VI. Chairperson's Report:

Mrs. Diana Guillen, Chairperson presented her report and proposal follow-up.

She included a quote from Mr. Eduardo Galeano that reads as follows, "Charity is humiliating because it is practiced vertically from the top. Solidarity is horizontal and executes mutual respect." Ms. Guillen explained that it is humiliating because people that are on top of others practice charity from a position of superiority, and people who practice solidarity practice from a position of equality because they are at the same level and exercise equal respect.

Ms. Guillen reviewed UTLA's Proposals (teacher union proposal) and gave an update on budgetary projections. She emphasized that the District is in good budgetary standing to support students by hiring nurses, counselors and giving teachers a better salary. She went over the chart of enrollment in more than 1,000 schools, the reclassification data trend for 13 years has been 15.33%, and it has fluctuated. Local District data was also added. Ms. Guillen encouraged the members and parents to ask the school for the School Plan. The detailed budget that the school received for the year is included in the plan along with the expenditures. She also shared an article from the Los Angeles Times about graduation and college readiness. DELAC has proposed the following for parents to engage and lead: stipends for parents that participate at the Central District level, workshops 3 times a year that focus on reclassification, advocacy, and parents' rights, increase in translation personnel from 9% to 18%. Ms. Guillen concluded her report sharing thoughts on the Local District ELAC delegate meetings and the seriousness of addressing the social problems of gangs and drugs along with healthy meals for students. Ms. Guillen answered questions.

- VII. Presentation: LAUSD School Attendance, Truancy, Chronic Absenteeism Facts, and Data: Diana Guillen, Chairperson, gave the floor to Ely Rosado, Director, Pupil Services and Attendance Student Health and Human Services at 11:24 a.m. Mrs. Rosado addressed the five pillars of Attendance in LAUSD which consists of Academic Excellence, Joy and Wellness, Engagement and Collaboration, Operational Effectiveness, and Investing in Staff. Mrs. Rosado touched on the legal perspective of absences. She also shared the percentages between excellent and chronic absenteeism. Students with excellent attendance miss no more than 7 days per school year. The District's goal is for all students to attend at a rate of 96%. She explained the difference between truancy vs chronic absences. She also explained the difference between excused and unexcused absences. Regular attendance is critical for student achievement and success and that is why our students need to be in school every day. Mrs. Rosado provided resources for parents and caregivers on how they can receive support to help improve student attendance. She shared her time with Mrs. Martha Alvarez, Chief of Legislative Affairs & Governmental Relations that shared information on Senate Bill 830. Mrs. Alvarez began her presentation by asking parents for their support for Senate Bill 830. She went into detail about a 4-year comparison of chronic absences by Local District, by language, by English only, by Initially Fluent English Proficient, Reclassified Fluent English Proficient, and by Emerging Bilinguals, percent of students at 91% or lower. She also provided resources from Student Health and Human Services and encouraged parents to access the Parent Portal and the Family Hotline, as they can receive current information and updates. Mrs. Alvarez answered questions and concluded by reminded the parent members that they are here to help. Marcela Garcia, member made the motion to extend the meeting by 30 minutes, seconded by Mrs. Maria Duran. 24 in favor, 0 against, 1 abstention; Motion passed Members were asked to join the breakout rooms where they had the opportunity to provide advisement on School Attendance.
