Calculator Requirements

2024 - 2025

The mathematics department requires that all students own a handheld graphing calculator for use in class. The calculator will also be used in science classes and is approved for use on standardized tests such as the PSAT, SAT and ACT exams. The required calculator is the Texas Instruments TI-84 graphing calculator.

The following information is included to help you locate the appropriate calculator.

Some local stores and online sites carrying TI-84 Graphing Calculators*

Staples (also available online)
Wal-Mart (also available online)
Amazon
Best Buy
Target
EBay

- The TI-84 plus CE is recommended, however any calculator from the TI-84 plus family is acceptable.

- Do not purchase the TI-Nspire
