

BIOGRAPHY – Kyle Newton

Kyle Newton has been the superintendent of Warren Local School District since July 2013. Prior to being the superintendent at Warren Local, he was the superintendent at Crooksville Exempted Village for three years. Kyle has also been an assistant superintendent, building level administrator, high school math teacher, and coach. He is an active member of the Coalition of Rural and Appalachian Schools, in which he has served multiple years as an Executive Board Member and President. Kyle has also served as a board member for Building Bridges 2 Careers. As an administrator, he has focused on creating an inclusive educational environment that is both operationally and instructionally efficient. Over his time as superintendent, he has focused on Community and Career Connected Learning, expanding educational opportunities for all students. At Warren, he led the district through a complete operational and educational redesign, which has increased educational creativity and operational efficiency.

Kyle received his bachelor's degree from the University of Rio Grande and his master's degree from Ohio University. He is also a proud Ohio Army Reserves veteran. Kyle is married to Tara (Johnson) and they have three sons, Riley, Ethan, Reagan, and one daughter, Evelyn.
