English Learner Master Plan

Elementary Strategy

- PREVENTION
- Set a benchmark of reasonable acquisition of proficiency
 - New resources for teachers of English Learners in K-2 to assist with foundational reading skills
- LAUSD- at the end of 5 consistent years of instruction students should be able to meet the reclassification criteria
- Monitor Literacy Development
- Monitor Teacher Marking Practices
 - New English Learner Data Dashboard

Secondary Strategy

- INTERVENTION
- Remove Barriers and create new pathways
 - B credit for LTEL
 - Will develop Primary language A-G courses for Newcomers
- Identify the placement, progress and instructional practices for all English Learners
 - EL Service coding in CALPADS
 - A-G monitoring
- Establish the difference between the instructional needs of a newcomer and a Long Term English Learner
 - EL Placement Monitoring

Schools' Civil Rights Obligations to English Learner Students and Limited English Proficient Parents- United States Department of Justice

English learner (EL) students constitute nine percent of all public school students and are enrolled in nearly three out of every four public schools. Under Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 (Title VI) and the Equal Educational Opportunities Act of 1974 (EEOA), public schools must ensure that EL students can participate meaningfully and equally in educational programs.

The U.S. Department of Education (ED) and the U.S. Department of Justice (DOJ) have issued joint guidance to remind state education agencies (SEAs), public school districts, and public schools of their legal obligation to ensure that EL students can participate meaningfully and equally in educational programs.
