Stacy Garrity
Pennsylvania Treasurer

Keystone Scholars is open to Pennsylvania residents born on or after January 1, 2019, and children born on or after January 1, 2019, who are subsequently adopted by a Pennsylvania resident. The child must be a Pennsylvania resident at birth or adoption and at the time the Keystone Scholars funds are used. The child must also be the beneficiary of a PA 529 account other than the Keystone Scholars account at the time Keystone Scholars funds are used. If not used by the beneficiary's 29th birthday, the funds will be returned to the Pennsylvania Treasury Department (Treasury). Funds in a Keystone Scholars account will be invested in a PA 529 GSP account and will remain under the sole custody of Treasury until they are used for the purposes of paying for qualified higher education expenses at an institution of higher education. The Keystone Scholars Program is funded without taxpayer money.

Give them the power of education
by claiming their $100 scholarship.

Power Their Dreams. Power Their Future.

- All children born to or adopted by PA residents automatically have a $100 scholarship account from Keystone Scholars for post-high school education.*
- Scholarships can be used for a variety of qualifying technical, collegiate, apprenticeship, and credential educational expenses between the ages of 18 and 29.
- Best of all, this account will grow alongside your child and be there to power their dreams.

*Child must be born on or after January 1, 2019.

Claim Your Account

- 1 Go to pa529.com/keystone.
- 2 Enter the child's date of birth and unique code or the state file number from child's PA birth certificate (see below for state file number location on birth certificate).
- 3 Enter ZIP code.
- 4 Claim the account and watch your child's $100 grow!

How Keystone Scholars Works

Accounts are created approximately 4 to 6 months after the child is born.

Families receive a postcard with instructions on how to claim the child's account.

Child's account can be claimed at pa529.com/keystone.

Families can save additional money in a PA 529 College and Career Savings Program account.
