its responsibilities, the School Site Advisory Council (SSAC) will oversee the needs assessment process through its EL sub-committee. The assessment provides valuable input into the areas where the program may require adjustments or enhancements.
3. Review and Action on Recommendations: After the needs assessment, the ELPC or SSAC will review the recommendations and share them with the school principal. The SSAC, in collaboration with the principal, will determine the necessary next steps. These steps, informed by the assessment’s findings, will be communicated to EL parents and incorporated into the program for the following school year.

Through this structured evaluation process, the EL program at (School Name) ensures that it continuously meets the academic and developmental needs of English Learners, supports their achievement, and complies with relevant reporting requirements. The combination of formative and summative evaluations, along with the EL Needs Assessment, enables the school to make informed decisions and implement improvements that benefit EL students.

The following chart outlines the EL program goals, evaluation questions and measures used to assess overall effectiveness of the EL program:

EL Reclassification

Reclassification is the process when a scholar's English language proficiency level changes from English Learner to Reclassified Fluent English Proficiency (RFEP) (EC Section 313(f)). The goal is to prepare scholars for reclassification as quickly as possible and monitor their progress for four years after reclassification (20 U.S.C. § 6841[a][4][5]; 5 CCR § 11304).

English Learners are reclassified to fluent-English proficient based on the following multiple criteria, in alignment with California EC and the State Board of Education recommendations:

1. Assessment of language proficiency, using an objective assessment instrument, including but not limited to, the state test of English language development
2. Teacher evaluation, including but not limited to, a review of the scholar's curriculum mastery

3. Comparison of scholar performance in basic skills against an empirically established range of performance in basic skills based on the performance of English proficient scholars of the same age
4. Parent/guardian opinion and consultation

The chart below outlines the 24-25 reclassification criteria used by all Alliance schools:

Reclassification Criteria
1. Assessment of Language Proficiency	ELPAC - Score of 4 (Summative ELPAC 2023-2024 school year)
2. Teacher Evaluation	ELA Grade of C- (2.0) or higher (EOY Cycle – semester 1 or 2 of 2023-2024 school year Spring Reclass Cycle – Semester 1 (Fall 2024)

4. Parent Opinion and Consultation	Once the scholar meets the reclassification criteria, the parent/guardian is sent the Notification of Reclassification letter and acknowledges scholar’s change in language classification to Reclassified Fluent English Proficient (RFEP). If the parent/guardian is not in agreement with reclassification, a meeting will be held with the parent and the Reclassification Team to address parent concerns and determine the best placement option for the scholar.

The EL Master Plan and reclassification criteria provided here is revised yearly based on input from various stakeholder groups and goes through Board approval

Progress Monitoring

McKinzie monitors and regularly assesses the progress of all English Learners, in both English language proficiency and content knowledge throughout the school year. Monitoring scholar progress identifies scholars who are not making appropriate progress and allows the school to provide additional support to enable ELs to reach English proficiency, as well as ensuring that the school is providing ELs meaningful access to grade-level core content instruction and remedying any academic deficits in a timely manner.

Alliance school has established documented, monitoring systems that include periodic benchmarks to monitor ELs' progress over time, determine when scholars are not making appropriate progress, notify parents of progress and provide additional support to enable ELs to reach English proficiency and gain grade level content knowledge. The EL Progress Monitoring report is sent to families after each quarterly progress report and includes the following:

- Performance in grade level content classes
- Performance in ELD course
- Scholar Reading level and or SBAC performance

Students that are not meeting grade-level expectations will be provided with additional supports including but not limited to after-school tutoring, additional accommodations in content courses, additional support classes such as math and ELA support, review of ELD course placement, parent meetings, etc.

Monitoring Reclassified Students

After scholars have been reclassified as RFEP, the school will continue to monitor their progress for four years to ensure correct classification, placement and academic support as needed. If an exited English Learner is not progressing academically and monitoring suggests a persistent language need, the school will provide additional supports, including but not limited to tutoring, accommodations and support classes, including ELD courses. RFEP Monitoring reports will be mailed to families after each quarterly progress report. The accountabilities include:

- Monitoring the academic achievement of RFEP scholars in their core courses (ELA, Math, Science, Social Science)
- Notifying parents of their child's ongoing progress after reclassification
- Providing targeted intervention services for RFEP scholars who are not making adequate academic progress

After scholars have been Reclassified Fluent English Proficient (RFEP). The school will continue to monitor their progress for 4 years. If an exited EL is not progressing academically and monitoring suggests a persistent language need the school will provide additional supports including but not limited to tutoring, accommodations, and support classes.

Gifted and Talented (GATE) Students and Students Achieving Above Grade Level

As all students are challenged to reach their intellectual potential within the instructional program, McKinzie will not offer a formal, separate gifted and talented program. Instead, McKinzie will continue to identify students who are outstanding performers as measured through, but not limited to, college prep exams (such as the PSAT) and GPA. When reviewing college prep exams, students must be considered college-ready in both math and English starting in their 9th grade year. When reviewing GPA, students are identified as high achievers by achieving a 4.0 GPA or higher starting in their 9th grade year.

As students transition from grade level to grade level, their level of achievement is continuously monitored by counselors, teachers, and the school administrative team using grade level checks for GPA, and by reviewing their data each time they are provided with opportunities to participate in a college ready level assessment as well as collecting work samples.

To support these students throughout the day, the staff may differentiate instruction based upon the individual needs of the students and will provide an opportunity to excel for those students who are achieving at high levels or demonstrate a specific ability or talent, as identified through student data or evidence of a pupil's capacity. Teachers will differentiate in the forms of acceleration, depth, complexity, and novelty and will differentiate the process, content, or product to meet the needs of gifted and talented students. Examples of instructional models which may be employed with gifted and talented students at McKinzie are, but not limited to:

- Access to advanced placement and honors courses from grades 9 to 12
- Access to dual enrollment college courses from grades 9-12
- Utilizing higher levels of questioning and thinking skills
- Ensuring there is a wide variety of materials at different skill levels that engage a wide variety of interests
- Field trips, and participation in partnered programs and college courses, to broaden the experience base and capacity to be accepted into elite colleges
- Ensuring that the curriculum is sufficiently challenging

By using data from core assessments, teachers will be able to make the necessary modifications and adjustments to best support students who require additional academic challenge. All students at McKinzie will be valued for their individualism and their interests and passions will be cultivated. Further, the teachers will work together to develop plans to best support students in driving forward their academic achievement and pursuits in relation to the students' learning profiles and specific talents. In order to ensure that the needs of all students are being met, the staff has utilized the Student Support and Progress Team (SSPT) process (monitored and led by the principal or his or her designee) for students who have been identified as consistently achieving well above the norms (as measured by formative, summative and standardized tests, as well as other measures, including teacher, staff or administrator-identified concerns), just as they would use the process for identifying students who struggle.

The principal will be the on-site designee for parents to contact regarding GATE.

Students Achieving Below Grade Level

In an effort to improve the performance of all students, including low-achieving or at-risk of retention, McKinzie monitors student performance and progress of these students throughout the year. Data is accessible at the student and subgroup-levels; through school leaders, school leadership teams, which consist of department and grade level chairs, and classroom teachers monitor standards and student achievement in order to identify all students earning below a grade of C, flagging students at risk based on interim assessments, grades, and/or credit deficiencies. Advisory teachers review student data/progress reports of each of their advisory students. Parents review and sign 5-week progress and 10-week report cards. The following takes place for those specifically identified as low-achieving:

- To identify low-achieving students, incoming students are given diagnostic tests upon entry to the school. State assessment results and grades showing students who are not meeting or nearly meeting standards are also used to assess student achievement levels.
- Where additional supports and/or interventions are required, the school's academic team will consult with the parent/guardian to share results and develop a plan to support and ensure growth
- The student receives supplemental support through remediation support classes in ELA and math in addition to regular courses. High-dosage math tutoring services are also available. In the areas where the student is struggling most, the classroom teacher may employ the use of online digital content providers to support one-on-one instruction targeted to specific individual needs.

In order to ensure that the needs of all students are being met, the staff has utilized the Student Support and Progress Team (SSPT) process (monitored and led by the principal or his or her designee) for students who have been identified as consistently achieving below the norms (as measured by formative, summative and standardized tests, as well as other measures, including teacher, staff or administrator-identified concerns), just as they would use the process for identifying students who struggle.

Socioeconomically Disadvantaged/Low Income Students

Low-income students will be identified by eligibility for the federal lunch program. In 2023-24, approximately 96.2% of the students enrolled at McKinzie have qualified for this program. As such, the overwhelming majority of all students enrolled at McKinzie meet this subgroup identification. Our school program is designed to meet the needs of traditionally coming in behind grade levels through various supports and systems, including, but not limited to, the use of standards-based grading, scaffolded and differentiated learning, support classes, and after-school tutoring. We believe all students can learn at high levels regardless of economic status. These students' progress is monitored through a variety of ways, including through interim assessments, college-ready exams, and state exams. In general, due to the large population of SED/low-income students, their level of performance mirrors the overall school level outcomes.

For scholars experiencing homelessness or transitional housing, McKinzie provides an annual questionnaire to all families to assess who may benefit from McKinney-Vento rights and services. McKinzie also has a school-based Homeless Liaison who educates all staff and teachers to identify signs of homelessness and the referral process for connection to individualized resources. This includes the use of an individual Needs Assessment that is used to determine how to best support that scholar and their unique needs, with resources such as transportation, clothing, tutoring, toiletries, and more. In addition, McKinzie has a Community Schools Coordinator who works with attendance and tiered intervention teams to ensure resources and services are provided to scholars that are socioeconomically disadvantaged. They also use needs assessments to coordinate events such as food/clothing distributions, mobile clinics, and community resource awareness presentations. For enrichment, all expanded learning and athletics programs have the aim to be no or low cost to scholars and families to remove the barrier to participation for scholars who need this most.

Students with Disabilities

Please refer to the District Required Language included at the beginning of Element 1.

Students in Other Student Groups

Foster youth, and related subgroups such as homeless students, are identified by school personnel through the registration and enrollment process and supported through coordinated activities with other entities/agencies, identified according to the needs of the specific situation. Once students have been identified, students will be indicated in PowerSchool, and the Alliance Home Office will work with the school staff (usually the School Operations Manager) to locate additional support services on a case-by-case basis. The students will be provided with tutoring, counseling, transportation and coordination of services as needed to best meet their individual needs using the COST Process (Coordination of Services Team) made up of an administrator, counselors, school psychologist, and other certificated personnel as relevant, such as a classroom teacher. A quarterly evaluation of academic performance for all students in this subgroup will be implemented by the administration and counselor to assess the level of response to services, and adjustments to the curriculum will be made as necessary to nurture a positive environment.

ELEMENT 2: Measurable Pupil Outcomes and

ELEMENT 3: Method by which Pupil Progress Toward Outcomes will be Measured

“The measurable pupil outcomes identified for use by the charter school. “Pupil outcomes,” for purposes of this part, means the extent to which all pupils of the school demonstrate that they have attained the skills, knowledge, and attitudes specified as goals in the school’s educational program. Pupil outcomes shall include outcomes that address increases in pupil academic achievement both schoolwide and for all pupil subgroups served by the charter school, as that term is defined in subdivision (a) of Section 52052. The pupil outcomes shall align with the state priorities, as described in subdivision (d) of Section 52060, that apply for the grade levels served by the charter school.” (Ed. Code § 47605(c)(5)(B).)

“The method by which pupil progress in meeting those pupil outcomes is to be measured. To the extent practicable, the method for measuring pupil outcomes for state priorities shall be consistent with the way information is reported on a school accountability report card.” (Ed. Code § 47605(c)(5)(C).)

MEASURABLE GOALS OF THE EDUCATIONAL PROGRAM

Charter School shall meet all statewide content and performance standards and targets. (Ed. Code §§ 47605(d)(1), 60605.)

Charter School shall comply with all applicable laws and regulations related to AB 97 (2013) (Local Control Funding Formula) and AB 484 (2013), as they may be amended from time to time, including all requirements pertaining to pupil outcomes.

STANDARDIZED TESTING

Charter School agrees to comply with state requirements for participation and administration of all state-mandated tests, including computer-based assessments. Charter School shall submit and maintain complete, accurate, and up-to-date California Longitudinal Pupil Achievement Data System (CALPADS) data in accordance with the requirements of California Code of Regulations, title 5, section 861. Charter School hereby grants authority to the State of California to provide a copy of all test results directly to the District as well as Charter School. Method for Measuring Pupil Progress Toward Outcomes: Formative Assessment

Student Progress Monitoring

Assessments are a foundational component of the teaching and learning process. To ensure that all students have access to the learning experiences necessary for college persistence and career success, McKinzie will employ high-quality, purposeful, actionable and strategically sequenced assessments for learning and of learning.

