REGION AMBASSADOR: SPECIAL EDUCATION (SESSION # 2) HELPING YOUR CHILD THRIVE: SUPPORTING WITH INSTRUCTION AT HOME

Supporting your student at home with instruction is a powerful way to enhance their academic success and build confidence in their learning journey. By creating a positive and structured environment, staying connected with teachers, and reinforcing classroom concepts through everyday activities, parents and caregivers play a crucial role in their child's education. This session will provide parents with strategies to be a partner in their child's education, with ideas for how to support instruction.

Kindergarten, First and Second Grade students in California must be screened for risk of reading difficulties every year. LAUSD K-2nd grade students were screened in November - December.

JOIN US TO UNDERSTAND:

- ✔ What information you should receive from the school about the RDRS results ✦
- ✔ What the results mean and how schools will support students at risk of potential reading difficulties ✦
- ✔ How you can help your child improve reading skills at home ✦

✦ The same information will be presented in all 3 sessions.
Please select ONE session to attend.

Simultaneous Spanish interpretation will be offered.

Families and schools across L.A. are invited to come together for this powerful weekly workshop designed to inform, support, and empower our communities.

Developed with the help of trusted nonprofit experts, these sessions cover key topics like legal rights as immigrants, education, housing, health, and more. While not offering legal advice, the workshops provide vital tools, resources, and connections to help families stay prepared and resilient.

Principals are encouraged to share this opportunity with families and help build a stronger school community by hosting on-campus watch parties. These gatherings not only offer a space to learn but also create moments for connection, mutual support, and community-building. Let's grow stronger—together.

Disclaimer: LAUSD does not offer legal advice. The workshops are for informational purposes only and the content is subject to revisions and updates depending on any changes in policies, procedures, and law. For legal counsel, please consult with licensed attorneys.
