SAVING LIVES: LEARN ABOUT SUBSTANCE USE, RECOGNIZING SIGNS OF OVERDOSE, WHAT TO DO AND WHERE TO FIND HELP

This workshop will equip parents with crucial knowledge and tools to address substance use and its risks. We'll explore reasons behind substance use, including peer pressure and mental health issues, and provide essential information about fentanyl, a dangerous opioid. Learn how to spot signs of overdose, how to approach sensitive conversations with your child, and where to find the right support and resources. We'll also cover naloxone, a vital medication for reversing opioid overdoses, and guide you on how to use it. Join us to be prepared and proactive in supporting your child's well-being.