Using the Common Core and CA Standards where applicable, McKinzie has clearly defined what students should know in each core subject at each grade/course level. We will monitor the progress of all subgroups against target goals by disaggregating data for all assessments and grades through Illuminate, Tableau, and PowerSchool, our student information systems.

Up to three times a year in English, Mathematics and Science, McKinzie implements standards-aligned interim assessments. These assessments are built by either the Smarter Balanced Assessment Consortium or A-Net and are aligned to the Common Core State Standards and NGSS standards. Data from each interim is immediately available to McKinzie staff and broken down at the student, item and standard level. Data is then used to identify common misconceptions and student supports. After each interim, teachers use the data to re-teach standards through daily instruction. The expectation is that students will improve in their mastery of standards over the course of the year to best position them to fully meet the performance expectations of Smarter Balanced.

Below is the current list of assessments used to monitor student progress towards college and career readiness standards. These assessments are subject to pending any changes in state-mandated assessments.

Assessment Type	Frequency	Grades/Content	Description
Interim Assessments	Up to 3x per year	Grades 9-11; ELA, Math, Science	Interim Assessments at Alliance align to the standards covered and suggested pacing in each grade/content. These assessments are aligned with the CCSS and SBAC and provide important information to teachers for planning, instruction and supports for students.
i-Ready Assessment	2-3x per year	All Grades	All scholars take this assessment twice/year to diagnose needs for additional academic support in the beginning of the year and to measure scholar growth over time on specific domains related to reading and math. Scholars classified as English Learners take the assessment at the mid-year point for reclassification and to refine supports.

Smarter Balanced Summative Assessments	1x per year	Grade 11; ELA and Math	The Smarter Balanced Summative Assessments are comprehensive end-of-year assessments in English language arts/literacy (ELA) and Math that are aligned with the Common Core State Standards (CCSS) for English language arts/literacy (ELA) Mathematics.
California Alternate Assessment (CAA)	1x per year	Grade 11; Identified students only	Students with cognitive disabilities take the CAA Instead of the Smarter Balanced Summative Assessment. This test is modified to appropriately assess the ELA/Literacy and mathematics progress and performance of specific students designated to engage in a modified curriculum as specified in their IEP.
California Science Test (CAST)	1x per year	Grade 11	CA NGSS Summative assessment. Administered in the spring.
English Language Proficiency Assessments for California (ELPAC)	Initial and Annual; varies by student	All Grades, English Learners	The ELPAC measures provides both initial and annual assessment of an English Learner's proficiency in Reading, Writing, Listening and Speaking. This test will be the main assessment tool used to measure growth and progress for reclassification.
Physical Fitness Test	1x per year	Grade 9	Students participate in this State-required assessment on basic components of CA Physical Education Standards.

McKinzie tests independently of LAUSD. Assessments and standardized testing of students with disabilities is conducted using state and district guidelines for modifications and accommodations.

The assessment structure includes, in addition to other standards-based and performance-based assessment tools, comprehensive final exams in each of the core academic subjects, quizzes and tests, homework assignments, essays and research reports, and teacher evaluation of in class performance. These measurements are weighted and combined into a comprehensive educational program assessment to determine student achievement and promotion to the next grade level. The aggregate results are issued as a report card to the community evaluating the measurable goals and terms outlined in the charter.

Alliance interim assessments are administered online in order to prepare students for SBAC online assessments and represent the level of rigor required for students to meet the proficiency level (3 or 4) as measured on Smarter Balanced assessments. Every student has an SBAC-ready computing device.

Data Analysis and Reporting

Data informs our decisions regarding the need to continue, modify, improve, add to or discontinue instructional strategies and programs to best meet the needs of our scholars and provide the intervention and support necessary to accelerate their progress. Data is also regularly shared with stakeholders throughout the year to inform them of school performance.

Data Use to Improve Programs and Operations

Data is regularly collected, analyzed, discussed, and used to inform educational program and operations strategy by school staff, school leadership, the Alliance Executive Cabinet, and the Alliance Governing Board.

Quarterly data stepbacks on school academic, operational, and culture key performance indicator data occurs at the staff and leadership levels of the school and at the Alliance Home Office. This includes identifying headlines from the data, conducting root cause analysis of one or more data headlines, and updating strategic planning and determining action steps to improve the educational program and operations of the school. Higher frequency lead measure data is also collected, analyzed, and discussed in between these quarterly reviews in order to drive shorter-term action planning and improvement. Data is consistently reviewed at Governing Board meetings to inform educational program and operations improvement.

Data Use to Inform Stakeholders

School performance data is reviewed at School Site Advisory Council meetings, staff meetings, parent meetings, and Alliance Governing Board meetings to inform stakeholders of school performance. This comprehensive needs assessment includes an analysis of verifiable data and is consistent with all state priorities. The data reviewed include the California School Dashboard, Enrollment, and other metrics related to school health and student performance. The data regarding student performance include analyses that are disaggregated by numerically significant subgroups, including historically underserved and at-risk students, and are measured against state academic standards through the Distance From Standard (DFS) metric. This review also includes budgetary information regarding Title I and LCFF allocations based on the needs identified in the programmatic and achievement data described above.

Grading, Progress Reporting, and Promotion/Retention

Grading Policy

Academic Grades

Grades reflect a scholar's academic performance so scholars and families have clear indicators of the scholar's preparedness for college success and 21st century careers throughout a scholar's career at an Alliance school. The grading scale at each Alliance school campus is based on the degree to which scholars demonstrate proficiency on content standards.

Alliance-Wide Grading Scale

All Alliance schools use the following grading scale for academic courses and advisory. The grade scale below shows equivalent rubric scores to letter grades on individual assignments and semester grades.

Please note that Scholars with Disabilities are required by law to be given accommodations and/or necessary supports on assessments and assignments as stated in their IEP. All English Language Learners (Emerging/Newcomers, Expanding, Bridging), regardless of level, must receive appropriate and documented language support on assignments and assessments.

	S	Grade pending accommodation / designated support
	Z	Assignment not submitted and/or blank (which includes only having the paper) and is a grade of zero.
	E	Ethics violation and is a grade of zero.

Incomplete Grades

The grade of "I" (Incomplete) may only be given at the end of the semester when extended illness or other unusual circumstances warrant giving the student additional time to fulfill the course work. These grades must be removed within six weeks of the next semester, or they become an "NP".

McKinzie issues student progress reports every five weeks based on student proficiency on grade level/subject standards and expectations designated for the quarter. The student progress report is based on multiple measures including teacher assessments, portfolio/exhibits, and specific assessments to quantify student performance. Formative and summative assignments and assessments are used to determine student performance.

Student course grades to meet graduation requirements including A-G are A, B, C or NP (Not Proficient) grades. Student reports are issued and recorded through our data system. Parents of students performing below/far below proficient performance participate in a scheduled parent conference to discuss the parents' and the teachers' plan to improve their child's performance. Teachers and advisors meet together to analyze these reports and to make necessary adjustments in the program being offered to students who are showing a lack of progress.

Type and Frequency of Progress Reporting

McKinzie issues student progress reports or report cards every five weeks based on student proficiency on grade level/subject standards and expectations designated for the quarter. The student progress report and report card is based on multiple measures including teacher assessments, portfolio/exhibits, and specific assessments to quantify student performance. Formative and summative assignments and assessments are used to determine student performance.

Promotion/Retention Policy and Procedures

Promotion and Retention of Students

McKinzie is committed to helping students achieve the necessary skills to progress from grade to grade yearly and does not endorse social promotion. Because of the linguistic and socioeconomic barriers this student population may have faced, readiness to move to the next grade level is examined on an individual basis. Each student is assessed individually according to his/her total needs.

The school has clearly defined expectations for what students should know and be able to do at each grade level in each subject in an effort to equip all students with the academic skills that enable them to be ready for entrance to and success in college. Promotion and retention of students is based on multiple indicators of academic achievement that are laid out in the parent-student handbook, including:

- Assessment measures to determine if the student is advanced, proficient, partially proficient, or not proficient - assessment measures include the student progress report, degree of proficiency and teacher recommendations. Students whose average rubric score classification is “not proficient” on the final student progress report for the academic year are eligible for retention.
- Attendance – students with excessive absences (15 or more) may be eligible for retention.

The principal or administrative designee, in conjunction with school teaching and counseling staff, prepares a written determination to specify the reasons for retention. The written determination includes recommendations for interventions that are necessary to assist the student to attain acceptable levels of academic achievement. The written determination is provided to and discussed in a meeting with the student’s parents/guardians, teachers, and principal.

Students identified for retention will work closely with the counselor and are encouraged to participate in a remediation program that includes after-school activities, tutoring, and summer school. All students are also provided additional in-class support, which ensures that students who cannot participate outside of school hours are also supported. The student’s academic performance is reassessed at the end of the remediation program, and the decision to retain or promote the student is reevaluated at that time.

Appeals Process for Retention

The retention of a student is at the discretion of the principal or administrative designee. Parents/guardians shall be notified in advance of the enactment of the retention and can appeal a student's retention. A retention appeal shall be submitted in writing to the school’s designated support team and shall be heard if requested within five (5) school days of the notification of retention by the school. Upon consideration, the designated support team’s decision shall be final. The decision regarding the appeal will be made within five (5) school days of the appeal submission to the school’s designated support team. Parents/guardians will be notified of the decision in writing within three (3) school days following the decision.

School-Site Advisory Committee (SSAC) Engagement

The SSAC is included in the above Educational Partner Engagement process and takes part in a robust discussion of the budgetary information. This engagement process spans at least two separate SSAC meetings and often takes three or more meetings to ensure full discussion and engagement. Feedback is solicited, recorded, and discussed carefully. This engagement process is followed by a final meeting to review the full LCAP and approve it for presentation to the Alliance Governing Board for final approval.

Stakeholder Educational Program Consultation

The SSAC process is a collaborative framework designed to actively involve stakeholders in decision-making and continuous improvement efforts within schools. It serves as a structured platform where diverse voices - students, parents, educators, community members, and administrators - come together to discuss and provide input on key issues affecting the school community.

Goals of the SSAC Process:

1. Inclusive Stakeholder Engagement: To ensure that all groups, especially those historically underrepresented, have an opportunity to participate and share their perspectives.
2. Transparency in Decision-Making: To foster trust by providing stakeholders with a clear understanding of school goals, policies, and challenges.
3. Shared Accountability: To encourage collective ownership of outcomes by involving stakeholders in the planning and evaluation process.

Key Steps in the SSAC Process:

1. Formation of the Committee:
 - Schools actively identify and invite diverse stakeholders, ensuring representation from all segments of the community. Each stakeholder group then elects its representatives through a voting process within their respective member groups, fostering legitimacy and accountability.
 - Roles and responsibilities are clearly defined to ensure productive participation.
2. Information Sharing and Education:
 - The committee is provided with relevant data, such as academic performance metrics, resource allocations, and community needs assessments.
 - Stakeholders are trained on school policies, procedures, and objectives to empower informed contributions.
3. Collaborative Discussions:

- Regular meetings are held to discuss initiatives, challenges, and opportunities for growth.
 - Stakeholders are encouraged to share insights and propose solutions, leveraging their unique perspectives.
4. Feedback and Recommendations:
- The committee synthesizes input to provide actionable recommendations to school leadership.
5. Implementation and Monitoring:
- Approved initiatives are implemented with periodic updates shared with the SSAC and broader community.
 - The committee monitors progress, ensuring alignment with shared goals and addressing emerging concerns.

Benefits of the SSAC Process:

- Empowered Communities: Stakeholders feel valued and invested in the success of the school.
- Enhanced Decision-Making: Diverse perspectives lead to more comprehensive and effective solutions.
- Improved Outcomes: Collaborative engagement supports initiatives that better reflect the needs of the school community.

By embedding the SSAC process into school governance, institutions can build stronger relationships with their communities while driving meaningful and sustainable improvements.

Website Support of Stakeholder Involvement

Each Alliance school's website includes various resources for stakeholders to engage with the school site directly. Information is easily accessible, and includes items for staff, scholars, families, and community members. Below are some examples of critical items that are included in our school sites:

1. Every school has a vision and mission that outlines the work that the school engages in, as well as a message from the principal. This is a way for the community to be aware of the school's culture, values, and objectives.
2. Enrollment information is provided and easily accessible; prospective families are able to learn about the enrollment process for Alliance, and are able to apply directly via the school's website.
3. There is a dedicated "Parents" tab which incorporates critical policy documents, as well as the Parent Handbook, including the Uniform Complaint Procedure, and bell schedules, nutrition schedules, and access to school calendars for events.
4. Governing Board agendas and meetings are posted on our Alliance website and stakeholders are able to access the meeting virtually via a one-step click to those links.
5. PowerSchool and Google Classroom links are accessible for stakeholders, especially scholars and families, to stay updated on their academic progress.
6. There is a voter registration link that advances our civic outreach efforts to make access to registration easier.

