

Summary of Last Parent Advisory Committee Meeting

The following is a brief summary of the Parent Advisory Committee meeting held on January 21, 2021. You are welcome to use this summary to inform parents about the topics and comments discussed by the membership at Local District study groups, and school-site committee meetings.

- I. Local District PAC Member Introductions
  - a. Local District PAC members introduce themselves to the participants

- II. Responsibilities Assigned to the Parent Advisory Committee
  - a. What is the Local Control and Accountability Plan?
    - i. A plan that contains the District's 6 goals, actions and services that the District is taking to reach those goals, and the funds used in the District to support the actions and services.
    - ii. The plan is a 3-year plan, with the next cycle for the plan beginning in the 2021-2022 school year.
  - b. What is the Parent Advisory Committee?
    - i. A committee comprised of 55 representatives and 24 alternates who review and develop comments on the Local Control and Accountability Plan.
  - c. How can parents get involved and become members of the PAC?
    - i. Parents can view the meetings online and join the Local District LCAP Study Groups. In the Fall each year, new members are elected in each Local District from the Study Groups.

- III. Topics Discussed at the PAC Meeting on January 21, 2021
  - a. Presentation from Board Member Scott Schmerelson
    - a. The Board Member shared comments, and parents asked questions.
  - b. Presentation on the 2021-2024 LCAP Timeline
    - a. History about the 2017-2020 LCAP was provided.
    - b. Parents were asked to complete a survey on student academic support and District programs.
    - c. Metrics and initiatives for the 2021-2024 LCAP were shared.
  - c. Reports from Chairpersons on 5 Standing Subcommittees of the PAC: African American Student, Bylaws, English Learner, Foster Youth, Legislation
  - d. Consideration of 2 Additional Standing Subcommittees for the PAC: Two Way Communication With Parents at Schools and Special Education

- IV. Comments and Themes Emerging
  - a. The new LCAP will have more metrics that measure improvement and implementation.
  - b. Updates were requested on the Learning Continuity and Attendance Plan developed in the summer.

- V. Closing remarks