

Subcomite Estudiantes Afroamericanos

El señor Erick J. White dio la bienvenida a las 10:15 e hizo un repaso de la agenda.

10:35am El señor Erick pregunta si hay dudas o comentarios.

10:40am El Señor Erick comenta sobre su experiencia como padre de hijos afroamericanos, con un mal servicio en el plantel escolar y maestro no capacitados para las materias.

La señora Noemi Hesiquio comenta que BSAP ya tiene un plan o meta 7 para ellos y que nuestras reuniones de subcomite trabajaron en esas agendas por 3 meses.

El Doctor Charles D. Smith, y el Señor Brandy Travis nos acompañaron a una conferencia referente a los programas ya en curso.

10:55am sugerencias para el PAC

Subcommittee for African American Students

Mr. Erick J. White welcomed everyone at 10:15 a.m. and went over the agenda.

10:35 a.m. Mr. Erick asked if there were any questions or comments.

10:40 a.m. Mr. Erick shared his experience as a parent of African American children, mentioning poor service at the school site and unqualified teachers for certain subjects.

Ms. Noemi Hesiquio mentioned that BSAP already has a plan or Goal 7 for them and that our subcommittee meetings have worked on those agendas for three months.

Dr. Charles D. Smith and Mr. Brandy Travis joined us for a conference related to the programs currently underway.

10:55 a.m. – Suggestions for the PAC (Parent Advisory Committee):

1. That Goal 7 (BSAP) and the academic performance plan for African American students be implemented and evaluated.
2. Actions 2, 4, and 5 of Goal 7 (BSAP).
3. Connections to the five aspirations: identity, ability, intellect, critical thinking, and joy.
4. Principle C:

Multilevel individual support, all related to iReady, before and after school as needed.

Math, science, and reading.

Multilevel mental health and well-being support.

Please, we need updated reports on progress from kindergarten through high school at least twice a year.

Thank you.