7. Stakeholders are able to complete a contact form that is sent directly to school staff to ask questions or engage directly with the school.
8. A robust and organized Compliance Document Storage and Public Archive page includes Local Control Accountability Plans, Budget Overviews, Parent-Scholar Handbooks, School Accountability Report Cards, and English Learner Masterplans. It also includes information on Title IX, Bullying, Discrimination, Harassment, and Suicide Prevention. It also contains information on How to Access Mental Health Services.

Stakeholders are also able to access Alliance College-Ready Public Schools' network webpage (www.laalliance.org), which includes further information about the Alliance network, and includes things like:

1. Access to our long-term strategic vision website, which outline, among other things, our network priorities.
2. Information about each of our Alliance schools, and the communities that they serve.
3. Our commitment to being an anti-racist, pro-Black organization, along with our network values.
4. Advocacy pages for families to learn more about charters, and ways that they can engage with Alliance.
5. Access to the scholar results seen across our Alliance network.
6. Staff directories.

Composition, Selection, and Operating Procedures for Parent Organizations or Committees

School Coordinating Council

The School Coordinating Council ("School Site Advisory Council" or "SCC") with a membership of 10 to 20 stakeholders representing various stakeholder groups, will be an advisory body to the Principal on the management of the school, including, but not limited to, school policies, the academic performance, and annual development of the LCAP and the budget. This council shall be composed of a majority of teacher and parent members and include a classified employee and certificated administrator. Members of the SCC are representatives from various stakeholder groups, with the majority being made up of teachers and parents who self-nominate to serve on the council. The SCC will help guide the decisions that best serve the families. Based on suggestions and recommendations from the SCC, the Principal will reflect this feedback in their decisions and operations. The SCC will meet at the Charter School site a minimum of four (4) times per year. Should topics or recommendations warrant a discussion with the Charter School Board of Directors, directors will attend SCC meetings. The SCC will strive to create a collaborative and transparent decision-making process that includes the input of all stakeholder groups. The School Board of Directors shall have final authority on all school related matters.

Parent/Community Town Hall Meetings

Approximately once a month, the Charter School holds meetings in a Town Hall Meeting format that all parents, community and staff members are welcome to attend. Topics for discussion or presentation include school-wide topics of interest related to achieving the goals of the Charter School and its students. Meetings are generally attended by the principal and administrative staff of the Charter School and, if the subjects to be discussed warrant it, members of the Charter School Board.

The school also maintains a website to keep parents and members of the community abreast of its events. All meetings are calendared in advance, with the goal of engaging all parents.

Parent Engagement

Parents have a right to choose to send their children to excellent high-performing schools and have a right and the responsibility to participate actively in ensuring the success of their child and the school. The Charter School understands the importance of active parent involvement in the education of their children.

Parents of the Charter School students are meaningfully and actively engaged in their children's education. Parents are responsible and accountable for supporting their children's learning at school and at home through their participation in understanding what it takes for children to achieve college-readiness, and by their active voice in achieving the goals of the school through volunteering. At the Charter School, it is anticipated that:

- Parents are actively engaged as members of the ongoing School Coordinating Council.
- Parents of participating Title 1 students participate in an Annual Charter School Title 1 meeting. The Charter School applied for and obtained the status of Schoolwide Program.
- Parents are guaranteed access to the school, school leaders and classroom teachers to support their children's education.
- After the enrollment of a student, each parent and each student meet with the principal.
- Parents are provided multiple opportunities to develop awareness of college readiness benchmarks and what their children must achieve to be successful. Parents are supported in their participation in monitoring their child's individual learning plan towards college readiness.
- Parents are encouraged to participate in a minimum of four Parent Education Academies each year.
- Each parent, their child and school leadership participate in annually developing and signing a Parent/Student/School Compact acknowledging their understanding, responsibility and commitment to support student learning and the academic goals of the Charter School.
- Parents are encouraged to accept responsibility and accountability for committing to support the Charter School and to participate as parent mentors.
- The Charter School seeks to establish partnerships with effective parent engagement leaders such as Families in Schools which has a proven track record of meaningfully engaging the voice of parents and the community as partners in schools.
- Meetings are arranged with individual classroom teachers, with the student's instructional team and with the student's advisor.
- Parent-teacher conferences are held quarterly to share and discuss the progress and needs of each individual student.
- Parents are encouraged to participate in town hall meetings, training opportunities, coordinating council, so that each parent feels part of the school and understands their responsibility to the school.

The Charter School makes every effort to fully inform parents as to the curriculum offered and their child's progress. In addition to representation on the School Coordinating Council, Parent/Community Town Hall Meetings are held to address school related issues, including, but not limited to, parent/teacher/student relations. While we strongly encourage parents and guardians to engage in supporting the school, parent/guardian participation is not required and has no effect on a student's enrollment, grades, credits or ability to graduate.

Community Engagement

If Charter School is to be effective, it must be part of the community. To that end, the school employs a Parent Engagement Specialist who supports the leadership in representing the interests of the community.

- Members of the community at large are solicited to support the school in various functions.
- Community resources, such as parks, libraries, athletic and classroom facilities are part of the Charter School. The Charter School believes that by using community facilities, it becomes an integral member of the community in which it is located.

Charter School shall comply with all applicable federal and state laws regarding homeless and foster youth, including but not limited to the provisions of AB 379 (2015) and Chapter 5.5 (commencing with Section 48850) of Part 27 of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Education Code, as amended from time to time. Charter School shall extend its uniform complaint procedure to complaints filed pursuant to the applicable provisions of AB 379.

NON-DISCRIMINATION

Charter School may request, at the time of, and as part of, conducting its lottery process, the provision of information necessary to apply specific admissions preferences set forth in this Charter.

Charter School shall not request or require submission of a student’s IEP, Section 504 Plan, or any other record or related information prior to admission, participation in any admissions or attendance lottery, or pre-enrollment event or process, or as a condition of admission or enrollment.

Charter School shall not discourage a student from enrolling or seeking to enroll in the Charter School, nor encourage a current student from disenrolling, for any reason, including, but not limited to, the student's academic performance, nationality, race, ethnicity, or sexual orientation or because the student is a student with disabilities, academically low achieving, an English learner, neglected or delinquent, homeless, economically disadvantaged, or a foster youth. The Charter School shall not request or require a student's records to be submitted before enrollment. The Charter School shall post on its web site the California Department of Education notice of these requirements and shall provide the notice to parents/guardians or students age 18 and older when the parent/guardian or student inquiries about enrollment, before conducting an enrollment lottery, and before disenrollment of a student. (Ed. Code §§ 47605, 47605.6)

Charter School shall adopt policy that is consistent with the model policy developed by the California Attorney General addressing the Charter School's response to immigration enforcement, notify parents/guardians of their children's right to a free public education regardless of immigration status or religious beliefs, prohibit the collection of information or documents regarding the immigration status of students or their family members, and fulfill other requirements of Education Code section 234.7.

PREGNANT AND PARENTING STUDENT ACCOMMODATIONS

SEXUAL HARASSMENT POLICY NOTICE

The Charter School shall create a poster that notifies students of the applicable policy on sexual harassment in accordance with Education Code section 231.6, and shall prominently and conspicuously display the poster in each bathroom and locker room at each schoolsite and in public areas at each schoolsite.

If the charter school offers competitive athletics, annually post on the school's web site or on the web site of the charter operator the total enrollment of the school classified by gender, the number of students who participate in competitive athletics classified by gender, and the number of boys' and girls' teams classified by sport and by competition level. If Charter School operates multiple school sites, this information shall be disaggregated by school site. (Ed. Code § 221.9.)

Admission Requirements

Each student interested in enrolling at McKinzie must be a resident of California and submit an application form to the school. If the number of interested students exceeds the number of seats available by the application deadline, admittance shall be determined by a public random drawing.

Student Recruitment

The intent of McKinzie is to serve students living in and attending schools within a 4-mile radius of the campus. As such, the school's marketing efforts will be targeted to students residing in the community or attending schools in the community served, which includes primarily students within LAUSD.

McKinzie is committed to serving all students. As detailed in Element 7, the Outreach Plan includes targeted efforts to recruit all students regardless of their disability, gender, gender identity, gender expression, nationality, race or ethnicity, religion, sexual orientation, or any other characteristic that is contained in the definition of hate crimes set forth in Section 422.55 of the Penal Code, including immigration status, equal rights, and opportunities in admission. This includes students who are at risk of low achievement, socio-economically disadvantaged students, and students with disabilities.

Methods of recruiting students may include:

- Announcements mailed to families attending neighboring elementary, middle and high schools
- Marketing brochures and flyers (in English and Spanish) distributed throughout the local community
- Local newspaper announcements
- Open houses and information sessions at the school site
- Open House at the school site prior to the opening of school
- The use of English and Spanish collateral and materials.

Lottery Preferences and Procedures

Lottery Preferences

Existing students are guaranteed admission in the following school year and are exempt from the public random drawing (lottery).

During the lottery, the following preferences shall be extended:

- Siblings currently attending McKinzie. (Siblings must share at least one biological parent or legal guardian.)
- Students currently enrolled in and attending Alliance College-Ready Middle Academy 8 in the immediate prior grade level to Alliance Morgan McKinzie High School's first instructional grade level, who seek to enroll in Alliance Morgan McKinzie High School for that grade level. Alliance Morgan McKinzie High School and Alliance College-Ready Middle Academy 8 are part of the network of schools affiliated with ACRPS.
- Children of current McKinzie staff members not to exceed 10% of total enrollment.
- Students living within the boundaries of the Los Angeles Unified School District.

In an effort to keep families together, in situations where siblings apply to McKinzie together and they do not have any other siblings currently attending McKinzie, if one of the children gains admission, he/she will automatically be considered a currently enrolled student and lottery preferences would apply.

Lottery Procedures

- Open Enrollment Period: The open enrollment period for the upcoming school year will start at the beginning of October of the current school year and last until the lottery takes place (as needed), and no later than May 30. Parents/guardians of students who submitted applications and interested parties will be provided information about the timeline and procedures to be followed during the open enrollment and lottery process upon request. This information will be made available verbally, online and in print form.
- Application Form: Each student interested in enrolling at an Alliance school must submit an application form to the school before the application deadline. There must be one application for each child. Applications received after the deadline shall be placed on the waitlist in the order they are received.
- Lottery Procedures: The lottery will be held on McKinzie's campus unless a larger venue is required. If needed, the lottery will take place on a weekday afternoon or evening or during the weekend to help ensure all interested parties can attend. The specific date, time and location will be determined one week following the application due date, and will be communicated to families and interested parties verbally or through written communications (e.g., text messages, emails, postings in school main office) as needed. Lottery procedures will be followed and related materials will be made available upon request. Interested parties are welcome to observe the random public drawing should one be necessary.

If the number of applicants exceeds the number of available seats on the application due date, a public lottery will be hosted and the applicants will be randomly drawn to fill the available seats. The lottery will follow the school's lottery preferences.

Applicants that are not accepted during the lottery will be placed on the waitlist in the order their names are drawn. All applications and a record of the order in which they are drawn will be kept on file at the Charter School. The Charter School may choose to conduct the lottery using an online enrollment system. The online enrollment system allows families to apply online and allows the school to run the lottery using a secure computer algorithm so that rules and lottery preferences are followed every time and families can be assured of an equitable process.

After the offered list is set, a waitlist shall be created and maintained. Should vacancies occur, admission will be offered to applicants on the waitlist in the order their names appear. The school can utilize the online enrollment system to manage the waitlist to ensure seats are offered to students in the order they appear on the waitlist.

- Communication: The offered list and waitlist will be made available following the lottery (if needed) and upon request. Parents/guardians of applicants on the offered list and waitlist will be contacted by designated school office staff via phone and/or in writing. Multiple communications on different days will be attempted. Communication attempts will be logged by school staff.

Parents/guardians of applicants will have 5 school days from initial contact to respond to the designated contact person. The parents can respond via phone, in writing or by accepting the seat through the online enrollment system. If parents do not respond within the timeline, the applicant will be removed from the waitlist and the next applicant's parents/guardians on the waitlist will be contacted. We use an enrollment database system to log and document the fair execution of our lottery and waitlist.

ELEMENT 9: Annual Financial Audits

“The manner in which annual, independent financial audits shall be conducted, which shall employ generally accepted accounting principles, and the manner in which audit exceptions and deficiencies shall be resolved to the satisfaction of the chartering authority.” (Ed. Code § 47605(c)(5)(I).)

