YOUR VOICE MATTERS HELP SHAPE THE BLACK STUDENT ACHIEVEMENT PLAN (BSAP)! FALL BSAP TOWN HALL MEETING

Join families from across the district in regional breakout rooms to connect with regional staff, celebrate BSAP wins, and share how BSAP is supporting your student this school year. This College Awareness Month kickoff will also feature a college video and a spotlight on our graduating scholars. All families are welcome to join.

EXPLORE, PREPARE, SUCCEED: COLLEGE PATHWAYS, POSSIBILITIES & RESOURCES FOR FAMILIES

Join us for an informative webinar designed to help District families understand college and career pathways and the resources available to support their students' success. We'll explore certificates, associate and bachelor's degrees, College Promise, financial aid, dual enrollment, academic preparation, accommodations and support services, CTE and noncredit programs, Dream Centers, citizenship resources, and student success stories. We'll also connect these opportunities to the high school experience by highlighting LAUSD's A-G Office resources, including student reports, college journals, college knowledge webinars, and financial aid information. Together, we'll help families connect the dots between high school preparation, postsecondary options, and the resources that can help students take their next step with confidence.

YOUR VOICE, YOUR COMMUNITY: ENGAGING WITH ELECTED OFFICIALS AND PREPARING FOR ELECTIONS

Your voice matters — and you don't have to be a political expert to make it heard! Join the Office of Government Relations (OGR) for an engaging, practical conversation designed to help district parents feel confident navigating the civic process. Learn who represents you, how to connect with elected officials, how to share your family's experiences and concerns effectively, and how to prepare to participate in the upcoming November 2026 elections. Whether you're new to civic engagement or already involved in your community, you'll leave with simple tools, helpful resources, and actionable steps to make your voice count before, during, and beyond Election Day.

LOS ANGELES UNIFIED REGION AMBASSADORS

Region Ambassadors engage in deep learning over three sessions on topics about how the school site and the Region serve the academic achievement and wellbeing of students. Region Ambassadors are invited to share their learning with their parent peers through conversations in and outside the school. Participants who complete all three sessions of one of the chosen pathways will be recognized at the Family Academy Hybrid Summit in the spring.

STRONGER SCHOOLS TOGETHER ORIENTATION SESSIONS BY REGION

As our communities and schools change, we have an opportunity to look together at the work ahead and how we can strengthen the school experience and expand opportunities for students. We invite you to join us for a Stronger Schools Together Information Session hosted by Region. During the presentation, District leadership will offer a general orientation. This is an opportunity to learn more about the work ahead and why we are having these conversations now. Please note that this is just the beginning of an ongoing dialogue of meetings — no final decisions or recommendations will be made yet, and deeper Listen-and-Learn meetings will follow in the coming months.

LANGUAGE SUPPORT:

Simultaneous Spanish interpretation will be offered.

Families and schools across L.A. are invited to come together for this powerful workshop designed to inform, support, and empower our communities.

Developed with the help of trusted nonprofit experts, these sessions cover key topics like legal rights as immigrants, education, housing, health, and more. While not offering legal advice, the workshops provide vital tools, resources, and connections to help families stay prepared and resilient.

Principals are encouraged to share this opportunity with families and help build a stronger school community by hosting on-campus watch parties. These gatherings not only offer a space to learn but also create moments for connection, mutual support, and community-building. Let's grow stronger — together.

Disclaimer: LAUSD does not offer legal advice. The workshops are for informational purposes only and the content is subject to revisions and updates depending on any changes in policies, procedures, and law. For legal counsel, please consult with licensed attorneys.
