AUGUST 18TH UPDATE

VERROCO'S VOICE

Hello Parents and Guardians!

As we look ahead to the upcoming school year, there is so much to be excited about. To our students: embrace this school year with curiosity, courage and an open mind to new procedures, teachers, and traditions. Continue to set goals, challenge yourself, and remember that each day is a new day. You will be successful!!!!

To our families and community; thank you for your continued encouragement and support. Your partnership helps create an environment where students can thrive both inside and outside the classroom. I would like you to reach out to our staff consistently, visit our website, join progressbook, and attend our events to support our students/staff.

TOGETHER, I know we can build a school community grounded in learning, kindness, and respect.

Welcome back and here's to an incredible year ahead.