Charter School shall provide for an annual audit that shall be conducted in compliance with applicable state and federal laws, including but not limited to the requirements of Education Code sections 47605(b)(c)(I) and 41020 as they may be amended from time to time. Charter School shall ensure compliance with the requirements of section 41020(f)(2), which makes it unlawful, absent an Education Audits Appeal Panel waiver, for a public accounting firm to provide audit services to a local educational agency if the lead audit partner, or coordinating audit partner, having primary responsibility for the audit, or the audit partner responsible for reviewing the audit, has performed audit services for that local educational agency in each of the six previous years.

Annual Audit Procedures

Audit Responsibilities

As per the Intracompany Services Agreement with the Alliance College-Ready Public Schools, the Alliance Home Office Chief Financial Officer, in coordination with the Alliance Audit Committee, is responsible for the selection of a qualified independent auditor to conduct the required annual financial audit. The auditor is retained by the Alliance Accounting Team, led by its Vice President, Accounting and Chief Financial Officer, to coordinate the completion of an annual audit of the school's financial books and records.

The selection process will include confirmation that any recommended firm be on the State Controller's list of approved auditors to conduct charter school audits. The Alliance Governing Board considers a recommendation annually from the Alliance Audit Committee to select the financial auditor. This audit will be conducted in accordance with the applicable Generally Accepted Accounting Principles. To the extent required by law, the scope of this audit will be expanded to include any relevant items or processes identified by the Office Management and Budget such as Circular A-133. All audit services are handled centrally by the Alliance Accounting Team, as per the school's Administrative Services Agreement with the Alliance.

The Vice President, Accounting ensures that the auditor sends the completed audit to the required agencies by the statutory deadline. As per relevant requirements, the school's audit is submitted to the Federal Audit Clearinghouse, State Controller, County Office of Education, California Department of Education and LAUSD.

As outlined in prior sections, the Alliance Home Office provides specific back-office services to the Charter School, including budgeting/forecasting, accounts set up (insurance, benefits, attendance tracking), payroll, compliance, required reporting, service vendor contract negotiations and management, and purchasing. The Alliance Home Office also provides oversight and monitors adherence by the Alliance Governing Board to the charter process and any applicable law. The Alliance Home Office maintains separate financial records for Charter School and assures that all accounting complies with generally accepted accounting principles.

Process to Resolve Audit Findings

Any deficiencies, findings, material weaknesses, or audit exceptions are reported to the Alliance Audit Committee. The Alliance Accounting Team, led by its Vice President, Accounting, will work with the school's leadership and the Alliance Governing Board, to immediately develop and implement a corrective action plan. Any such exception, as well as the corrective action plan, will be reviewed at an Alliance Governing Board regular meeting.

ELEMENT 10: Suspension and Expulsion Procedures

“The procedures by which pupils can be suspended or expelled from the charter school for disciplinary reasons or otherwise involuntarily removed from the charter school for any reason. These procedures, at a minimum, shall include an explanation of how the charter school will comply with federal and state constitutional procedural and substantive due process requirements that is consistent with all of the following:

(i) For suspensions of fewer than 10 days, provide oral or written notice of the charges against the pupil and, if the pupil denies the charges, an explanation of the evidence that supports the charges and an opportunity for the pupil to present the pupil’s side of the story.

(ii) For suspensions of 10 days or more and all other expulsions for disciplinary reasons, both of the following:

(I) Provide timely, written notice of the charges against the pupil and an explanation of the pupil’s basic rights.

(II) Provide a hearing adjudicated by a neutral officer within a reasonable number of days at which the pupil has a fair opportunity to present testimony, evidence, and witnesses and confront and cross-examine adverse witnesses, and at which the pupil has the right to bring legal counsel or an advocate.

(iii) Contain a clear statement that no pupil shall be involuntarily removed by the charter school for any reason unless the parent or guardian of the pupil has been provided written notice of intent to remove the pupil no less than five schooldays before the effective date of the action. The written notice shall be in the native language of the pupil or the pupil’s parent or guardian or, if the pupil is a foster child or youth or a homeless child or youth, the pupil’s educational rights holder, and shall inform the pupil, the pupil’s parent or guardian, or the pupil’s educational rights holder of the right to initiate the procedures specified in clause (ii) before the effective date of the action. If the pupil’s parent, guardian, or educational rights holder initiates the procedures specified in clause (ii), the pupil shall remain enrolled and shall not be removed until the charter school issues a final decision. For purposes of this clause, “involuntarily removed” includes disenrolled, dismissed, transferred, or terminated, but does not include suspensions specified in clauses (i) and (ii).

(iv) A foster child’s educational rights holder, attorney, and county social worker and an Indian child’s tribal social worker and, if applicable, county social worker shall have the same rights a parent or guardian of a child has to receive a suspension notice, expulsion notice, manifestation determination notice, involuntary transfer notice, and other documents and related information.” (Ed. Code § 47605(c)(5)(J).)

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Charter School shall provide due process for all students, including adequate and timely notice to parents/guardians and students of the grounds for all suspension and expulsion recommendations and decisions and their due process rights regarding suspension and expulsion, including rights of appeal.

Charter School shall ensure that its policies and procedures regarding suspension and expulsion will be periodically reviewed, and modified as necessary, in order to conform to changes in state law.

Charter School shall ensure that its staff is knowledgeable about and complies with the District's Discipline Foundation Policy and/or current equivalent policy.. Charter School shall comply with the terms of the School Discipline Policy and School Climate Bill of Rights resolution adopted by the LAUSD Board of Education on May 6, 2013.

Charter School shall be responsible for the appropriate interim placement of students during and pending the completion of Charter School's student expulsion process and shall facilitate the post-expulsion placement of expelled students.

Charter School shall document and implement the alternatives to suspension and expulsion that Charter School utilizes in response to attendance-related concerns, e.g. truancy or excessive tardiness.

No student shall be involuntarily removed by the Charter School for any reason unless the parent or guardian of the student has been provided written notice of intent to remove the student no less than five schooldays before the effective date of the action. The written notice shall be in the native language of the student or the student's parent or guardian or, if the student is a foster child or youth or a homeless child or youth, the student's educational rights holder, and shall inform him or her of the basis for which the pupil is being involuntarily removed and his or her right to request a hearing to challenge the involuntary removal. If a parent, guardian, or educational rights holder requests a hearing, the Charter School shall utilize the same hearing procedures specified below for expulsions, before the effective date of the action to involuntarily remove the student. If the student's parent, guardian, or educational rights holder requests a hearing, the student shall remain enrolled and shall not be removed until the Charter School issues a final decision. As used herein, "involuntarily removed" includes disenrolled, dismissed, transferred, or terminated, but does not include removals for misconduct which may be grounds for suspension or expulsion as enumerated in this section.

HOMEWORK TO SUSPENDED STUDENTS

For any student who has been suspended from school for two or more schooldays, Charter School shall provide student with the homework the student would otherwise have been assigned if requested by the student or student's parent/guardian. If a homework assignment is requested and turned in to the student's teacher either upon the student's return to school from suspension or within the timeframe originally prescribed by the teacher, whichever is later, but it is not graded before the end of the academic term, then that assignment shall not be included in the calculation of the pupil's overall grade in the class. (Ed. Code § 48913.5)

STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES

Charter School shall establish and implement policies and procedures to ensure full compliance with federal and state laws and regulations regarding the discipline of students with disabilities. If a student is recommended for expulsion and the student receives or is eligible for special education, pending the completion of the expulsion process, Charter School shall identify and provide special education programs and services at an appropriate interim educational placement determined in coordination with the LAUSD Division of Special Education.

In the case of a student who has an Individualized Education Program (“IEP”), or a student who has a Section 504 Plan, Charter School shall ensure that it follows correct disciplinary procedures to comply with the mandates of state and federal laws, including IDEA and section 504 of the Rehabilitation Plan of 1973. As set forth in the MOU regarding special education between the District and Charter School, an IEP team will meet to conduct a manifestation determination and to discuss alternative placement utilizing the District’s Special Education Policies and Procedures Manual. Prior to recommending expulsion for a student with a Section 504 Plan, Charter School’s administrator will convene a Link Determination meeting to ask the following two questions:

- A. Was the misconduct caused by, or directly and substantially related to the student’s disability?
- B. Was the misconduct a direct result of the Charter School’s failure to implement Section 504?

NOTIFICATION OF THE DISTRICT

Upon expelling any student, Charter School shall notify the Charter Schools Division by submitting an expulsion packet to the CSD immediately or as soon as practicable, which shall contain:

- Completed “Notification of Charter School Expulsion” [form available from the CSD website or office], including attachments as required on the form
- Documentation of the expulsion proceeding, including statement of specific facts supporting the expulsion and documentation that Charter School’s policies and procedures were followed
- Copy of parental notice of expulsion hearing
- Copy of expulsion notice provided to parent stating reason for expulsion, term of expulsion, rehabilitation plan, reinstatement notice with eligibility date and instructions for providing proof of student’s compliance for reinstatement, appeal process, and options for enrollment
- If the student is eligible for Special Education, documentation related to expulsion in compliance with IDEA including the Expulsion Analysis page of the pre-expulsion IEP
- If the student is eligible for Section 504 accommodations, documentation that Charter School conducted a Link Determination meeting to address two questions:
 - A. Was the misconduct caused by, or directly and substantially related to the student’s disability?
 - B. Was the misconduct a direct result of Charter School’s failure to implement Section 504 Plan?

Notwithstanding and apart from the documentation sent to the Charter Schools Division as indicated above, if the student is a resident of a school district other than LAUSD, Charter School must notify the superintendent of the student's district of residence within 30 days of the expulsion. Additionally, upon request of the receiving school district, Charter School shall forward student records no later than 10 school days from the date of the request as stated in Education Code section 49068 (a) and (b).

OUTCOME DATA

Charter School shall gather and maintain all data related to placement, tracking, and monitoring of student suspensions, expulsions, involuntary removals, and reinstatements, and make such outcome data readily available to the District upon request.

REHABILITATION PLANS

Pupils who are expelled from Charter School shall be given a rehabilitation plan upon expulsion as developed by Charter School's governing board at the time of the expulsion order, which may include, but is not limited to, periodic review as well as assessment at the time of review for readmission. Terms of expulsion should be reasonable and fair with the weight of the expelling offense taken into consideration when determining the length of expulsion. Therefore, the rehabilitation plan should include a date not later than one (1) year from the date of expulsion when the pupil may apply to Charter School for readmission. Charter School shall inform parents in writing of its processes for reinstatement and applying for expungement of the expulsion record.

READMISSION

Charter School's governing board shall adopt rules establishing a procedure for the filing and processing of requests for readmission and the process for the required review of all expelled pupils for readmission. Upon completion of the readmission process, Charter School's governing board shall readmit the pupil, unless Charter School's governing board makes a finding that the pupil has not met the conditions of the rehabilitation plan or continues to pose a danger to campus safety. A description of the procedure shall be made available to the pupil and the pupil's parent or guardian at the time the expulsion order is entered and the decision of the governing board, including any related findings, must be provided to the pupil and the pupil's parent/guardian within a reasonable time.

REINSTATEMENT

Charter School's governing board shall adopt rules establishing a procedure for processing reinstatements, including the review of documents regarding the rehabilitation plan. Charter School is responsible for reinstating the student upon the conclusion of the expulsion period in a timely manner.

GUN-FREE SCHOOLS ACT

Charter School shall comply with the federal Gun-Free Schools Act.

School Climate and Student Discipline System

School-Wide Positive Behavior Intervention and Support (SWPBIS)

As required by the Modified Consent Decree (MCD), Alliance schools also follow the District's Discipline Foundation Policy, including the school-wide positive behavior supports, alternatives to suspension (e.g., behavioral contracts, student detention, parent conferences, counseling), and restorative justice. At the beginning of each school year, the principal or administrative designee (e.g., assistant principal, dean of students) will provide professional development to school staff in order to communicate and model the school's discipline policy to the school community.

McKinzie believes in a student discipline philosophy that is progressive in nature, but also emphasizes positive behavior supports to provide students with opportunities to improve. These include, but are not limited to: positive recognition, restorative practices (e.g., restorative circles, mediation, regular conferencing), increased family and community collaboration, acknowledgement and reinforcement of appropriate behavior, clear definition of expectations, team-based implementation, and data-based decision making. The school will have access to a student discipline dashboard to track and monitor student suspensions and expulsions on a regular basis.

Tiered Behavior Intervention

McKinzie provides Tier 1 Universal supports to all scholars in the teaching of SEL skills and behavior expectations, accompanied by frequent positive praise to scholars. Administrators and staff will regularly review school-wide and subgroup behavior data to identify scholars for providing: Tier 2 Targeted interventions such as Check In Check Out or Small Group SEL instruction; Tier 3 Intensive intervention designed to directly address the function of behavior such as individualized success and safety plans, coordination of care agency services, or wraparound support.

