

Greetings

We are thrilled to initiate a year of learning with our students and families. We wish you a new year filled with bountiful blessings, health, joy, peace and excellence. As members of the DELAC you are modeling for our young scholars that we are constantly learning and at PCS we understand it is a great privilege to learn alongside every one of you. To fulfill this belief we continue to put in place leadership development opportunities our members identify during our strategic planning and budget development sessions with parent leaders. We are initiating this year with two unique opportunities for the DELAC to help in the cycle of developing voice, leadership and advocacy. The first course we are offering is the Understanding Data Course to introduce and build practice understanding on student and school site measure of progress. This is a three-session course and one of three courses requested by members last year to help with developing comments as committee members. We are also offering the DELAC a leadership course starting in January to develop greater consciousness and linking our role as leaders in all facets of our lives--- as parents, civic leaders, volunteers and members of a district level committee. Please make time to be present in learning during these two courses.

We also want to shed light on the budget development process that is an annual cycle led at every school site where school site leaders with families and secondary students come together to review assets and school community needs, in addition to data, and recommend how categorical and school site budgets are to be spent for the new year. We encourage you to attend two school site forums where the community is engaged in the budget development conversation:

- School Site Council: Specifically reviews Title I funds focused on funding interventions and resources to accelerate learning, in addition to family engagement.
- Annual School Goals and Budget Consultation Meeting: This is a new requirement for school sites who are asked to engage the community at large, including parents and students, to advise on how all categorical and general fund dollars may be spend on a school campus.

To download a copy of your school budget allocation sheets visit the District's directory, type your school name, and download the School Allocation Summary available at:

<https://schooldirectory.lausd.net/schooldirectory/>. If you have questions about the budget development season email us and we will provide guidance.