Additionally, students who violate the school rules are also subject to, but not limited to, the following progressive actions:

- Verbal warning
- Phone call to parent/guardian
- Loss of privileges (e.g. attending after school activities, interscholastic sports, special non-instructional activities held during the school day, one-to-one assigned technology)

- Detention
- Conference with student and parent/guardian
- Suspension
- Expulsion

Restorative Justice Practices

McKinzie leverages a trauma-informed, resilience-focused and multi-tiered approach with Restorative Justice to ensure all scholars feel safe, seen, and ready to learn. We aim for a “Culture of Learning” founded on clear expectations. At Tier 1, we emphasize prevention as much as possible, with a focus on community building and strong relationships for all and techniques including but not limited to affective statements, positive comment ratio of 5:1 with scholars, and community building circles. At Tier 2, for some scholars, based on data, techniques include but are not limited to restorative conferences, harm repair circles, targeted social emotional learning, self-assessments. Finally, at Tier 3, for few scholars, based on data, techniques include but are not limited to individualized supports, re-entry circles, function of behavior interventions, intensive social emotional learning. We believe in using restorative justice to repair the harm to relationships and school communities when broken, using techniques above, to ensure long term sustained success for all scholars.

Alternatives to Suspension

McKinzie believes that all scholars can achieve at a high level. This belief holds true regardless of our scholars’ prior academic experience, disability status, cognitive level, or behavioral, social-emotional, or mental health needs. In order to support the continued achievement of scholars, the school has dedicated resources to implement a discipline framework that is void of punitive, ineffective practices, reduces suspensions, and mitigates exclusion of scholars from their school communities and learning environments. Whenever possible and appropriate, McKinzie provides Alternatives to Suspension via age-appropriate responses to correct a scholar’s specific misconduct and that provides the scholar with an opportunity to learn the skills necessary to avoid recurrence of misconduct. At the beginning of the school year faculty and staff are provided training on the school’s discipline policy and throughout the year the administration uses data to plan for any refresher and updates throughout the year. Whenever possible, we will utilize positive behavior support and interventions for violations, prior to or in lieu of suspension, to resolve disciplinary issues.

Methods include but are not limited to:

- Alternative Programming
- Behavior Agreement or Contract
- Community Service
- Counseling
- Mini Courses/Skill Modules

- Restitution
- Restorative Circle
- Social Skills Instruction
- Check In Check Out
- Mentorship
- Outside Agency Support
- Voluntary Parental Involvement & Supervision

Using Data

The school will gather and maintain all data related to placement, tracking, and monitoring of student suspensions, expulsions, involuntary removals, and reinstatements, and make such outcome data readily available to the District upon request. The data will be used to inform behavior interventions across Tier 1, 2, and 3, as well as any plans for faculty and staff training, coaching, and development..

Procedures for Suspension and Expulsion

Suspension Procedures

In the case of a foster child, the following paragraphs shall have the school communicate with their educational rights holder, attorney, or county social worker in lieu of a parent/guardian.

Rules and Procedures

The process for investigating incidents and collecting evidence for suspensions and expulsions will be fair and thorough. Suspension is preceded by a conference conducted by the principal or administrative designee (e.g., assistant principal, dean of students) with the student and the student's parent/guardian. The conference may be omitted if the administrative staff determines that an emergency situation exists. An "emergency situation" involves a clear and present danger to the lives, safety or health of students or school personnel. If the student is suspended without a conference, the parent/guardian is notified of the suspension, a request for a conference is to be made as soon as possible, and the conference is to be held as soon as possible. If the scholar denies the charges, they will be given explanation of the evidence that supports the charges and an opportunity to present their side of the story

Notice to Parents/Guardians

At the time of suspension (both out-of-school and in-school), the principal or administrative designee will contact the parent/guardian by telephone or in person. Whenever a student is suspended, the parent/guardian shall be notified in writing of the suspension and the date of return following suspension in the primary language of the guardian. This notice shall state the specific offense(s) committed by the student. In addition, the notice shall also state the date and time the student may return to school. The principal or administrative designee shall request to confer with the parent/guardian regarding matters pertinent to the suspension; parents/guardians are strongly encouraged to respond without delay as student violations of school rules may result in student expulsion from the school.

In-school suspensions will be served in either the school's main office or in an open classroom and will be supervised by a certificated staff member. During in-school suspensions, the student's teachers will provide coursework to be completed in the in-school suspension setting.

Length of Suspension

Suspensions (both out-of-school and in-school), when not including a recommendation for expulsion, shall not exceed five (5) consecutive school days per suspension. Students with IEPs shall not be suspended for more than a total of ten (10) school days in a school year unless a suspension has been extended pending an expulsion hearing, post a Manifestation Determination Review (MDR). During the term of the suspension, McKinzie shall provide the student with meaningful access to education. Missed assignments can be accessed virtually through class websites or arranged for pick-up or delivery with the parent/guardian. The student shall also be given the opportunity to take make-up tests if they were missed during the term of the suspension.

Upon a recommendation of expulsion by the principal or administrative designee, the pupil and the pupil's guardian or representative will be invited to a conference to determine if the suspension for the pupil should be extended pending an expulsion hearing. This determination will be made by the principal or administrative designee upon either of the following: 1) the pupil's presence will be disruptive to the education process; or 2) the pupil poses a threat or danger to others. Upon either determination, the pupil's suspension will be extended pending the results of an expulsion hearing. Students who receive an extended suspension may be offered an interim placement at an LAUSD school, another Alliance school, or coursework from the attending school. Students shall not be suspended for more than a total of twenty (20) school days in a school year, unless a suspension has been extended up to 30 school days pending an expulsion hearing.

Suspension Appeals

The suspension of a student is at the discretion of the principal or administrative designee. Parents/guardians shall be notified in advance of the enactment of the suspension and can appeal a student's suspension. A suspension appeal shall be submitted in writing to the Alliance Home Office Chief Schools Officer, and shall be heard if requested within five (5) school days of the notification of suspension by the principal or administrative designee. Upon consideration of the evidence presented in the appeal, the Chief Schools Officer's decision shall be final. The student shall be considered suspended until a meeting is convened to hear the appeal. The decision regarding the appeal will be made within one (1) school day of the appeal hearing. Parents/guardians will be notified of the decision in writing within three (3) school days. For students who are recommended for expulsion, any appeal of the suspension will be considered concurrently with the expulsion process.

Expulsion Procedures

Rules and Procedures

The process for investigating incidents and collecting evidence for suspensions and expulsions will be fair and thorough. Upon a recommendation of expulsion by the principal or administrative designee, the pupil and the pupil's parent/guardian or representative will be invited, by letter or by phone, to a pre-expulsion conference within five (5) school days. During the conference, they will receive written notice of the charges and their rights and have the right to respond to the allegation. If necessary, they will be given three (3) additional school days after the conference to respond. This conference will also provide an opportunity to determine if the suspension for the pupil should be extended pending an expulsion hearing. This determination will be made by the principal or administrative designee.

Authority to Expel

A student may be expelled by a three (3) member neutral panel, known as the Expulsion Panel that is designated by the McKinzie School Board of Directors ("School Board"). The Expulsion Panel shall be selected by the Board Chair and will consist of Alliance College-Ready Public Schools and Alliance's affiliated schools' staff. The members of the Expulsion Panel shall meet the following criteria:

- 1) The members shall have no knowledge or previous familiarity of the student or situation, and
- 2) The members are not employees of the presenting school.

Expulsion Hearing

A hearing to determine whether the student should be expelled is required for recommendation for expulsion. The hearing shall be held within 30 school days after the principal makes his/her expulsion recommendation. The hearing shall be presided over by the Expulsion Panel described above.

The principal or administrative designee provides written notice of the hearing to the student and the student's parent/guardian within ten (10) calendar days before the date of the hearing. The notice shall be in the primary language of the guardian. The notice will include information regarding reasonable accommodations and language support, presentation and cross-examination of witnesses and other evidence, representation by counsel or other advocates, and other due process protections and rights. As necessary, the notice will also provide special rules and procedures for incidents involving sexual assault and/or battery (e.g., provide complaining witness with a copy of applicable disciplinary rules and advisement of rights, postponement of expulsion hearing for one school day to accommodate the special physical, mental and emotional needs of complaining witness, provide a nonthreatening environment for complaining witness to speak freely and accurately of his/her experiences, breaks during testimony as needed, advisement of complaining witness and accused pupil to refrain from personal or telephonic contact). The documentary evidence packet shall be made available to the student and/or parents/guardians upon request.

An audio recording of the hearing and proceedings will be created and retained.

Presentation of Evidence

While technical rules of evidence do not apply to expulsion hearings, evidence may be admitted and used as proof only if it is the kind of evidence in which reasonable persons can rely in the conduct of serious affairs. A determination by the panel to expel must be supported by substantial evidence that the student committed an expellable offense. Also, in accordance to the LAUSD Suspension and Expulsion Matrix, for Category II and II offenses, the school must provide evidence of one or both of the following additional findings: (1) Other means of correction are not feasible or have repeatedly failed to bring about proper conduct, (2) Due to the nature of the act, the student's presence causes a continuing danger to the physical safety of the pupil or others. At the hearing the scholar will have a fair opportunity to present testimony, evidence, and witnesses and confront and cross-examine adverse witnesses, and at which the pupil has the right to bring legal counsel or an advocate.

Findings of fact shall be based solely on the evidence at the hearing. While hearsay evidence is admissible, no decision to expel shall be based solely on hearsay. Sworn declarations may be admitted as testimony from witnesses of whom the Expulsion Panel determines that disclosure of their identity or testimony at the hearing may subject them to an unreasonable risk of physical or psychological harm. The decision of the panel to expel must be supported by substantial evidence presented at the hearing that the student committed an expellable offense. Also, in accordance to the LAUSD Suspension and Expulsion Matrix, for Category II and II offenses, the school must provide evidence of one or both of the following additional findings: (1) Other means of correction are not feasible or have repeatedly failed to bring about proper conduct, (2) Due to the nature of the act, the student's presence causes a continuing danger to the physical safety of the pupil or others.

The decision of the Expulsion Panel shall be in the form of written findings of fact. The final decision by the panel shall be made within three (3) school days following the conclusion of the hearing.

If the Expulsion Panel decides not to expel and the student is still enrolled, the pupil shall immediately be returned to his/her educational program or be given the opportunity to transfer to another Alliance school with mutual agreement of the parent and the other Alliance school.

Written Notice to Expel

Following a decision of the Expulsion Panel to expel, the principal or administrative designee shall send to the student and parent/guardian written notice of the decision to expel. The notice shall be in the primary language of the guardian. This notice will include the findings of fact, recommendations, referral to alternative placement, recommended rehabilitation plan, recommended expulsion order and appeal procedures. This notice to expel a student will be sent by certified U.S. mail. Records of the proceeding will be made available at anytime upon request to the Principal.

Appeal of Expulsion

An expulsion decision may be appealed within 30 calendar days of the date of the Expulsion Panel's written decision to expel. The parent/guardian must submit the appeal in writing to the principal who will inform the School Board Chair. An Expulsion Appeal Panel shall be convened within 30 school days of receipt of the written appeal, at which time the student's parent/guardian must attend to present his/her appeal either verbally or in writing. Language support shall be provided upon request. The Expulsion Appeal Panel shall have three (3) members. The panel shall be selected by the School Board Chair. Panel members shall not be school employees (they may be Alliance Home Office employees or staff members from other Alliance schools), shall have no familiarity of the incident or student, and shall not be the same individuals that served on the Expulsion Panel. The scope of review of the panel shall be limited to whether there is relevant and material evidence which, in the exercise of reasonable diligence, could not have been produced or which was improperly excluded at the expulsion hearing. The decision of the Expulsion Appeal Panel shall be final. Parents will be notified of the Expulsion Appeal Panel's decision, in writing, within two (2) school days of the hearing. The notice shall be in the primary language of the guardian. In the event that the Expulsion Appeal Panel reverses the expulsion, the student shall be immediately reinstated.

Alternative Placement

In the event of a decision to expel a student, the school will work cooperatively with student's home school district, the county and/or other schools to find alternative placement for the student.

Rehabilitation Plans

Pupils who are expelled from an Alliance school shall be given a rehabilitation plan upon expulsion as developed by the Expulsion Panel at the time of the expulsion order, which may include, but is not limited to, periodic review as well as assessment at the time of review for readmission. The rehabilitation plan should include a date not later than one (1) year from the date of expulsion when the pupil may reapply to the Alliance school for readmission.

Readmission

The school shall receive the documentary evidence from parents/guardians or LAUSD as per the student's rehabilitation plan in the findings of fact. This evidence will be reviewed to determine if the plan's requirements have been met to allow for readmission. Upon completion of the readmission process and pending the availability of open seats, the school shall readmit the pupil, unless the school's principal makes a finding that the pupil has not met the conditions of the rehabilitation plan or continues to pose a danger to campus safety. A description of the procedure shall be made available to the pupil and the pupil's parent or guardian at the time the expulsion order is entered and the decision of the school, including any related findings, must be provided to the pupil and the pupil's parent/guardian within a reasonable time.

Reinstatement

Upon completion of the readmission process and a determination that the student has met the terms of the rehabilitation plan, the school shall reinstate the student upon the conclusion of the expulsion period in a timely manner pending the availability of open seats.

In-School Suspension

Location, Supervision, and Student Instruction

The principal or administrative designee may assign scholars to a supervised in-school suspension for the entire period of suspension of not more than 5 school days if the scholar committed an act on the school-adopted LAUSD Suspension and Expulsion Matrix and poses no imminent danger or threat to the campus, other scholars, or staff.

In-school suspensions will be served in either the school's main office or in an open classroom and will be supervised by a certificated staff member. During in-school suspensions, the scholar's teachers will provide coursework to be completed in the in-school suspension setting.

Student Supports

During an in-school suspension all supports and services will be provided to the scholar including those listed written in their IEP, 504, or other scholar-centered support plan, in addition to access to appropriate counseling services.

Family Notification

At the time of suspension (both out-of-school and in-school), the principal or administrative designee will contact the parent/guardian by telephone or in person. Whenever a student is suspended, the parent/guardian shall be notified in writing of the suspension and the date of return following suspension in the primary language of the guardian. This notice shall state the specific offense(s) committed by the student. In addition, the notice shall also state the date and time the student may return to school. The principal or administrative designee shall request to confer with the parent/guardian regarding matters pertinent to the suspension; parents/guardians are strongly encouraged to respond without delay as student violations of school rules may result in student expulsion from the school. In the case of a foster child, the preceding paragraph shall have the school communicate with the educational rights holder, attorney, or county social worker in lieu of a parent/guardian

Maximum Days of Suspension

Suspensions (both out-of-school and in-school), when not including a recommendation for expulsion, shall not exceed five (5) consecutive school days per suspension. Students with IEPs shall not be suspended for more than a total of ten (10) school days in a school year unless a suspension has been extended pending an expulsion hearing, post a Manifestation Determination Review (MDR). During the term of the suspension, McKinzie shall provide the student with meaningful access to education. Missed assignments can be accessed virtually through class websites or arranged for pick-up or delivery with the parent/guardian. The student shall also be given the opportunity to take make-up tests if they were missed during the term of the suspension.

Upon a recommendation of expulsion by the principal or administrative designee, the pupil and the pupil's guardian or representative will be invited to a conference to determine if the suspension for the pupil should be extended pending an expulsion hearing. This determination will be made by the principal or administrative designee upon either of the following: 1) the pupil's presence will be disruptive to the education process; or 2) the pupil poses a threat or danger to others. Upon either determination, the pupil's suspension will be extended pending the results of an expulsion hearing. Students who receive an extended suspension may be offered an interim placement at an LAUSD school, another Alliance school, or coursework from the attending school. Students shall not be suspended for more than a total of twenty (20) school days in a school year, unless a suspension has been extended up to 30 school days pending an expulsion hearing.

Response to Offenses Precluded From In-School Suspension

The following offenses in the Education Code are precluded for in-school suspension:

- Caused, attempted to cause, threatened to cause, or participated in an act of hate violence
- Engaged in harassment, threats, or intimidation against a pupil or group of pupils or school district personnel
- Made terrorist threats against school officials or school property, or both

Additionally, if an action to expel the student will be or has already started, an in-school suspension is not permitted in lieu of a suspension from school.

Out-of-School Suspension Procedures

Fair and Thorough Investigation

The process for investigating incidents and collecting evidence for suspensions and expulsions will be fair and thorough.

Authorization to Suspend

Principal and administrative designees are authorized to suspend scholars.

Adequate Notice to Student

The process for investigating incidents and collecting evidence for suspensions and expulsions will be fair and thorough. Suspension is preceded by a conference conducted by the principal or administrative designee (e.g., assistant principal, dean of students) with the student and the student's parent/guardian. The conference may be omitted if the administrative staff determines that an emergency situation exists. An "emergency situation" involves a clear and present danger to the lives, safety or health of students or school personnel. If the student is suspended without a conference, the parent/guardian is notified of the suspension, a request for a conference is to be made as soon as possible, and the conference is to be held as soon as possible. In all cases, the scholar is given an opportunity to respond to the charges.

Adequate Notice to Parent(s)

At the time of suspension (both out-of-school and in-school), the Principal or administrative designee will contact the parent/guardian (and foster youth representatives, if applicable) by telephone or in person. Whenever a student is suspended, the parent/guardian shall be notified in writing of the suspension and the date of return following suspension in the primary language of the guardian. This notice shall state the specific offense(s) committed by the student. In addition, the notice shall also state the date and time the student may return to school. The principal or administrative designee shall request to confer with the parent/guardian regarding matters pertinent to the suspension; parents/guardians are strongly encouraged to respond without delay as student violations of school rules may result in student expulsion from the school.

Appeal of Suspension

The suspension of a student is at the discretion of the principal or administrative designee. Parents/guardians shall be notified in advance of the enactment of the suspension and can appeal a student's suspension. A suspension appeal shall be submitted in writing to the Alliance Home Office Chief Instructional Officer, and shall be heard if requested within five (5) school days of the notification of suspension by the principal or administrative designee. Upon consideration of the evidence presented in the appeal, the Chief Instructional Officer's decision shall be final. The student shall be considered suspended until a meeting is convened to hear the appeal. The decision regarding the appeal will be made within one (1) school day of the appeal hearing. Parents/guardians will be notified of the decision in writing within three (3) school days. For students who are recommended for expulsion, any appeal of the suspension will be considered concurrently with the expulsion process.

Maximum Days of Suspension

Suspensions (both out-of-school and in-school), when not including a recommendation for expulsion, shall not exceed five (5) consecutive school days per suspension for students in general education and including any student being served under Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973. Students shall not be suspended for more than a total of twenty (20) school days in a school year, unless a suspension has been extended up to 30 school days pending an expulsion hearing. Students with IEPs shall not be suspended for more than a total of ten (10) school days in a school year unless a suspension has been extended pending an expulsion hearing, post a Manifestation Determination Review (MDR).

Access to Education

During the term of the suspension, McKinzie shall provide the student with meaningful access to education. Missed assignments can be accessed virtually through class websites or arranged for pick-up or delivery with the parent/guardian. The student shall also be given the opportunity to take make-up tests if they were missed during the term of the suspension.

Rules and Procedures Pending Outcome of Expulsion Process

Upon a recommendation of expulsion by the principal or administrative designee, the pupil and the pupil's guardian or representative will be invited to a conference to determine if the suspension for the pupil should be extended pending an expulsion hearing. This determination will be made by the principal or administrative designee upon either of the following: 1) the pupil's presence will be disruptive to the education process; or 2) the pupil poses a threat or danger to others. Upon either determination, the pupil's suspension will be extended pending the results of an expulsion hearing. Students who receive an extended suspension may be offered an interim placement for meaningful access to education at an LAUSD school, another Alliance school, or coursework from the attending school. Students shall not be suspended for more than a total of twenty (20) school days in a school year, unless a suspension has been extended up to 30 school days pending an expulsion hearing.

Expulsion Procedures

Adequate Notice of Reason to Student and Parent

The process for investigating incidents and collecting evidence for suspensions and expulsions will be fair and thorough. Upon a recommendation of expulsion by the principal or administrative designee, the pupil and the pupil's parent/guardian or representative (including representatives for foster youth) will be invited, by letter or by phone, to a pre-expulsion conference within five (5) school days. During the conference, they will have the right to respond to the allegation. If necessary, they will be given three (3) additional school days after the conference to respond. This conference will also provide an opportunity to determine if the suspension for the pupil should be extended pending an expulsion hearing. This determination will be made by the principal or administrative designee.

Authority to Recommend Expulsion

The process for investigating incidents and collecting evidence for suspensions and expulsions will be fair and thorough. The Principal or administrative designee may recommend expulsion. As stated above, upon a recommendation of expulsion by the principal or administrative designee, the pupil and the pupil's parent/guardian or representative will be invited, by letter or by phone, to a pre-expulsion conference within five (5) school days. During the conference, they will receive written notice of the charges and their rights and have the right to respond to the allegation. If necessary, they will be given three (3) additional school days after the conference to respond. This conference will also provide an opportunity to determine if the suspension for the pupil should be extended pending an expulsion hearing. This determination will be made by the principal or administrative designee.

Adequate Notice of Recommendation and Hearing to Student and Parent

A hearing to determine whether the student should be expelled is required for recommendation for expulsion. The hearing shall be held within 30 school days after the principal makes his/her expulsion recommendation. The hearing shall be presided over by the Expulsion Panel described above.

The principal or administrative designee provides written notice of the hearing to the student and the student's parent/guardian within ten (10) calendar days before the date of the hearing. The notice shall be in the primary language of the guardian. The notice will include information regarding reasonable accommodations and language support, presentation and cross-examination of witnesses and other evidence, representation by counsel or other advocates, and other due process protections and rights. As necessary, the notice will also provide special rules and procedures for incidents involving sexual assault and/or battery (e.g., provide complaining witness with a copy of applicable disciplinary rules and advisement of rights, postponement of expulsion hearing for one school day to accommodate the special physical, mental and emotional needs of complaining witness, provide a nonthreatening environment for complaining witness to speak freely and accurately of his/her experiences, breaks during testimony as needed, advisement of complaining witness and accused pupil to refrain from personal or telephonic contact). The documentary evidence packet shall be made available to the student and/or parents/guardians upon request.

An audio recording of the hearing and proceedings will be created and retained.

Interim Placement

Students who receive an extended suspension may be offered an interim placement at an LAUSD school, another Alliance school, or coursework from the attending school. For scholars with disabilities, the interim placement discussion must happen during the Expulsion Analysis IEP meeting. If an Interim placement option may be needed, we will work with LAUSD COP to provide Alternative Interim Educational Placement.

Authority to Make Expulsion Decision

A student may be expelled by a three (3) member panel, known as the Expulsion Panel that is designated by the McKinzie School Board of Directors ("School Board"). The Expulsion Panel shall be approved by the Board Chair and will consist of Alliance College-Ready Public Schools and Alliance's affiliated schools' staff. The members of the Expulsion Panel shall meet the following criteria:

- 1) The members shall have no knowledge or previous familiarity of the student or situation, and
- 2) The members are not school employees.

Expulsion Hearing

Expulsion Hearing

A hearing to determine whether the student should be expelled is required for recommendation for expulsion. The hearing provides a meaningful opportunity to be heard and shall be held within 30 school days after the principal makes his/her expulsion recommendation. The hearing shall be presided over by the Expulsion Panel described above.

The principal or administrative designee provides written notice of the hearing to the student and the student's parent/guardian within ten (10) calendar days before the date of the hearing. The notice shall be in the primary language of the guardian. The notice will include information regarding reasonable accommodations and language support, presentation and cross-examination of witnesses and other evidence, representation by counsel or other advocates, and other due process protections and rights. As necessary, the notice will also provide special rules and procedures for incidents involving sexual assault and/or battery (e.g., provide complaining witness with a copy of applicable disciplinary rules and advisement of rights, postponement of expulsion hearing for one school day to accommodate the special physical, mental and emotional needs of complaining witness, provide a nonthreatening environment for complaining witness to speak freely and accurately of his/her experiences, breaks during testimony as needed, advisement of complaining witness and accused pupil to refrain from personal or telephonic contact). The documentary evidence packet shall be made available to the student and/or parents/guardians upon request.

An audio recording of the hearing and proceedings will be created and retained.

Presentation of Evidence

While technical rules of evidence do not apply to expulsion hearings, evidence may be admitted and used as proof only if it is the kind of evidence in which reasonable persons can rely in the conduct of serious affairs. A determination by the panel to expel must be supported by substantial evidence that the student committed an expellable offense. Also, in accordance to the LAUSD Suspension and Expulsion Matrix, for Category II and II offenses, the school must provide evidence of one or both of the following additional findings: (1) Other means of correction are not feasible or have repeatedly failed to bring about proper conduct, (2) Due to the nature of the act, the student's presence causes a continuing danger to the physical safety of the pupil or others.

Findings of fact shall be based solely on the evidence at the hearing. While hearsay evidence is admissible, no decision to expel shall be based solely on hearsay. Sworn declarations may be admitted as testimony from witnesses of whom the Expulsion Panel determines that disclosure of their identity or testimony at the hearing may subject them to an unreasonable risk of physical or psychological harm. The decision of the panel to expel must be supported by substantial evidence presented at the hearing that the student committed an expellable offense. Also, in accordance to the LAUSD Suspension and Expulsion Matrix, for Category II and II offenses, the school must provide evidence of one or both of the following additional findings: (1) Other means of correction are not feasible or have repeatedly failed to bring about proper conduct, (2) Due to the nature of the act, the student's presence causes a continuing danger to the physical safety of the pupil or others.

The decision of the Expulsion Panel shall be in the form of written findings of fact. The final decision by the panel shall be made within three (3) school days following the conclusion of the hearing.

If the Expulsion Panel decides not to expel and the student is still enrolled, the pupil shall immediately be returned to his/her educational program or be given the opportunity to transfer to another Alliance school with mutual agreement of the parent and the other Alliance school.

Written Notice to Expel

Following a decision of the Expulsion Panel to expel, the principal or administrative designee shall send to the student and parent/guardian written notice of the decision to expel. The notice shall be in the primary language of the guardian. This notice will include the findings of fact, recommendations, referral to alternative placement, recommended rehabilitation plan, recommended expulsion order and appeal procedures. This notice to expel a student will be sent by certified U.S. mail. Records of the proceeding will be made available at anytime upon request to the Principal.

Record of Proceedings

An audio recording of the hearing and proceedings will be created and retained.

Appeal of Decision

An expulsion decision may be appealed within 30 calendar days of the date of the Expulsion Panel's written decision to expel. The parent/guardian must submit the appeal in writing to the principal who will inform the School Board Chair. An Expulsion Appeal Panel shall be convened within 30 school days of receipt of the written appeal, at which time the student's parent/guardian must attend to present his/her appeal either verbally or in writing. Language support shall be provided upon request. The Expulsion Appeal Panel shall have three (3) members. The panel shall be selected by the School Board Chair. Panel members shall not be school employees (they may be Alliance Home Office employees or staff members from other Alliance schools), shall have no familiarity of the incident or student, and shall not be the same individuals that served on the Expulsion Panel. The scope of review of the panel shall be limited to whether there is relevant and material evidence which, in the exercise of reasonable diligence, could not have been produced or which was improperly excluded at the expulsion hearing. The decision of the Expulsion Appeal Panel shall be final. Parents will be notified of the Expulsion Appeal Panel's decision, in writing, within two (2) school days of the hearing. The notice shall be in the primary language of the guardian. In the event that the Expulsion Appeal Panel reverses the expulsion, the student shall be immediately reinstated.

Post-Expulsion Support

In the event of a decision to expel a student, the school will work cooperatively with student's home school district, the county and/or other schools to find alternative placement for the student.

Rehabilitation Plans

Rehabilitation Plans

Pupils who are expelled from an Alliance school shall be given a rehabilitation plan upon expulsion as developed by the Expulsion Panel at the time of the expulsion order, which may include, but is not limited to, periodic review as well as assessment at the time of review for readmission. The rehabilitation plan should include a date not later than one (1) year from the date of expulsion when the pupil may reapply to the Alliance school for readmission.

Readmission

The school shall receive the documentary evidence from parents/guardians or LAUSD as per the student's rehabilitation plan in the findings of fact. This evidence will be reviewed to determine if the plan's requirements have been met to allow for readmission. Upon completion of the readmission process and pending the availability of open seats, the school shall readmit the pupil, unless the school's principal makes a finding that the pupil has not met the conditions of the rehabilitation plan or continues to pose a danger to campus safety. A description of the procedure shall be made available to the pupil and the pupil's parent or guardian at the time the expulsion order is entered and the decision of the school, including any related findings, must be provided to the pupil and the pupil's parent/guardian within a reasonable time.

Reinstatement

Upon completion of the readmission process and a determination that the student has met the terms of the rehabilitation plan, the school shall reinstate the student upon the conclusion of the expulsion period in a timely manner pending the availability of open seats.

ELEMENT 11: Employee Retirement Systems

“The manner by which staff members of the charter schools will be covered by the State Teachers’ Retirement System, the Public Employees’ Retirement System, or federal social security.” (Ed. Code § 47605(c)(5)(K).)

Charter School shall comply in a timely manner with all applicable federal and state laws and regulations, as they may change from time to time, including but not limited to Internal Revenue Code section 414(d) and related regulations, governing Charter School’s participation in, and/or coverage of its staff members by, the State Teachers’ Retirement System (CalSTRS), the Public Employees’ Retirement System (CalPERS), and/or federal social security.

If Charter School participates in, or otherwise covers its staff members by enrolling or continuing their enrollment in, a “government plan” governed by section 414(d) (e.g., CalPERS), upon dissolution or final liquidation of Charter School, and/or its nonprofit public benefit corporation, notwithstanding any provision in Element 15 to the contrary, Charter School shall distribute its net assets in accordance with section 414(d), related regulations, and the government plan’s requirements.

If Charter School participates in CalSTRS and/or CalPERS, Charter School shall continue such participation for the duration of Charter School’s existence under the same CDS code, if mandated by applicable legal and retirement plan requirements.

Certificated Staff Members

STRS - All certificated employees who are eligible participate in the State Teachers Retirement System (CalSTRS). Eligible certificated employees deposit a percentage of their pre-tax creditable earnings in CalSTRS and the School matches this contribution. As of 7/01/2022, certificated employees contribute 10.205% (if subject to PEPPRA) or 10.25% (if not subject to PEPPRA) and McKinzie contributes 19.1%. All withholdings from employees and the Charter School are forwarded to the STRS Fund as required. Employees accumulate service credit years in the same manner as all other members of STRS.

Classified Staff Members

PERS - All classified employees who are eligible participate in the Public Employees Retirement System (CalPERS). Eligible classified employees deposit a percentage of their pre-tax creditable earnings in CalPERS and that the School matches this contribution. As of 7/01/2024, employees contribute 8% (if subject to PEPRA) or 7% (if not subject to PEPRA) and McKinzie contributes 27.05%. All withholdings from employees and the charter school are forwarded to the PERS Fund as required. Employees accumulate service credit years in the same manner as all other members of PERS. Social Security payments are contributed for all qualifying PERS members.

Other Staff Members

OASDI, PARS and Others - McKinzie participates in Old Age Survivor Disability Insurance (OASDI) for non-PERS/STRS eligible part-time employees. The McKinzie School Board of Directors retains the option to consider any other public or private retirement plans, such as the Public Agency Retirement System (PARS), and to coordinate such participation with existing programs as it deems appropriate.

ELEMENT 12: Public School Attendance Alternatives

“The public school attendance alternatives for pupils residing within the school district who choose not to attend charter schools.” (Ed. Code § 47605(c)(5)(L).)

Pupils of Charter School do not have or gain any right to admission in a particular school of any school district, or program of any school district, as a consequence of applying to or enrolling in Charter School, except to the extent that such a right is extended by the school district.

A pupil who chooses not to attend Charter School may attend a public school within the pupil’s school district of residence in accordance with applicable law and that school district’s policies and procedures. The pupil alternatively may seek to enroll in another charter school in accordance with applicable law and the terms of the school’s charter. If LAUSD is the pupil’s school district of residence, an eligible pupil may pursue an inter-district transfer, if available, in accordance with the admission, enrollment, and transfer policies and procedures of the District, as they may change from time to time.

As a public charter school authorized to operate within the boundaries of the Los Angeles Unified School District, McKinzie provides a quality alternative to attending District schools. Students may choose to attend other public schools in the district of residence or pursue an inter-district transfer in accordance with existing enrollment and transfer policies of LAUSD.

McKinzie is a school of choice; no student is required to attend. This information is communicated to families through informational meetings.

ELEMENT 13: Rights of District Employees

“The rights of an employee of the school district upon leaving the employment of the school district to work in a charter school, and of any rights of return to the school district after employment at a charter school.” (Ed. Code § 47605(c)(5)(M).)

Employees of the District who choose to leave the employment of the District to work at Charter School shall have no automatic rights of return to the District after employment at Charter School unless specifically granted by the District through a leave of absence or other agreement or policy of the District as aligned with the collective bargaining agreements of the District. Leave and return rights for District union-represented employees and former employees who accept employment with Charter School will be administered in accordance with applicable collective bargaining agreements and any applicable judicial rulings.

ELEMENT 14: Mandatory Dispute Resolution

“The procedures to be followed by the charter school and the entity granting the charter to resolve disputes relating to provisions of the charter.” (Ed. Code § 47605(c)(5)(N).)

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Any claim, controversy or dispute between the District and Charter School arising out of, or relating to, this Charter, except for any claim, controversy or dispute related to the authorization, non-renewal, revision, and/or revocation of this Charter, (“Dispute”) shall be resolved pursuant to the terms of this Element 14.

Notwithstanding any other provision of law, each party shall bear and be solely responsible for all of its own attorneys’ fees, costs and expenses associated with any Dispute, including, but not limited to, any written/oral communication, meeting, Issues Conference, mediation, arbitration, administrative and/or civil action (including all levels of appeal), and no party shall be ordered to pay, or be awarded, any other party’s attorneys’ fees, costs or expenses in connection therewith, regardless of who may be deemed the prevailing party. Any fees, costs and expenses charged by a mediator or arbitrator (including all associated administration fees, costs and expenses) shall be shared equally by the parties regardless of the outcome or award. To that effect, any order or award of attorneys’ fees, costs and/or expenses, or mediator’s or arbitrator’s fees, costs or expenses (including any associated administration fees, costs and expenses), issued by a mediator, arbitrator, judicial officer (including all levels of appeal) or jury in any Dispute shall be deemed invalid as a matter of law and unenforceable by one party against the other party.

The procedures shall ensure a final audit of the charter school to determine the disposition of all assets and liabilities of the charter school, including plans for disposing of any net assets and for the maintenance and transfer of pupil records.” (Ed. Code § 47605(c)(5)(O).)

REVOCATION OF THE CHARTER

The District may revoke the Charter pursuant to the provisions set forth in the Charter Schools Act of 1992, as they may be amended from time to time. Revocation proceedings are not subject to the dispute resolution provisions set forth in this Charter.

Financial Close-Out

After receiving notification of closure, the California Department of Education (CDE) will notify Charter School and the authorizing entity of any liabilities Charter School owes the state, which may include overpayment of apportionments, unpaid revolving fund loans or grants, and/or similar liabilities. The CDE may ask the county office of education to conduct an audit of the charter school if it has reason to believe that the school received state funding for which it was not eligible. Charter School shall ensure completion of an independent final audit within six months after the closure of Charter School that includes:

1. An accounting of all financial assets. These may include cash and accounts receivable and an inventory of property, equipment, and other items of material value.
2. An accounting of all liabilities. These may include accounts payable or reduction in apportionments due to loans, unpaid staff compensation, audit findings, or other investigations.

3. An assessment of the disposition of any restricted funds received by or due to Charter School.

This audit may serve as Charter School's annual audit if it meets all of the requirements of the annual audit.

Charter School shall pay for the financial closeout audit of Charter School. This audit will be conducted by a neutral, independent licensed CPA who will employ generally accepted accounting principles. Any liability or debt incurred by Charter School will be the responsibility of Charter School and not LAUSD. Charter School understands and acknowledges that Charter School will cover the outstanding debts or liabilities of Charter School. Any unused monies at the time of the audit will be returned to the appropriate funding source. Charter School understands and acknowledges that only unrestricted funds will be used to pay creditors. Any unused AB 602 funds will be returned to the District SELPA or the SELPA in which Charter School participates, and other categorical funds will be returned to the source of funds.

Charter School shall ensure the completion and filing of any annual reports required. These reports include but are not necessarily limited to:

1. Preliminary budgets
2. Interim financial reports
3. Second interim financial reports
4. Final unaudited reports

These reports must be submitted to the CDE and the authorizing entity in the form required. These reports should be submitted as soon as possible after the Closure Action, but no later than the required deadline for reporting for the fiscal year.

For apportionment of categorical programs, the CDE will count the prior year average daily attendance (ADA) or enrollment data of the closed Charter School with the data of the authorizing entity. This practice will occur in the first year after the closure and will continue until CDE data collection processes reflect ADA or enrollment adjustments for all affected LEAs due to the charter closure.

Disposition of Liabilities and Assets

The closeout audit must identify the disposition of all liabilities of Charter School. Charter School closure procedures must also ensure appropriate disposal, in accordance with the District Required Language provisions in Element 11 of this Charter, Charter School's governing board bylaws, fiscal procedures, and any other applicable laws and regulations, of any net assets remaining after all liabilities of Charter School have been paid or otherwise addressed. Such disposal includes, but is not limited to:

1. Charter School, at its cost and expense, shall return to the District any and all property, furniture, equipment, supplies, and other assets provided to Charter School by or on behalf of the District. The District discloses that the California Education Code sets forth the requirements for the disposition of the District's personal property and Charter School shall bear responsibility and liability for any disposition in violation of statutory requirements.

2. The return of any donated materials and property in accordance with any terms and conditions set when the donations were accepted.
3. The return of any grant and restricted categorical funds to their sources according to the terms of the grant or state and federal law.
4. The submission of final expenditure reports for any entitlement grants and the filing of Final Expenditure Reports and Final Performance Reports, as appropriate.

If Charter School is operated as or by a nonprofit corporation, and if the corporation does not have any functions other than operation of Charter School, the corporation shall be dissolved according to its bylaws.

Charter School shall retain sufficient staff, as deemed appropriate by the Charter School governing board to complete all necessary tasks and procedures required to close the school and transfer records in accordance with these closure procedures.

Charter School's governing board shall adopt a plan for wind-up of Charter School and, if necessary, the corporation, in accordance with the requirements of the Corporations Code.

Charter School shall provide LAUSD within fourteen (14) calendar days of the Closure Action with written notice of any outstanding payments due to staff and the time frame and method by which Charter School will make the payments.

Prior to final close-out, Charter School shall complete all actions required by applicable law, including but not limited to the following:

- a. File all final federal, state, and local employer payroll tax returns and issue final W-2s and Form 1099s by the statutory deadlines.
- b. Make final federal tax payments (employee taxes, etc.)
- c. Complete and submit all required federal and state filings and notices to the State of California, the Internal Revenue Service, and the Department of the Treasury, including but not limited to final tax returns and forms (e.g., Form 990 and related Schedules).

This Element 15 shall survive the revocation, expiration, termination, cancellation of this Charter, or any other act or event that would end Charter School's authorization to operate as a charter school or cause Charter School to cease operation. Charter School agrees that, due to the nature of the property and activities that are the subject of this Charter, the District and public shall suffer irreparable harm should Charter School breach any obligation under this Element 15. The District therefore reserves the right to seek equitable relief to enforce any right arising under this Element 15 or any provision of this Element 15 or to prevent or cure any breach of any obligation undertaken, without in any way prejudicing any other legal remedy available to the District. Such legal relief shall include, without limitation, the seeking of a temporary or permanent injunction, restraining order, or order for specific performance, and may be sought in any appropriate court.

In the event that the Charter School closes, the Alliance Home Office Chief Financial Officer, supported by the Alliance Charter Management Organization's (CMO) Vice President of Accounting will serve as the Charter School's closure agent.

Additional Provisions

FACILITIES

Charter School shall comply with all geographic and site limitations and related requirements set forth in Education Code sections 47605.1, 47602(a), and 47605(a).

District-Owned Facilities

If Charter School is using District facilities as of the date of the submission of this charter petition or takes occupancy of District facilities prior to the approval of this charter petition, Charter School shall execute an agreement provided by the District for the use of the District facilities as a condition of the approval of the charter petition. If at any time after the approval of this charter petition Charter School will occupy and use any District facilities, Charter School shall execute an agreement provided by the District for the use of the District facilities prior to occupancy and commencing use. Charter School shall implement and otherwise comply with the terms of any and all applicable facilities use agreements between Charter School and the District.

The circumstances of Charter School's occupancy of District facilities may change over time such as, but not limited to, enrollment, programs, and the conditions of facilities, and the District has a vested interest in having an agreement that is appropriate for the situation.

For a Sole Occupant Agreement or any other use agreement that is not a Proposition 39 Single Year Co-location Use Agreement or a lease issued through the Notice of Intent and bid process, the term may be co-terminous with the approved Charter, as permitted by law. Charter School and the District shall negotiate any modifications of the agreement with the goal of such amendment or new agreement being considered by the LAUSD Board of Education with the renewal of the charter petition. If Charter School and the District cannot execute an agreement in time for such to be considered by the Board of Education with the renewal of the charter petition, the approval of the renewal of the charter petition shall be conditioned upon Charter School and the District executing an amendment to the existing use agreement or a new agreement no later than May 1st or within nine (9) months of the date of the Board of Education's approval of the renewal of the charter petition. During such time period Charter School shall be permitted to remain in occupancy of the District facilities under the terms and conditions of the immediately preceding, executed use agreement; provided, that if Charter School and the District cannot agree upon and execute an amendment or new use agreement by said deadline, Charter School shall vacate the District facilities on or before June 30th of said school year.

Charter School acknowledges and agrees that occupancy and use of District facilities shall be in compliance with applicable laws and District policies for the operation and maintenance of District facilities and furnishings and equipment. Charter School shall comply with all District health, safety, and emergency procedures and requirements and shall be subject to inspection by the District's Facilities Services Division, OEHS, and other District offices in the same manner as other LAUSD campuses. All District facilities (i.e., schools) will remain subject to those laws applicable to public schools.

In the event of an emergency, all District facilities (i.e., schools) are available for use by the American Red Cross and public agencies as emergency locations, which may disrupt or prevent Charter School from conducting its educational programs. If Charter School will share the use of District facilities with other District user groups, Charter School agrees that it will participate in and observe all District safety policies (e.g., emergency chain of information and participation in safety drills).

The use agreements provided by the District for District facilities shall contain terms and conditions addressing issues such as, but not limited to, the following:

- Use: Charter School will be restricted to using the District facilities for the operation of a public school providing educational instruction to public school students consistent with the terms of the Charter and incidental related uses. Separate and apart from its right as authorizer to observe and inspect any part of the charter school at any time pursuant to Education Code 47607(a)(1), the District shall have and reserves the right to inspect District facilities upon reasonable notice to Charter School.
- Furnishings and Equipment: The District shall retain ownership of any furnishings and equipment, including technology, (“F&E”) that it provides to Charter School for use. Charter School, at its sole cost and expense, shall provide maintenance and other services for the good and safe operation of the F&E.
- Leasing; Licensing: Use of the District facilities by any person or entity other than Charter School shall be administered by the District. The parties may agree to an alternative arrangement in the use agreement.
- Programs, Services, and Activities Outside Instructional Program; Third Party Vendors:
 - (i) Any program, service, or activity provided outside the instructional program shall be subject to the terms and provisions of the use agreement, and, additionally, may require a license, permit, or additional agreement issued by the District. The term “instructional program” is defined, per Education Code section 47612 and 5 CCR section 11960, as those required educational activities that generate funding based on “average daily attendance” and includes those extracurricular programs, services, and/or activities that students are required to participate in and do not require the payment of any consideration or fee.
 - (ii) Any program, service, or activity requiring the payment of any consideration or fee or provided by a third party vendor (defined as any person or entity other than Charter School), whether paid or volunteer and regardless of whether such may be within the instructional program, shall be subject to the terms and provisions of the use agreement and such third party vendor shall be required to obtain a license, permit, or additional agreement from the District.
- Minimum Payments or Charges to be Paid to District Arising from the Facilities:

- (i) Pro Rata Share: The District shall collect, and Charter School shall pay a Pro Rata Share for facilities costs as provided in the Charter Schools Act of 1992 and its regulations. The parties may agree to an alternative arrangement regarding facilities costs in the use agreement; and
 - (ii) Taxes; Assessments: Generally, Charter School shall pay any assessment or fee imposed upon or levied on the LAUSD facilities that it is occupying or Charter School's legal or equitable interest created by the use agreement.
- Maintenance & Operations Services: In the event the District agrees to allow Charter School to perform any of the operation and maintenance services, the District shall have the right to inspect the District facilities, and the costs incurred in such inspection shall be paid by Charter School.
 - (i) Co-Location: If Charter School is co-locating or sharing the District facilities with another user, the District shall provide the operations and maintenance services for the District facilities and Charter School shall pay the Pro Rata Share. The parties may agree to an alternative arrangement regarding performance of the operations and maintenance services and payment for such in the use agreement.
 - (ii) Sole Occupant: If Charter School is a sole occupant of District facilities, the District shall allow Charter School, at its sole cost and expense, to provide some operations and maintenance services for the District facilities in accordance with applicable laws and LAUSD's policies on operations and maintenance services for facilities and F&E. NOTWITHSTANDING THE FOREGOING, the District shall provide all services for regulatory inspections which as the owner of the real property it is required to submit, and deferred maintenance, and Charter School shall pay LAUSD for the cost and expense of providing those services. The parties may agree to an alternative arrangement regarding performance of the operations and maintenance services and payment for such services in the use agreement.
- Real Property Insurance: Prior to occupancy, Charter School shall satisfy requirements to participate in LAUSD's property insurance or, if Charter School is the sole occupant of LAUSD facilities, obtain and maintain separate property insurance for the LAUSD facilities. Charter School shall not have the option of obtaining and maintaining separate property insurance for the LAUSD facility IF Charter School is co-locating or sharing the LAUSD facility with another user.

Non-District-Owned Facilities

Occupancy and Use of the Site: Prior to occupancy or use of any school site or facility, Charter School shall provide the CSD with a current Certificate of Occupancy or equivalent document issued by the applicable permitting agency that allows Charter School to use and occupy the site as a charter school. Charter School shall not exceed the operating capacity of the site and shall operate within any limitations or requirements provided by the Certificate of Occupancy and any applicable permit. Charter School may not open or operate without providing a copy of an appropriate Certificate of Occupancy to the CSD. If Charter School intends to move or expand to another facility during the term of this Charter, Charter School shall adhere to any and all District policies and procedures regarding charter material revision and non-material amendment. Prior to occupancy or use of any such additional or changed school site, Charter School shall provide an appropriate Certificate of Occupancy to the CSD for such facility. Notwithstanding any language to the contrary in this Charter, the interpretation, application, and enforcement of this provision are not subject to the Dispute Resolution Process outlined in Element 14.

Facility Compliance: Prior to occupancy or use of any non-District-owned school site and/or facility, Charter School shall ensure that the site and/or facility complies with all applicable building codes, standards and regulations adopted by the city and/or county agencies responsible for building and safety standards for the city in which Charter School is to be located, federal and state accessibility requirements (including the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) and Section 504), and all other applicable fire, health, and structural safety and access requirements. This requirement shall also apply to the construction, reconstruction, alteration of or addition to the facility. Charter School shall resolve in a timely manner any and all corrective actions, orders to comply, and notices issued by any authorized building and safety agency. Charter School cannot exempt itself from applicable building and zoning codes, ordinances, and ADA/Section 504 requirements. Charter School shall maintain on file readily accessible records that document facilities compliance and shall promptly provide such documentation to the CSD upon request.

Pest Management: Charter School shall comply with the Healthy Schools Act, Education Code section 17608, which details pest management requirements for schools.

Asbestos Management: Charter School shall comply with the asbestos requirement as cited in the Asbestos Hazard Emergency Response Act (AHERA), 40 C.F.R. part 763. AHERA requires that any building leased or acquired that is to be used as a school or administrative building shall maintain an asbestos management plan.

FISCAL MATTERS

District Oversight Costs

The District may charge for the actual costs of oversight of Charter School not to exceed 1% of Charter School's revenue, or the District may charge for the actual costs of oversight of Charter School not to exceed 3% if Charter School is able to obtain substantially rent free facilities from the District. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the District may charge the maximum oversight fee allowed under the law as it may change from time to time. The oversight fee provided herein is separate and distinct from the charges arising under charter school facilities use agreements.

Cash Reserves

Charter School acknowledges that the recommended cash reserve is 5% of expenditures, as provided in section 15450, title 5 of the California Code of Regulations.

Third Party Contracts

Charter School shall ensure that all third party contracts, whether oral or written, for supplies, equipment, goods and/or services, for the direct or indirect benefit of, or otherwise related to the operation of, Charter School, require compliance with and otherwise conform to all applicable local, state, and federal policies, regulations, laws, and guidelines, including but not limited to licensing and permit requirements as well as requirements related to protection of health and safety.

Special Education Revenue Adjustment/Payment for Services

In the event that Charter School owes funds to the District for the provision of agreed upon or fee for service or special education services or as a result of the State's adjustment to allocation of special education revenues from Charter School, Charter School authorizes the District to deduct any and all of the in lieu property taxes that Charter School otherwise would be eligible to receive under section 47635 of the Education Code to cover such owed amounts. Charter School further understands and agrees that the District shall make appropriate deductions from the in lieu property tax amounts otherwise owed to Charter School. Should this revenue stream be insufficient in any fiscal year to cover any such costs, Charter School agrees that it will reimburse the District for the additional costs within forty-five (45) business days of being notified of the amounts owed.

Student Body Funds

Charter School shall supervise and manage any and all student body funds in a manner consistent with the provisions of Education Code sections 48930-48938. - The District is authorized to revoke this Charter for, among other reasons, the failure of Charter School to meet generally accepted accounting principles or if Charter School engages in fiscal mismanagement.

Accordingly, the District hereby reserves the right, pursuant to its oversight responsibility, to audit Charter School books, records, data, processes and procedures through the District Office of the Inspector General or other means. The audit may include, but is not limited to, the following areas:
